ANNEX I - RULES ON THE SALARY ADJUSTMENT METHOD FOR STAFF OF THE CO-ORDINATED ORGANISATIONS

CHAPTER I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 Duration of validity and subsequent amendments to the rules

- 1.1 These rules shall determine the salary adjustment procedure for the four-year period from 1 January 2022 to 31 December 2025 and shall govern any adjustment in salaries recommended during that period. Should any amendments subsequently be made to these rules, no provision which ceases to apply shall give rise to vested rights.
- 1.2 Proposals to amend these rules as from 1 January 2026 shall be submitted for examination by the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration (CCR) before 1 March 2024. In the absence of any recommendation by the CCR, made by 30 June 2025 at the latest, either to prolong or amend these present rules with effect from 1 January 2026, the rules, as applicable in year 2025, shall be prolonged until 31 December 2026. Under such circumstances, in the absence of any recommendation by the CCR, made by 30 June 2026 at the latest, either to prolong or amend these rules with effect from 1 January 2027, the present rules, as applicable in year 2026, shall be prolonged until 31 December 2027.
- 1.3 In the event that no consensus has been reached by 31 March 2027, the CCR Chairperson shall submit his/her report to Governing bodies of the Co-ordinated Organisations (COs) on the different views expressed in the CCR, outlining as far as possible the broad lines of consensus, in accordance with Article 6 (c) of the Regulations concerning the Co-ordination system [154th CCR Report], by 30 April 2027 at the latest.

Article 2 Frequency of adjustments

- 2.1 Salary scales shall be adjusted annually at 1 January subject to the provisions in Articles 6 and 7.
- 2.2 Special adjustments may be made in accordance with the provisions in Article 8.

Article 3 Procedure

- 3.1 Every year, the CCR shall examine the proposals for salary adjustment submitted by the Secretaries/Directors-General in accordance with these rules.
- 3.2 The CCR shall make the recommendations necessary for the application of the present rules in accordance with sub-paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Article 6 of the Regulations concerning the Co-ordination system [154th CCR Report]. Recommendations concerning the adjustment of salaries at 1 January shall be made no later than 30 September of the preceding year referred to in Article 4.1.4 below.
- 3.3 When presenting reports on adjustment of salaries, the Secretaries/Directors-General shall inform their Governing bodies of the financial consequences for their respective budgets, resulting from the CCR recommendations.

- 3.4 For the calculation of the reference index set out in Article 4 below, the National Civil Services (NCS) of the reference countries shall provide the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions (ISRP) with the relevant data available at 1 April to cover the reference period referred to in Article 4.1.3 and shall confirm this data no later than 15 July. Changes in relevant data after 15 July shall be taken into account in the next annual adjustment.

CHAPTER II: DEFINITIONS

Article 4 Definitions

For the purposes of the calculations provided for in these rules:

4.1 Elements involved in the calculations aiming to ensure parallelism with NCS

4.1.1 NCS shall mean the central government of the countries retained as reference for the calculations [see Appendix 1].

4.1.2 Remuneration for the reference NCS comprises the following elements:

- basic salary;
- other elements of normal remuneration [see definitions in Appendix 8].

4.1.3 Reference period shall mean the period from 1 July to 1 July preceding the 1 January annual adjustment, except for Spain for which the reference period shall mean the calendar period 31 December to 31 December of the year preceding the end of the reference period in the other reference countries.

4.1.4 The preceding year shall mean the year preceding the 1 January annual adjustment.

4.1.5 The reference countries are the following eight member countries of the COs: Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Spain and the United Kingdom.

4.1.6 Reference index

4.1.6.1 The reference index is the calculation mechanism which aims to reflect a parallel evolution of salaries in the COs with those of national civil servants in the reference countries.

4.1.6.2 The final reference index shall result from the calculation of the weighted average of the changes in percentage in real terms in the net remuneration of comparable grades in the NCS of the reference countries, covering two reference periods with a weight of two-thirds for the reference period as defined in Article 4.1.3 and a weight of one-third for the preceding reference period. The changes in all comparable grades shall be aggregated by a weighted average across all reference countries on the basis of COs staff numbers and in accordance with Appendix 5. Should the evolution of the reference index be below 98.0 or above 102.0, the part beyond these thresholds shall be delayed to either the last day of the year when the salary adjustment calculation in question would have taken effect or the first day of the subsequent year as decided by the Governing bodies of each Co-ordinated Organisation (CO).

4.1.6.3 Comparable grades shall mean those grades of officials of NCS in the reference countries whose functions can be matched with staff of categories A and B of the COs or the equivalent levels as set out in a single spine [see Appendix 4].

4.1.6.4 Net remuneration in the NCS shall mean the simple average of net minimum and maximum salaries obtained from gross salaries, to which have been added all of the other elements that normally make up the remuneration of unmarried officials in the grade in question in the NCS, as defined in Article 4.1.2, after deduction of the amount of compulsory social contributions and of income tax levied by the central authorities on unmarried officials and calculated without taking into account non-automatic personal deductions.

4.1.6.5 The effect of variations from one year to another in a specific compulsory deduction made from the salaries of officials in the NCS, if a comparable and compulsory deduction is also made to the COs staff's salaries, shall be neutralised in order to avoid double-counting of these variations, in accordance with instructions set out in Appendix 7. The ISRP will determine the ensuing effect on an ad hoc basis with the reference countries concerned when there are changes in the salaries of civil service officials due to a variation in compulsory social contributions.

4.1.6.6 Deductions from NCS salaries for benefits not granted to staff of the CO shall not be taken into account. A list of comparable and non-applicable compulsory deductions is attached in Appendix 6. This list will be updated when changes occur in the NCS or in COs during the lifetime of the Salary Adjustment Method. When necessary, it shall be attached to the CCR recommendation on the annual scale adjustment.

4.1.6.7 The weighted average of percentage changes in real terms shall mean the percentage arrived at after:

- first, calculating for each comparable grade in each NCS in the reference countries, the changes in real terms in the real net remuneration [see Articles 4.1.6.4, 4.1.6.5 and 4.1.6.6 above] by deflating the index for the trend in net nominal salaries by the consumer price index as defined in Appendix 3;
- second, calculating a specific intermediate reference index for each country of average changes in real terms for all comparable grades aggregated by the number of COs staff across all reference countries and in accordance with the weights defined in Appendix 5;
- third, and finally, calculating the reference country weighted average of the specific intermediate reference indices of the eight reference countries.

4.1.6.8 The weight per reference country to be used shall be fixed for the duration of the method and shall be the following: 8.6 for Belgium, 16.3 for France, 19.1 for Germany, 14.0 for Italy, 6.8 for Luxembourg, 9.2 for the Netherlands, 11.0 for Spain and 15.0 for the United Kingdom.

4.1.6.9 The above weights result from the following calculation: 50% shall be distributed proportionally according to the contribution of each reference country to the budget of each CO for 2021, weighted by the number of COs staff posted in each reference country. The remaining 50% will be equally allocated among the eight reference countries.

4.1.7 Consumer price indices

4.1.7.1 Consumer price indices, in addition to being used to deflate the index for the trend in net nominal salaries in NCS of the reference countries as defined in Article 4.1.5, shall also be used to reinject the price trend in each duty country within the Co-ordinated system to the final reference index, with the aim to reflect the average evolution of the disposable income in NCS of the reference countries in the adjustment of salaries of the COs.

4.1.7.2 The trend in prices shall be reflected by the relevant consumer price indices as indicated in Appendix 3.

4.2 Elements involved in the calculations aiming to ensure equivalence in purchasing power

4.2.1 Purchasing power parities

4.2.1.1 Purchasing power parities (PPP) are the statistical tool used to ensure that staff have an equivalent purchasing power wherever they are posted.

4.2.1.2 The PPP to be used in implementing these rules shall be those defined in Appendix 2.

4.2.2 Reference curves of purchasing power

4.2.2.1 The results of the calculations of the PPP constitute the central reference of a curve called the reference curve of purchasing power. This reference curve, which admits a range of plus or minus 2%, is obtained by applying the PPP coefficient of a country to the scale for Belgium.

4.2.2.2 The modalities of application of the PPP and the purchasing power reference curves are defined in Appendix 2.

CHAPTER III: ANNUAL ADJUSTMENTS OF BASIC SALARIES

Article 5 Annual adjustments of basic salaries

5.1 Scale for Belgium

5.1.1 Subject to the provisions of Articles 6 and 7, the basic salaries of categories A, L, B and C or the basic salary levels as set out in a single spine, for staff posted in Belgium, shall be adjusted at 1 January following the reference period. The amount of this adjustment shall be equivalent to the change in percentage during the reference period resulting from the product of the relevant consumer price index as set out in Appendix 3 and the final reference index.

5.2 Scales for other countries

5.2.1 Subject to the provisions of Articles 6 and 7, the basic salaries for categories A, L, B and C or the basic salary levels as set out in a single spine, for staff posted in the other countries, shall be adjusted at 1 January following the reference period by the salary adjustment resulting from the product of the final reference index referred to in Article 4.1.6.2 above, and the relevant consumer price index, corrected if necessary by the PPP as set out in Appendix 2, in order to guarantee a relative equivalency in purchasing power between the scales of the countries concerned.

5.2.2 These percentage adjustments shall apply to basic salaries in force at 31 December of the preceding year.

CHAPTER IV: EXCEPTION CLAUSE

Article 6: Exception Clause

6.1 The Secretaries/Directors-General shall provide the CCR with forecast data of real Gross Domestic Product (GDP) as published by the OECD in June of year n.

6.2 When the reference index is above 100 and the average GDP growth rates of the eight reference countries, weighted according to the weights set out in Article 4.1.6.2, is equal or below -3%, the salary scales shall be adjusted as follows:

- The provisions of Article 2.1 shall apply to salary scales subject to a negative annual adjustment index;
- For salary scales with a positive annual adjustment index, the provisions set out in Articles 4.1.7 and 4.2 shall be applied with effect from 1 January on the basis of a reference index set at 100, while the annual adjustment indices calculated in accordance with Article 4 in its entirety shall be applied with effect from 1 December of the year concerned. When the implementation of this mechanism results in a negative adjustment on 1 January, the adjustment of the salary scale(s) concerned shall be applied with effect from 1 December.

CHAPTER V: AFFORDABILITY

Article 7: Affordability

For the OECD, the following affordability clause entered into force on 1 January 2017 see [C\(2013\)112/FINAL]:

7.1 a) The Council reserves the right, if exceptional or unforeseen circumstances so warrant, to decide that the adjustment recommended by the CCR, to be applied on 1 January of the calendar year, be awarded in part or not at all and on the timing of any such adjustment during the calendar year.

b) The above-mentioned exceptional or unforeseen circumstances shall refer, but not be limited, to the following situations, provided that they result in a budgetary impact that compromises the delivery of the Organisation's work programme:

- i) an economic and financial crisis affecting Member countries;
- ii) the withdrawal of, or payment default by, one or more Member countries;
- iii) an unforeseen external event causing exceptional financial damage to the Organisation or Member countries;
- iv) an adjustment recommended by the CCR that, if applied, would cause a variation in the budgeted total staff expenditures of such magnitude that it would significantly disrupt the Organisation's ability to maintain the planned quality and volume of its outputs.

7.2 Decisions under article 7.1 shall be taken in accordance with the applicable general legal principles and after appropriate tripartite consultation.

7.3 The Council also reserves the right to determine whether any retroactive catch up or competitiveness adjustments should be made.

CHAPTER VI: SPECIAL ADJUSTMENTS OF SALARIES

Article 8: Special adjustments of salaries

8.1 Each time that a national consumer price index shows an increase over three consecutive months within a given reference period of more than 7%, the CCR shall send a recommendation to Governing bodies of the COs providing for a special adjustment of salaries for the scale of that country.

8.2 The special adjustment granted shall be equivalent to 7%. Any special adjustment shall take effect the month following the first month when the threshold is exceeded.

8.3 In case of a special adjustment, the monitoring of consumer price trends shall then be reset, taking the consumer price index of the first month during which the 7% threshold was exceeded as the basis to further monitor inflation until the next special or annual adjustment.

8.4 Any special adjustment granted during the reference period used for the calculation of the annual adjustment at 1 January shall be deducted from this annual adjustment.

CHAPTER VII: OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

Article 9: Flexible management of salaries

9.1 After completion of the consultation process with staff in force in each Organisation, the Secretary/Director-General of a CO may make proposals to the Governing body of the Organisation concerned suggesting measures concerning flexible management of salaries. Such measures shall be implemented within the budgetary envelope decided by the Governing body of the Organisation concerned.

- 9.2 In the event that the Governing body of a CO decides to implement flexible management of salary scales, the salary scales as adjusted in compliance with Article 5, shall remain in force in each CO. They shall be used as the basis for the calculation of pensions payable under the terms of the Pension Scheme of the CO, as well as for pensions paid by any other Pension Scheme approved by the Governing body of a CO, which provides for the same method of adjustment.
- 9.3 A Governing body of an Organisation may seek the opinion of the CCR on measures relating to flexible remuneration management before introducing them. The CCR shall be kept informed of such measures after approval by the Governing body concerned.

Article 10: Measures to apply in duty countries where small numbers of staff are assigned

- 10.1 Notwithstanding Article 5, in countries where fewer than fifty persons are assigned by any one CO and where basic salary levels for B and C category staff or the equivalent levels as set out in a single spine cause serious management difficulties, the Secretary/Director-General of the Organisation concerned may, after consulting with the CCR and after completion of the consultation process in force in each Organisation, propose appropriate remuneration measures to their Governing body in order to take account of staff recruitment and retention difficulties specific to this Organisation.

CHAPTER VIII: FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 11: Safeguarding parallelism

Where applicable, the effects of Articles 4.1.6 and 6 shall continue to apply in full after the expiry of the validity of the present rules governing the procedure for the adjustment of salaries set out in Article 1.

NATIONAL CIVIL SERVICES DEFINITION OF THE NOTION OF “CENTRAL GOVERNMENT”

The definition of “central government” in the reference countries for the purposes of the rules set out in the Annex of the Staff Regulations is as follows:

Belgium: civil servants in the Federal Public Services

France: civil servants in the State civil service

Germany: civil servants in the Federal Ministries

Italy: civil servants of the Ministries of the Republic

Luxembourg: civil servants in the State civil service

Netherlands: civil servants in Ministries and higher Councils of State

Spain: civil servants in the State general administration

United Kingdom: civil servants in the Ministry of Defence; for grades in the Senior Civil Service, data is supplied by the Cabinet Office

PURCHASING POWER PARITIES AND REFERENCE CURVES OF PURCHASING POWER

1. Purchasing Power Parities (PPP)

1.1 Calculation of the PPP

1.1.1 The PPP referred to in Article 4.2.1 of the Annex, are adopted by the Governing bodies based on proposals from the CCR based on the calculations by the ISRP and in co-operation with the Statistical Office of the European Union (Eurostat) with reference to Brussels.

1.1.2 The PPP shall be calculated in accordance with the statistical methodology developed and regularly assessed by statistical experts from the member countries of the European Union ("Article 64-65 Working Group" – Eurostat).

1.2 Update and aggregation of basic heading parities

1.2.1 Each basic component of the PPP shall be updated once a year in compliance with the method in force (see article 1.2.2 below).

1.2.2 The indices to be used to update the basic heading parities shall be the detailed harmonised indices of consumer prices (HICP), insofar as they are available. Failing that, the detailed national consumer price indices shall be used.

1.2.3 The consumption patterns used to calculate the PPP are those that are obtained from the most recent family budget surveys carried out by the ISRP and Eurostat. These surveys are carried out with the staff of international organisations every five to seven years.

1.3 Reference towns

1.3.1 As a general rule the parity used for the country as a whole is that which is calculated for the capital.

1.3.2 The parities for Germany, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Switzerland are exceptions to this rule, since they are calculated by reference to Munich, The Hague, Reading and Geneva respectively.

1.3.3 If, after consulting the National Statistical Institute concerned, the Secretaries/Directors-General of the CO are of the opinion that prices in another duty station in the country in question – in which a sufficient number of international civil servants is posted – differ significantly from those in the reference town, a study may be undertaken to determine whether adjustments should be made to take account of relative price levels.

1.4 Reference curves of purchasing power

The results of the established PPP calculations constitute the central reference of the curve of purchasing power. This reference curve to be calculated every year will be obtained by enlarging the results of the PPP calculations by plus or minus 2%, margins believed to include any statistical error, while guaranteeing relative equality in purchasing power between duty stations.

1.5 PPP effect on the annual salary adjustment

1.5.1 If, for a given country, the annual salary adjustment resulting from the product of the relevant consumer price index and the final reference index falls outside the limit of a "purchasing power reference curve", fixed at plus or minus 2% around the results of the calculation of the adjustment of the PPP provided for in paragraph 1.4 above, the adjustment shall be equal to the value situated at the upper or lower limit of the reference curve.

1.5.2 Any result from the annual salary adjustment calculated on the basis of the method described in Article 5.2 of the Annex that falls above the reference curve, shall result in a downward adjustment to the plus 2% border of the reference curve, and consequently a reduction in the results produced by this method. A result below the reference curve shall lead to an upward adjustment to the minus 2% border of the reference curve and consequently an increase in the result reached by the method. The starting point for calculating a new salary adjustment (consumer price index times final reference index) shall be re-based after each application.

CONSUMER PRICE INDICES

The specific consumer price index series to be used shall be the following:

- i) the harmonised indices of consumer prices (HICP) for all duty countries where these series are officially available;
- ii) if not, the national consumer price indices (CPI).

The indices to be used shall measure the trend in prices during the reference period as defined in Article 4.1.3 of Annex I to the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to Officials of the Organisation. Such indices shall be brought back to base 100 at the end date of the reference period of the previous adjustment.

REFERENCE INDEX

NON DOUBLE-COUNTING CLAUSE

These instructions refer to Article 4.1.6.5 of the Annex I to the Staff Regulations:

4.1.6.5 "The effect of variations from one year to another in a specific compulsory deduction made from the salaries of officials in the NCS, if a comparable and compulsory deduction is also made to the CO staff's salaries, shall be neutralised in order to avoid double-counting of these variations, in accordance with instructions set out in Appendix 6. The ISRP will determine the ensuing effect on an ad hoc basis with the reference countries concerned when there are changes in the salaries of civil service officials due to a variation in compulsory social contributions."

1. Calculation

For the application of the non-double-counting clause provided for in Article 4.1.6.5 of the Annex, the effect of variation of the compulsory social contributions, from one year to the next, on the evolution of net salaries, shall be measured in the NCS and in the COs.

2. Impact in the NCS

The reference index shall be calculated as defined in Article 4.1.6 in the Annex. A second index shall also be calculated which neutralises the changes to social costs which are comparable to those in the COs. The ratio between these two indices measures the impact of the variations to compulsory social contributions in NCS on the trend in net salaries in the eight reference NCS.

3. Impact in the COs

An average of the compulsory social contributions in all Organisations shall be established by weighting the average contribution rate in each Organisation by their respective number of staff. The comparison of the trends in COs' salaries by applying this rate, as well as with the corresponding rate for the previous year, measures the impact of the variation in compulsory social contributions on COs' salaries.

4. Annual correction

The comparison of the impact of the changes to comparable compulsory social contributions in the NCS and in the COs determines the part which needs to be neutralised in the calculation of the reference index. The reference index will be positively or negatively adjusted by the common factor between the impact in the NCS and that of the COs.

5. Assessment after three years

At the end of each three-year period, the annual impacts of variations in compulsory social contributions in the NCS and in the COs are cumulated. The reference index is corrected in the same way as for an annual correction, but includes the deduction of the annual corrections already made in years 1 and 2.

ANNEX I bis - METHOD OF ADJUSTMENT FOR THE ALLOWANCES/SUPPLEMENTS EXPRESSED IN ABSOLUTE VALUE

Article 1: Purpose

1.1 The present Rules define the adjustment method for the monthly amounts of the allowances/supplements of the Co-ordinated Organisations expressed in absolute value within the scope of Co-ordination, as set out in the Regulations concerning the Co-ordination system, save where a specific adjustment method is defined.

Article 2: Frequency of adjustments

2.1 The allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value shall be adjusted annually at 1 January, as from the date of entry into force of these Rules.

2.2 Special adjustments may be made in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.

Article 3: Procedure

3.1 Dossier for reviews

3.1.1 Every year the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration (CCR) shall examine the proposal for adjusting the monthly amount of the allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value submitted by the Committee of Representatives of the Secretaries/Directors-General (CRSG) in accordance with these Rules.

3.2 Recommendations

3.2.1 The CCR shall make the recommendations necessary for the application of the present Rules in accordance with sub-paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of Article 6 of the Regulations concerning the Co-ordination system. Recommendations concerning the adjustment to the monthly amount of the allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value at 1 January shall be made by 30 September of the preceding year at the latest, as referred to in Article 4.3.

3.2.2 For the calculation of the average trend index referred to in Article 4.5 hereunder, the reference countries shall provide the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions (ISRP) with the relevant data as applicable on 1 July and relating to the reference period referred to in Article 4.2, and confirm this data by 15 July at the latest. Changes in the relevant data after that date shall be taken into account in the next adjustment.

Article 4: Definitions

For the purposes of the calculations provided for in these Rules:

4.1 The “reference countries” shall mean the reference countries considered as such in the remuneration adjustment method in force;

4.2 The “reference period” shall mean the period from 1 July to 1 July of the year preceding the annual adjustment at 1 January;

4.3 The “preceding year” shall mean the year preceding the annual adjustment at 1 January;

4.4 For the reference countries, the “dependent child allowance” shall mean the allowances in force in the reference countries, validated by the reference countries’ representatives and listed in Appendix 1;

4.5 The “average trend index” of dependent child allowances in the reference countries shall be calculated as the weighted average of percentage changes during the reference period of the monthly dependent child allowance amounts in the referencecountries;

4.6 The “weighted average of percentage changes” shall mean the percentage obtained as a result of the following calculations:

4.6.1 first, calculating, for each reference country, the average dependent child allowance amount paid for three dependent children;

4.6.2 second, calculating the trend index of this average amount;

4.6.3 third, and finally, calculating the weighted average of the reference country indices by giving each reference country its respective weighting as defined in the remuneration adjustment method in force.

4.7 For the evolution of consumer prices

4.7.1 The trend in consumer price indices shall be reflected by the consumer prices indices referred to in Appendix 2.

4.8 For the equivalency of monthly amounts, regardless of the dutycountry

4.8.1 The equivalency of monthly amounts, regardless of the duty country, shall be reflected by the purchasing power parities applicable in the duty country as defined in Appendix 3 or by any other method of calculating the cost-of-living differentials in force as of the adjustmentdate.

Article 5: Annual adjustment of the allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value

5.1 Amounts in Belgium

5.1.1 The monthly amounts used for the allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value in force in Belgium shall be adjusted on 1 January following the reference period. The adjustment shall correspond to the average trend index during the reference period, calculated in accordance with Article 4.5.

5.2 Amounts for other countries

5.2.1 For other countries, the monthly amount shall be calculated by applying, on an annual basis, to Belgium’s monthly amount the purchasing power parities as defined in Appendix 3 or any other method of calculating the cost-of-living differentials in force at the adjustmentdate.

Article 6: Special adjustment of the allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value

6.1 Each time that, within the reference period, the relevant consumer price index in a country, as defined in Article 4.7, shows an increase over three consecutive months of more than 7%, the CCR, upon being informed by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions (ISRP), shall send to the Governing bodies of the Co-ordinated Organisations a recommendation providing for a special adjustment to the monthly amounts for the allowances/supplements expressed in absolute value. The first of the three consecutive months shall fall within the reference period.

6.2 Each time that the 7% threshold is exceeded, the special adjustment granted shall be equal to the threshold, i.e. 7%. Special adjustments shall take effect the month following the first month in which the threshold is exceeded.

6.3 The 7% threshold is measured as from 1 July of the beginning of the reference period or, if a special adjustment has already been granted during this period, from the date of effect of this special adjustment.

6.4 Any special adjustment granted during the reference period used for the calculation of the adjustment at 1 January, shall be deducted from the following adjustment.

Article 7: Date of entry into force

7.1 These Rules shall enter into force on 1 January 2017.

7.2 Should any subsequent amendments be made to these Rules, no provision which ceases to apply shall give rise to vested rights.

Article 8: Reviewing the method

8.1 When substantial modifications are made to the dependent child allowance for a reference country that would prevent the ISRP from calculating the average trend according to agreed and relevant statistical standards, the method shall be reassessed at the request of the CCR, the CRSG or the CRP.

CONSUMER PRICE INDICES

The specific consumer price index series to be used shall be the following:

- i) the Harmonised Indices of Consumer Prices (HICP) for the reference countries, as well as for all other countries where these series are officially available;
- ii) if not, the national Consumer Price Indices (CPI).

ANNEX I ter - METHOD FOR THE THREE- YEAR REVIEW OF THE CEILINGS OF THE EDUCATION ALLOWANCE (EDU)

This annex is implemented following the adoption by the OECD Council of the new method for the triennial review of education allowance ceilings provided for in the 276th CCR report and its appendix¹

1. Scope

The three-year review shall be made for the ceilings of the Education Allowance for the 28 countries for which salary scales are calculated.

2. Basis of the 3-year adjustment mechanism

- a) The approach shall be based on the evolution of tuition fees of six categories of fee-paying international Schools;
- b) The school cycles retained shall be primary and secondary;
- c) A minimum of 4 schools per school cycle per country shall be retained;
- d) Tuition fees collected shall refer to the first year of each school cycle, as published on public website of the schools in the sample, and in accordance with the levels of education set by the International Standard Classification of Education 2011 (ISCED 2011);
- e) With the new regulations governing the EDU entering into force for school and academic years starting after 1 January 2021, the sample to be retained as the basis for the calculation of the 3-year assessment should then reflect tuition fees collected by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions (ISRP) for the school year 2019-2020 (school year 2020 for countries in the Southern hemisphere);
- f) The subsequent set of tuition fees shall be collected for the same schools and the same categories for school year 2022-2023 (school year 2023 for countries in the Southern hemisphere). The adjustment of EDU ceilings resulting from this first 3-year assessment shall be applicable on 1 January 2024. Succeeding assessments shall follow the same procedure.
- g) Tuitions fees shall be collected online, and when not available, schools shall be contacted directly by email by the ISRP. The ISRP shall collect data in October for countries with school or academic cycles starting in September and in February for countries with school or academic cycles starting in January.

3. Categories of fee-paying international Schools

- a) European (CAT II)
European schools, category II fees
- b) British (COBIS)
Council of British International School members or accredited schools
- c) American
Schools receiving assistance from the U.S. Department of State
- d) Deutsche Schule

Schools within the Weltverband Deutscher Auslandsschulen network

- e) Lycée Français
Schools in association with l'Agence pour l'enseignement français à l'étranger (AEFE)
- f) IB School
Fee-paying schools offering the International Baccalaureate

4. Criteria for the selection of schools

- a) Only one school shall be retained per category and per country;
- b) International schools most commonly are located in the capital cities or major economic/financial centres of a country. Therefore for all categories, excluding those offering the International Baccalaureate (IB schools), whenever there is more than one institution for the same category (e.g. two British schools in a given country), the institution closest to the duty station with the major concentration of CO staff shall be retained;
- c) Whenever there are no institutions for certain categories of schools, additional IB schools may be included in the list, with the aim to ensure a sufficiently large sample of at least eight school prices. Iceland shall not be included in the list as most schools are publicly financed and there are not enough fee-paying schools to be included in the sample;
- d) Regarding the IB schools, bearing in mind the objectivity intended from the overall exercise, the first institution (and for a number of countries the single one in the sample) may be located in the capital or at another major economic/financial centre in the country if the size of the school suggests such a choice. However, whenever additional IB schools (or a similar programme when non-existent in a given country) are included in the sample, the institution(s) closest to the duty station with the major concentration of a CO's staff will be prioritised, taking into account the size of the school rather than the number of pupils being children of the CO's staff.

5. Application of the 3-year mechanism

- a) Every three years after the new regulations governing the EDU enter into force, the average evolution of school fees is to be compared to the evolution of the EDU ceilings based on the Dependent Child Supplement (DCS) over the same time period. If the difference between the two factors shows a gap equal or above 9%, the ceilings are then re-adjusted by the magnitude of such difference; e.g. if in a given country the tuition fees show an average increase of 12% over 3 years, while the ceilings for the EDU were adjusted through the DCS by 2% over the same period, then the ceilings of the EDU are re-adjusted by +9.8 ($1.12 \div 1.02 \times 100$).
- b) The calculation of the threshold requires that more than one third of the sample (with a minimum of 4 school prices) shows a trend in education fees equal or above 9%. The two criteria (value of the threshold and number of schools in the sample) are cumulative (e.g. if the sample of schools in a given country is composed of only 8 school prices, at least 4 of those prices must show a trend equal or above 9%, and the average evolution of the tuition fees from all schools in the sample must also total equal or above 9%).

If the criteria are not met and as result the ceilings are not re-adjusted, the 3-year evolution measured during that assessment shall be retained for the succeeding review (e.g. if the average evolution of tuition fees in a given country is equal to 6% between 2019-2020 and 2022-2023, that 6% trend would be retained for the subsequent 3-year review, with the school cycle 2025-2026).

ANNEX II - NOTES ON THE STAFF REGULATIONS

In adopting the Staff Regulations, the Council:

1. NOTED that by reason of Article 11.2 of the Convention on the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development and of OECD Staff Regulation 2, Member governments undertake not to give any instructions to any person in the service of the Organisation;
2. AGREED that with regard to Regulation 15 b) of the Staff Regulations, the Secretary-General is instructed to review the position after the introduction of new salary scales to be effected in the near future and within not more than two years, in the light of other circumstances existing at the time, and to report to the Council on this matter;
3. APPROVED the following interpretations:
 - The principle of geographic distribution set forth in Regulation 7 b) applies to senior staff, i.e. under present practice, staff in category A and some staff in category B. It is however understood that this in no way excludes the recruitment of officials of various nationalities in other grades so far as this does not involve the Organisation in additional expense.
 - Regulation 19 refers to the detailed rules approved by the Council of the OEEC for the periodic revision of staff remuneration [C/M(60)20, approving document C(60)163]. These rules establish the procedure and timing for reviewing the level of remuneration, the conditions under which variations in the cost of living and the standard of living are taken into account and the conditions under which the Secretary-General adjusts salaries following such reviews.
 - The expression "vested rights" in Regulation 22 c) and 24 b) means that amendments to the staff Regulations or Rules cannot deprive officials of any financial or other benefit which has accrued under these texts before their amendment.
 - Regulation 24 a) records that there is no discontinuity as regards service where an OEEC official remains on the staff of the OECD. This implies that, as a result of the coming into force of the new Convention, officials will not be dismissed - and therefore not receive any payment on dismissal (Provident Fund) - nor be reappointed - and therefore not receive any payment on reappointment (installation allowance).

ANNEX III - RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL ON THE STATUTE AND OPERATION OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL

(Adopted on 12 December 1991)
[See Regulation 22 c), d) and e)]

Article 1

Jurisdiction of the Tribunal

- a) The Administrative Tribunal of the OECD shall have jurisdiction over applications filed in the cases provided for under the Staff Regulations, and the Regulations for Council experts and consultants, auxiliaries or employees.
- b) The Tribunal shall also have jurisdiction over applications filed by the Staff Association or a trade union or professional organisation in respect of any act affecting them or directly prejudicing any rights accorded to them under the Regulations, Rules and Instructions applying to the officials of the OECD, Council experts and consultants, auxiliary staff or employees.
- c) The Tribunal shall have jurisdiction over applications filed by persons who are not members of staff of the Organisation, challenging the refusal of their application for appointment to functions governed by the above-mentioned Regulations, where it is alleged that such refusal was the result of discrimination based on the grounds of racial or ethnic origin, nationality, opinions or beliefs, gender, sexual orientation, health or disabilities.

Last update: January 2011

Article 2

Rules of Procedure

The Administrative Tribunal of the Organisation shall, subject to the provisions of this Resolution, establish its own Rules of Procedure.

Article 3

Written Request prior to the filing of Applications

- a) Subject to the provisions of Article 4 b) below, applications to the Administrative Tribunal shall not be admissible unless the applicant has given the Secretary-General a prior written request for withdrawal or modification of the contested decision, and the Secretary-General has rejected such request or has not replied within a period of one month. Such prior request shall be given to the Secretary-General within two months from the date of notification of the contested decision in the case of members of staff, the Staff Association or trade unions or professional organisations, or within four months from the date of such notification in the case of former members of staff or duly qualified claimants to the rights of members of staff or former members of staff.

b) In the case of applications referred to in Article 1 c) above, the time limit for submitting a prior written request to the Secretary-General shall be two months from the date of the notification to the job applicant of the rejection of his application. Such notification of rejection shall set out the terms of Articles 1 c) and 3 a), b) and c) of the present Resolution.

c) An additional period of two months for submitting such a prior written request shall be accorded to persons resident outside metropolitan France.

d) In exceptional cases, the Secretary-General may accept a request submitted after expiry of these time limits.

Article 4

Filing of Applications

a) Applications shall be filed with the Registry of the Tribunal within three months from the date of notification of the rejection by the Secretary-General of the prior request or from the date of the implied refusal of such request. However, in exceptional cases, the Administrative Tribunal may admit applications filed after such time limit has expired.

b) If the applicant has referred the dispute to the Advisory Board or the Re-evaluation Commission, the application shall not be submitted to the Tribunal until the applicant has received notification of the decision of the Secretary-General taken after the opinion of the Advisory Board or the Commission. In such cases, the time limit laid down in paragraph a) above, shall run as from the date of notification of this decision.

Last update: April 2009

c) Applications shall be in writing; they shall set out all grounds of complaint invoked by the applicant and shall be accompanied by any documentary evidence in support thereof. When the application refers to the intention of the applicant to submit an expanded statement in which the grounds for such application will be amplified or supplemented, such expanded statement must be submitted at the latest one month after expiry of the time limits for filing applications. Should this time limit not be observed, the applicant shall be deemed to have withdrawn the application at the date of expiry of this time limit, even if the expanded statement is produced subsequently, unless the Chairman extends the time limit or the Tribunal judges the case to be exceptional.

d) Although the filing of applications shall not suspend the application of contested decisions, the Secretary-General, during the period within which applications may be filed or while the proceedings are under way, shall endeavour not to take any further steps which would alter the situation within the OECD to the detriment of the applicant and would thereby render impossible the redress claimed by the latter, should the Tribunal find the application well-founded.

Intervention in the Proceedings by Third Parties

a) Any person entitled to file an application before the Tribunal may intervene in a case on the ground that he/she has rights which may be affected by the Tribunal's judgment. The Tribunal shall rule on the admissibility of such intervention. Should the Tribunal find that the principal application was well-founded, any person who intervened in support of the submissions made therein shall have the same rights, mutatis mutandis, as the applicant.

b) When it appears from the submissions in the application that, were they to be accepted by the Tribunal, the judgment would adversely affect the rights of a third party, such person shall receive a copy of the application and be invited to participate in the proceedings. Should he/she accept such invitation and submit comments, he/she shall be joined as party to the proceedings.

c) The Staff Association may, if requested by the applicant, submit written comments on the case before expiry of the time limit for submission of the reply.

Article 6

Pre-hearing Procedure

a) The Rules of Procedure shall specify how and when the written comments of the parties, together with any supporting documentary evidence, shall be submitted.

b) The Tribunal may order any measure of investigation and may require the production of any document which it deems useful for the consideration of applications before it. Documents so produced shall also be communicated to the Secretary-General and the applicant.

c) Between sessions, the Chairman or other judge designated by the Chairman for that purpose shall make interim decisions on all measures requested of him/her.

d) Where the Chairman of the Tribunal holds that an application is clearly inadmissible or devoid of merit, the Chairman may instruct the Registrar to take no further action on it until the next session of the Tribunal. Such ruling shall suspend all procedural time limits. After considering the application and, where appropriate, the opinion of the Advisory Board or the Re-evaluation Commission, the Tribunal may either summarily dismiss the application, by unanimous decision, as being clearly inadmissible or devoid of merit, stating the grounds therefor, or it may decide to proceed with the case in the normal way.

Last update: April 2009

Article 7

Convening of the Tribunal

a) The Tribunal shall be convened by its Chairman.

b) The Tribunal shall, as a general rule, hear cases within six months of the filing of the application.

c) In fixing the date of sessions, the Chairman may depart from the general rule laid down in paragraph b) of this Article for the purpose, inter alia, of enabling several cases to be dealt with at one session, provided that the period specified shall in no case exceed eight months.

Article 8

Composition of the Tribunal

a) In the event of the absence or inability to act of the Chairman, he/she shall be replaced by the deputy designated by him/her. The Chair shall be taken by the judge who has served for the longest period or, in cases of equal seniority, by the oldest judge.

b) In the event of the absence or inability to act of one of the judges, he/she shall be replaced by the deputy designated by the Chairman.

c) In the event of the death, resignation or prolonged inability to act of the Chairman, a judge or a deputy, a new appointment shall be made for the unexpired term.

ANNEX X - PENSION SCHEME RULES

(Revision at 1st December 2002(*))

CHAPTER I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 - Scope

1. The Pension Scheme established by these Rules applies to staff holding indefinite-term or definite or fixed-term appointments in:

- the Council of Europe,
- the European Organisation for the Exploitation of Meteorological Satellites(EUMETSAT)
- the European Centre for Medium-Range Weather Forecasts (ECMWF),
- the European Space Agency (ESA) [ex-European Organisation for the Development and Construction of Space Vehicle Launchers (ELDO) and the European Space Research Organisation (ESRO)],
- the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation (NATO),
- the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), and who are not affiliated to any other pension scheme set up by one of these Organisations after 31 December 2000.
- the Western European Union (WEU).

2. This scheme shall not apply to other categories of personnel defined in each Organisation, such as experts, consultants, temporary staff, auxiliary staff, employees and personnel hired under local labour legislation.

3. In these Rules, the term "Organisation" refers to that Organisation listed in paragraph 1 above which employs the staff members to whom these Rules apply, and the term "staff member"() means the staff referred to in paragraph 1 above.

Last update: July 2012

Instruction

1.2- Non-permanent Staff

Each Organisation shall precisely define what categories of staff are referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 1 of the Rules, that is to say, what categories of staff do not rank as permanent staff eligible for benefits under the Pension Scheme.

(*) Revised provisions only apply to benefits not yet assessed on 1st December 2002.

() In the present Regulations, the term "staff members" and "beneficiaries" apply equally to men and women.

Article 2 - Deferred entitlement

1. Where the medical examination which every staff member has to undergo as part of the appointment process (and the possible consequences of which have been duly notified to him before his appointment) shows him to be suffering from an illness or disablement, the Organisation may decide that, as regards risks arising from an illness or disablement existing before he took up his duties, the said staff member shall not be entitled to the invalidity or death benefits provided for in these Rules until the expiry of a period not exceeding five years from the date when he entered the service of the Organisation. If a staff member leaves an Organisation and takes up employment in another Organisation within a period of not more than six months, the time spent in the service of the first Organisation shall be deducted from this five- year period.

Instructions

2.1/1 - Medical examination

The Organisation shall inform the staff member in writing of the application of a period of deferred entitlement and of its duration, which may be from one to sixty months. The Medical Consultant of the Organisation shall inform him in writing of the nature of the illness or disablement which justified the application of the deferment period.

2.1/2 - Definition of entitlements during the deferment period

i) If the staff member concerned leaves the Organisation during the deferment period, the leaving allowance shall be paid to him and the years of service completed during the deferment period shall be taken into account.

ii) In the event of either permanent total invalidity or death resulting from a cause which justified the deferment period in course:

- a) should such an event occur before the staff member has fulfilled the condition provided for in Article 7, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to a lump sum, calculated in accordance with the provisions of Article 11;*
- b) should such an event occur after the staff member has fulfilled the condition provided for in Article 7*
 - and if this condition was fulfilled during the deferment period, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to a lump sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of Article 11, in respect of the reckonable years of service credited within the meaning of Article 6;*
 - and if this condition was fulfilled prior to the deferment period, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to both a lump sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of Article 11, in respect of the reckonable years of service completed during the deferment period, and the benefits to which they would have been entitled before the staff member's appointment.*

Last update: May 2005

iii) In the event of either permanent total invalidity or death resulting from either an accident at work, or an illness or disablement other than that which justified the deferment period, and which occurred after commencement of duties, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to the benefits provided by the Pension Scheme for such events.

Article 3 - Definition of salary

Unless otherwise specified, for the purposes of these Rules, salary shall be the monthly basic salary of the staff member, according to the scales in force in the Organisations listed in Article 1 at the time when the pension is assessed, and updated in accordance with the provisions of Article 36.

Last update: January 2020

Article 4 - Definition of service conferring entitlement to benefits

1. Subject to the provisions of Articles 5 and 41, paragraph 1, entitlement to benefit under these Rules shall be determined by the total of the periods served in the Organisations listed in Article 1:

Last update: January 2005

- i) as a staff member;
- ii) in any other capacity prior to appointment as a staff member, provided any periods so served were not separated by breaks of more than one year.

2. In addition to the total of the periods of service thus calculated, a staff member may request, on termination of service, that periods of service corresponding to certain statutory indemnities be taken into account, in particular payment in lieu of notice, for loss of employment and for leave not taken, under the provisions laid down by Instruction (*¹).

3. Periods of part-time service shall be taken into consideration in calculating entitlement to benefit under these Rules provided they correspond to at least half-time work as defined by the provisions laid down by Instruction.

4. The periods referred to in Article 16, paragraph 3, shall also be taken into consideration.

Instructions

4.1/1 - Service counting for entitlement

Service counting for entitlement shall consist of the following:

iv) any periods of unpaid leave, if such periods are not taken into account by a new employer for the purposes of a pension scheme; the crediting of periods of unpaid leave equal to or less than two months shall be dependent on payment, for these periods, of the staff member's personal contribution to the Pension Scheme; the crediting of periods of unpaid leave beyond two months and up to a maximum of the four months following, shall be dependent on payment by the staff member, for these periods, of a contribution equal to three times his personal contribution to the Pension Scheme;

Last update: September 2019

i) such periods must have been prior to the appointment as a staff member.

ii) such service must have been completed in the full-time or at least half-time employment^() ¹) of the Organisation, or of more than one Organisation mentioned in Article 1.*

Such employment must have been remunerated according to periods of time and not by the job or piece, being service performed on the premises and under the control and to the instructions of the Organisation, according to its hours of work.

The staff member must have received all his emoluments for the service mentioned in the above sub-paragraph directly from the Organisation.

iii) any such periods completed in the service of the same Organisation, or of more than one Organisation mentioned in Article 1, must not have been broken for more than 12 consecutive months.

iv) in accordance with the provisions of Instruction 6.2, periods so to be taken into account must be of a minimum of thirty days; periods of part-time work, equal to or more than half time, shall be taken into account as a proportion of full time. The periods thus validated must total at least 30 days of full time.

- vi) compensatory payments in lieu of notice;*
- vii) indemnity for loss of employment.*

Such periods of service shall be credited subject to payment by the staff member of the personal contribution to the pension scheme or Provident Fund in respect of all these amounts and insofar as the periods on which the calculation was based are not taken into account by a new employer for the purposes of a pension scheme of a Co-ordinated Organisation.

Only periods of service below the statutory age limit may however be taken into account for the calculation of benefits provided for in these Rules.

4.2 - Definition of half-time service

A staff member shall be considered as working half-time, within the meaning of Article 4, paragraph 3, when the number of his working hours, calculated on a monthly basis, is equal to half the number of full-time working hours.

Article 5 - Calculation of service conferring entitlement to benefits

1. Where a staff member appointed by the Organisation has previously served with one of the Organisations listed in Article 1¹, his entitlement to benefits under the terms of Article 4 shall be conditional upon his paying over to the Organisation which re-appoints him the amounts paid to him on leaving his previous service:

- i) pursuant to Article 11;
- ii) in respect of his Provident Fund holding, within the limits stated in Article 44, paragraph 2, plus compound interest on such amounts at 4% per annum from the date when the staff member received them until the date when they are paid over in accordance with this paragraph.

Should the staff member fail to pay over the amounts in question, reckonable years of service shall count only as from the new appointment.

2. Where a staff member appointed by the Organisation was previously drawing a retirement pension in respect of service with one of the Organisations listed in Article 1, payment of that pension shall cease.

If the staff member refunds to the Organisation offering him a new appointment the pension payments he has received, the provisions of Article 4 shall apply on cessation of his new appointment.

If he does not make this refund, the years of service for which credit was acquired in the employment that originally entitled him to payment of the discontinued retirement pension shall be taken into account in the calculation of the retirement pension due on cessation of his new employment by reference to the salary for his last grading in such previous employment; moreover, that part of the final pension figure shall be abated by 5 per cent for each whole year during which the staff member drew the initial pension before the age of 60.

3. Where a staff member ceases his functions at a grade and step lower than that which he had previously held in the Organisation or in a previous Organisation, his entitlement to benefits under these Rules shall be determined by taking into account the total of his reckonable years of service and the benefits shall be calculated on the basis of the salary for the highest grading held by him. However, a reduction shall be made in the number of years of service to be credited to him in respect of time served at a lower grade or step after having held the grade by reference to which benefits are calculated; this reduction shall be proportionate to the difference between the said gradings.

4. For the implementation of paragraphs 2 and 3 above, salaries shall be taken into account in accordance with the scales in force when the final pension assessment is made.

¹ Insofar as the Scheme set up by the present Rules is made applicable to staff members of the European Union Institute for Security Studies and Satellite Centre, Agencies of the European Union and previously of the WEU, a Member organisation of Co-ordination from the outset, such staff members shall benefit from the provisions of the present Article and of the other provisions of the Rules referring to Article 1.

Last update: November 2005

5. The crediting of the periods referred to in Article 4, paragraph 1 ii) shall be conditional on:
- i) the staff member submitting an application to that effect no later than six months after confirmation of his appointment as a staff member; the application shall specify the periods of service with which the staff member wishes to be credited;
 - ii) the Organisation giving its agreement;
 - iii) the staff member paying, for each month of service with which he is to be credited, the contribution provided for in Article 41 of the Rules, of his first monthly salary as a staff member.

Instructions

5.1 - Service completed in a Co-ordinated Organisation as a staff member

i) Application for any service referred to in Article 5, paragraph 1 or paragraph 2, to be taken into account must be made no later than six months after confirmation of the new appointment, or before the expiry of the option period prescribed in Article 44 or 49.

ii) Where, pursuant to Article 11, the staff member received a leaving allowance at the end of his previous appointment, then pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 1, no partial crediting of such service shall be allowed; accordingly, the staff member concerned shall be required either to refund such leaving allowance in full or to forgo the right to have the corresponding service credited.

iii) Save where Article 44, paragraph 3, applies, the provisions of sub-paragraph ii) above shall also apply to any amounts which the staff member concerned had previously received in respect of a holding in the Provident Fund on leaving an Organisation, within the limit of the cost of crediting past service specified in Article 44, paragraph 2.

iv) Should the staff member fail to make a full refund immediately, he may be authorised to make such refund, at the latest, as from the expiry of the period referred to in sub-paragraph i) above, by monthly deductions of not less than 20 per cent of the amount of salary, as defined in Article 3, received at the time of beginning such refunds; compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum shall be applied to the amount outstanding, until the refund has been made in full.

v) If at the date on which any benefit under the Pension Scheme is payable, such refunds have not been completed, the balance still due shall be repaid in its entirety, except where Article 44, paragraph 3 applies, through deduction from the benefits to be paid, including those payable to persons entitled under the staff member. The Organisation may authorise payment by instalments, in which case compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum shall be applied to the amount outstanding, until the refund has been made in full.

vi) In the event of incapacity, death or termination of the service of the staff member concerned, any amount still remaining unpaid shall be set off against the capital sums due to him or to the persons entitled under him, in accordance with the provisions of Instruction 38.1, and the balance still due shall be deducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph v) above.

vii) In the event of the termination of his service without any payment of leaving allowance or pension, the staff member concerned may request time not exceeding twenty-four months in which to make up all or part of any refund then still outstanding, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph v).

5.5 - Crediting of service completed before appointment as a staff member

i) Application to be credited with service completed before appointment as a staff member must be made within six months after confirmation of the said appointment or before the expiry of the option period prescribed in Article 44 or 49 in the case of staff members whose service began before the commencement of the said option period.

ii) Persons entitled under a deceased staff member may not apply in his place for service to which this Instruction applies to be credited, with the exception of persons entitled to avail themselves of the Transitional Arrangements and to whom Articles 43, paragraph 3 and 44, paragraph 4 apply.

iii) Service shall be credited subject to payment of the contribution referred to in Article 41 as calculated on the basis of the first monthly salary as a staff member and multiplied by the number of months of service in respect of which rights are credited, a pro rata deduction being made, where appropriate, for part-time service. First monthly salary here means the salary corresponding to full-time employment in the grade and step of the staff member, whether he be recruited on a full-time or a part-time basis. Such payment may be made by instalments in the form of monthly deductions from emoluments, commencing not later than the end of the relevant period referred to in sub-paragraph i) above and spread over a period not exceeding the duration of the previous service so credited.

Interest at 4 per cent per annum shall be due in respect of any part of the payments which is deferred beyond such period at the request of the staff member.

If, at the date on which any benefit under the Pension Scheme is awarded, such payments have not been completed, the balance still due shall be deducted from the benefits to be paid, where necessary by instalments.

iv) On making his application to credit such service as aforesaid, the staff member shall be required to consent to the Organisation's having first claim on any capital sums payable in the event of his death or invalidity or of the termination of his service, to the extent of any amounts then still outstanding in respect of crediting such service.

v) In the event of the termination of his service, the staff member or persons entitled under him may request time not exceeding twelve months in which to make up any amount then still outstanding, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraphs iii) and iv) above.

5.2 - Non-refund of previous pension payments

Example illustrating the application of Article 5, paragraph 2, last sub-paragraph of the Rules:

(i) First pension paid from age 52 to 54: $\left(T' x \frac{40}{100} \right)$ reduced pursuant to Article 8.4 of the Rules
(T' = salary used as basis of calculation)
(20 reckonable years of service at 2%)

(ii) Second period paid from age 54 to age 60: $\left(T'' x \frac{12}{100} \right)$
(T'' = salary used as basis of calculation at age 60)
(6 reckonable years of service at 2%) / leaving allowance

i.e. $0.4T' - 0.04T' + 0.12T''$

(iii) In the final calculation of the total pension, the pension between brackets

has now been reduced pursuant to Art. 5.2, not Art. 8.4 of the Rules; the amount as stated in i) above is reduced to 90%

- Termination of service at a lower grade

For the implementation of Article 5, paragraph 3 of the Rules, the calculation shall be made as illustrated below:

(i) On previous termination of service (or at highest point in career before downgrading): 10 years' service, grading on departure, A5/5 = theoretical final salary: 100 = T' i.e. 10 years' reckonable service.

(ii) On final termination of service:
10 years served in second period, grading on departure, A4/5 = theoretical final salary: 75 = T''
the reckonable service in respect of the second period will thus be reduced in the ratio:
 $\frac{T''}{T'} = \frac{75}{100}$ i.e. 7.5 reckonable years.

(iii) Total: $10 + 7.5 = 17.5$ years' reckonable service.

(iv) Total pension will be calculated on the basis of:
 $T' = 100 \times 17.5$ reckonable years of service.

Article 6 - Reckonable years of service

1. The benefits provided for under these Rules shall be calculated by reference to reckonable years of service consisting of:

- i) service calculated in accordance with Articles 4 and 5;
- ii) service credited in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 1.

2. Incomplete years of reckonable service shall be taken into account on the basis of one-twelfth of a year for each whole month of service. For benefit calculation purposes the period remaining shall be treated as a whole month if it is equal to or more than 15 days.

However, the period remaining shall not be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the 10 years' service required for entitlement to the retirement pension provided for in Article 7.

3. In the case of part-time work:

- i) reckonable years of service shall be calculated in accordance with the ratio between the working hours corresponding to part-time service and the official number of hours for full-time work in the Organisation;
- ii) however, reckonable years of service shall not be reduced when the staff member authorised to work part-time has contributed to the pension scheme on the basis of full-time work, by paying, in addition to his personal contribution to the Pension Scheme for the part corresponding to his part-time work, a contribution equal to three times the rate of contribution mentioned in Article 41, paragraph 4, on the difference in salary between his part-time work and the corresponding full-time work, under the provisions laid down by Instruction.

Instructions

6.2 - Fractions of a month

Any fraction of less than thirty days remaining after aggregating periods of service shall be treated as a whole month if it is equal to or more than fifteen days and disregarded if it is less than fifteen days.

6.3 – Non reduction of reckonable years of service

A staff member authorised to work part-time may request to contribute to the Pension Scheme on the basis of full-time work, provided that these periods are not taken into account by another employer for the purposes of a pension scheme and the amount of the supplementary contribution referred to in Article 6, paragraph 3

ii) is paid in accordance with the provisions of Article 41, paragraph 2. The staff member should make his request not later than the eighth day following the beginning of the period for which he is authorised to work part-time. This request shall be final, unless an exceptional derogation is granted by the Secretary / Director General upon receipt of a duly justified request from the staff member.

Article 6bis - Part-time service - effects on the calculation of entitlement

1. Where at the time of termination of his service an official was working part-time, the salary taken into account in calculating his pension entitlement shall be that payable for full-time work at his grade and step as provided in these Rules.

2. However, when an official terminating his service in the circumstances described in paragraph 1 above had been recruited to serve on a part-time basis, or authorised to work part-time for an indefinite period or for a fixed-term renewable by tacit agreement and if the provisions of Article 6, paragraph 3 ii) are not applied, the rate of the invalidity pension provided for in Article 14, paragraph 2, and the minimum and maximum amounts that apply, shall be set in accordance with the provisions laid down by Instruction.

Instructions

6 bis.2/1 - Benefit payable to a staff member who has only worked part time

i) For the purposes of calculating the benefit payable under Article 6 bis, paragraph 2, to a staff member who has only worked part time, the following shall be reduced by an amount corresponding to the ratio between the number of hours actually worked and the official number of hours for full-time work:

(a) the maximum rate of retirement pension provided for under Article 10, paragraph 2 and the maximum amount of retirement pension provided for under Article 10, paragraph 3;

(b) the rate of invalidity pension under Article 14, paragraph 2, and the minimum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4;

(c) the maximum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4, and the salary referred to in Article 15;

(d) the minimum amounts of survivor's or reversion pension provided for under Article 19, paragraph 3;

(e) the minimum amounts of orphan's pension provided for the first beneficiary under Article 25, paragraphs 3 and 4, as well as the increases provided for under Article 25, paragraphs 3 and 4, for orphans in respect of the second and every further beneficiary;

(f) the amount of the dependant's pension provided for under Article 25bis, paragraph 2;

(g) the ceiling for benefits payable to survivors and orphans as defined in Article 29.

ii) However, when a staff member was recruited by the Organisation for part-time service, after having worked full time for one of the Organisations listed in Article 1, he shall be subject to the provisions of Instruction 6bis.2/2 provided he pays over, if appropriate, the sums specified in Article 5, paragraph 1 or Article 5, paragraph 2, as the case may be.

6 bis.2/2 - Benefit payable to a staff member who, at the time of termination of his service, is working part time for an indefinite period or for a fixed period renewable by tacit agreement, having previously worked full time

i) For the purposes of calculating the benefit payable under Article 6bis, paragraph 2 to a staff member authorised to work part time for an indefinite period or for a fixed period renewable by tacit agreement, the following shall be reduced in accordance with the ratio between the number of hours actually worked and the official number of hours for full-time work:

(a) the rate of invalidity pension under Article 14, paragraph 2, as well as the minimum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4, and, for those periods of part-time service, the maximum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4;

(b) the minimum amounts of survivor's or reversion pension provided for under Article 19, paragraph 3;

(c) the minimum amounts of orphan's pension provided for the first beneficiary under Article 25, paragraphs 3 and 4, as well as the increases provided for under Article 25, paragraphs 3 and 4 for the second and every further beneficiary of an orphan's pension;

(d) the amount of the dependant's pension provided for under Article 25bis, paragraph 2.

ii) However, when a staff member fulfils the conditions laid down in Article 7 at the date from which he is authorised to work part time for an indefinite period or for a fixed period renewable by tacit agreement, the benefit resulting from application of the provisions of sub-paragraph i) above, may not be less than that to which he or his authorised representatives would have been entitled had he ceased working for the Organisation at that date for a reason other than invalidity or death.

4. However, a staff member who retires before pensionable age may request early payment of his pension provided he is at least 50 years old.

Instruction

8.4 - Method of reducing pension - Early pension

i) Early retirement pension shall be calculated as follows:

- if the pension that would be due with no reduction at age 60 is lower than the minimum rate prescribed in Article 10, paragraph 3, it shall be brought up to that minimum rate and the reduction provided for in Article 8, paragraph 4 shall then be applied to it;

- if the pension that would be due with no reduction at age 60 is higher than the aforesaid minimum rate, the reduction shall be applied to it even if the result is lower than that minimum.

ii) The reductions provided for in Article 8, paragraph 4 shall be applied by reference to whole years, no account being taken of months.

iii) Family allowances shall be paid and calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Instructions of Article 28.

iv) Under the conditions laid down in Article 8 and in this Instruction, an early pension may be requested at any time between age 50 and 60, once the staff member's service has terminated. Such requests must be in writing, and dated.

v) Subject to the provisions of Article 5, paragraph 2, payments shall begin, irrevocably, on the first of the month following the date on which the request was made.

Article 9 - Commencement and cessation of entitlement

2. Entitlement shall cease at the end of the month in which the person receiving the pension dies.

Article 10 - Rate of pension

1. The amount of the retirement pension shall be, per reckonable year of service within the meaning of Article 6, 2% of the salary corresponding to the last grade held by the staff member for not less than one year before cessation of his appointment and the last step held in that grade.
2. The maximum rate of the pension shall be 70% of this salary, subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 below.
3. The amount of the retirement pension shall not be less than 4% of the salary for grade C1, step 1, per reckonable year of service credited pursuant to Article 6; it may not, however, exceed the staff member's last salary as defined in Article 3.

Instructions

10.3/1 - Part-time service

The minimum rate of the retirement pension shall be calculated on reckonable years' service, to be taken into account where applicable in fractions corresponding to any part-time service in accordance with Article 6, paragraph 3 i); this minimum shall therefore be equal to 4% of the salary for grade C1, step 1, per reckonable year of service thus credited.

10.3/2 – Termination of service at a lower grade

In cases where Article 5, paragraph 3 is applied, the minimum rate of the retirement pension shall be equal to 4% of the salary for grade C1, step 1, per reckonable year of service, without any reduction.

However, the staff member may request that the said personal contributions be refunded in the currency or currencies of the above-mentioned scale.

ii) The refund of the said contributions shall be calculated at the rate of 4% per annum up to the last day of the month preceding the actual payment.

11.1/2 - Staff member whose service terminates at the end of a period of unpaid leave

When final termination of service occurs at the end of a period of unpaid leave during which no contributions were made to the Pension Scheme, the amounts stipulated in Article 11 shall, notwithstanding Instruction 11.1/1 ii), be calculated on the basis of rights acquired and salary at the date of commencement of that period, without any subsequent adjustment or interest.

1. A staff member who enters the service of the Organisation after leaving the service of a government administration or national organisation, or international organisation not listed in Article 1, paragraph 1 or a firm, may arrange for payment to the Organisation in accordance with the provisions laid down by Instruction, of any amounts corresponding to the retirement pension rights accrued under the pension scheme to which he was previously affiliated in so far as that scheme allows such a transfer.

In such cases, the Organisation shall determine, by reference to the provisions laid down by Instruction, the number of years of reckonable service with which the staff member shall be credited under its own pension scheme.

2. A staff member who leaves the service of the Organisation to enter the service of a government administration or national organisation, or international organisation, not listed in Article 1, paragraph 1, which has entered into an agreement (*) with the Organisation, shall be entitled to transfer to the pension fund of that administration or organisation:

- either the actuarial equivalent of his retirement pension rights accrued under these Rules, such equivalent being calculated in accordance with the provisions laid down by Instruction;
- or, in the absence of such rights, the amounts provided under Article 11.

3. If, as a result of a staff member's transfer from one Organisation listed in Article 1 to another, the leaving allowance is paid by an Organisation other than that which received the amounts referred to in paragraph 1 above, Article 11, paragraph 1 iii) shall apply as if the Organisation responsible for paying the leaving allowance had received the amounts referred to.

Instructions

12.1 - Inward transfer of previously accrued rights

i) Previous periods of affiliation to a pension scheme

a) Reckonable years of service shall be credited pursuant to Article 12, paragraph 1, subject to the conditions set out in this Instruction, in respect of a period of affiliation to the last pension scheme prior to appointment in the Organisation. Such affiliation may cover periods served in several administrations, organisations or firms, on condition that all these rights have been taken into account by the pension scheme of the last administration, organisation or firm before appointment in the Organisation.

b) An amount shall be taken into account under this Instruction only if it has been certified by the previous pension scheme as being the amount of the actuarial equivalent of retirement pension rights or a capital payment in respect of rights to a pension or rights under a provident scheme (excluding compensation for dismissal or a leaving gratuity), and it must represent the total amounts paid to the staff member by the previous pension scheme in question. The "total amounts paid" shall be taken to mean the amounts representing the total rights transferable to the Organisation. Staff members shall not be entitled to transfer only part of their accrued rights where that part is not equal to the transferable maximum.

ii) Amounts taken into account

For the purpose of calculating the reckonable years of service credited under Article 12, paragraph 1, the amounts indicated in sub-paragraph i)

b) above shall be taken into account, as calculated by the previous pension scheme - as a capital sum, and with interest where applicable - as at the date on which they are paid to the Organisation¹; any conversion into the currency of the salary paid by the Organisation shall be made at the rate of exchange in force on that date

iii) Calculation of reckonable years of service

The number of reckonable years of service to be credited under Article 12, paragraph 1, shall be calculated on the basis of the table annexed to this Instruction, by dividing the amounts taken into account under sub-paragraph ii) above by the coefficient corresponding to the age of the staff member as at the date of payments of the amounts, and then by dividing the resultant amount by the theoretical value of a reckonable year of service (2% of the annual basic salary per reckonable year of service), established on the basis of the salary corresponding to the staff member's grade and step as at the date of payment of the amounts.

iv) Maximum number of reckonable years of service

Taking such reckonable years of service into account shall not have the effect of bringing the total pension up to more than the maximum rates prescribed in Article 10.

¹ The accrued rights are invariably rights which are not yet due or the actuarial equivalent thereof.

v) Time limits for application and revocation

Failing any special provisions in a reciprocal transfer agreement entered into by the Organisation, application for the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph ii) above to be taken into account by the Organisation shall be made in writing:

- a) either within 6 months from the date of notification of confirmation of appointment after the probationary period;*
- b) or within twelve months from the date on which the previous pension scheme allowed such transfers;*
- c) as a transitional measure by 31.12.1978 in the case of staff in post before 30.6.1978().

The application to transfer pension rights may be revoked by the staff member at any time before the payments provided for in sub-paragraph ii) above have been made in accordance with sub-paragraph vi) below.

The application to transfer pension rights shall be null and void if the payments provided for in sub-paragraph ii) above have not been made at the time of the staff member's termination of service.

vi) Time limit for payment

Payment of the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph ii) above shall be made:

- within three months after the expiry of the time limit prescribed in sub-paragraph v) above, if the person concerned has actually received such amounts from his previous employer;*
- on receipt of such amounts from the previous employer in other cases.*

Payment to the Organisation shall be made in the currency -or its equivalent value at the rate of exchange in force on the date of actual payment to the Organisation -in which the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph ii) above have been or will effectively be paid by the previous pension scheme.

vii) Outward transfer to a subsequent pension scheme

Pursuant to Articles 11, paragraph 1 iii), and 12, paragraphs 2 and 3, the amounts paid to the Organisation under this Instruction and later refunded wholly or partly to a staff member who has not completed at least 10 years of service within the meaning of Article 4, shall be increased from the time of their payment to the Organisation by compound interest of 4% a year to be paid by the Organisation responsible for paying the leaving allowance.

a) Application for transfer of pension rights under Article 12, paragraph 2 must be made by the staff member to the Organisation in which his service has terminated, within six months after his definitive appointment by the new administration or organisation referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2.

b) If the Organisation is unable to conclude with the new administration or organisation referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2, an agreement for such transfer on terms which it considers satisfactory, it shall confine itself to making immediate payment of the amounts referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1, or to immediate or deferred payment of a retirement pension.

13/2 - Period of non-activity

i) The invalidity pension shall not be payable if it results from an illness or accident occurring during unpaid leave or a period of non-active status which did not give rise to contributions to the Pension Scheme (leave for personal reasons, military service).

ii) On the other hand, it shall be payable if the events mentioned above occur during a period of non-active status which follows a period of sick leave, and during which the staff member is in receipt of an allowance for temporary incapacity; in such event, he shall continue to pay contributions to the Pension Scheme in accordance with Instruction 4.1/1 iii). iv) Within 30 calendar days of receipt of the findings of the Invalidation Board, the Secretary/Director-General shall notify his decision in writing, together with the findings of the Invalidation Board, to the staff member or former staff member.

Article 14 – Rate of pension

1. Subject to the provisions of Article 5, paragraph 3, the invalidity pension shall be equal to the retirement pension to which the staff member would have been entitled at the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations if he had continued to serve until that age and without the need for a minimum of ten years' service under Article 7.

2. However, where the invalidity arises from an accident in the course of the performance of his duties, from an occupational disease, from a public-spirited act or from risking his life to save another human being, the invalidity pension shall be 70 per cent of salary. In the event of invalidity resulting from a cause other than these, the invalidity pension provided for in this paragraph may not be less than the invalidity pension which would be payable under paragraph 1 of this Article.

3. The salary used as a basis for the calculation of the invalidity pension referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 above shall be the salary for the grade and step held by the staff member in accordance with the scales in force at the date laid down in Article 17, paragraph 1.

4. The invalidity pension shall not be less than 120 per cent of the salary for grade C1, step 1, but may not be more than the last salary, such salaries being those which appear in the scales in force at the date laid down in Article 17, paragraph 1, subject to any adjustments provided for under Article 36.

5. In the case of invalidity deliberately brought about by the staff member, the Organisation shall decide whether he should receive an invalidity pension or only a retirement pension or a leaving allowance, depending on his length of effective service.

Instructions

14.1 - Part-time Service

Where a staff member working part time is found to be suffering from invalidity and the provisions of Article 6, paragraph 3 ii) are not applied, the period subsequent to the date on which he is recognised as unfit for service shall, for the purposes of calculating the invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 1, be counted as a period of part-time work in the cases referred to in paragraph 2 of Article 6bis.

14.2 - Work accident and occupational disease

For the purposes of Article 14, paragraph 2, reference shall be made to the Rules applicable in the Organisation for the definition of the risks of work accident and occupational disease.

Article 15 – Earnings rule

1. Where a person in receipt of an invalidity pension is nevertheless gainfully employed, this pension shall be reduced by the amount by which his pension together with the remuneration he receives for the said employment exceeds the salary for the highest step in the grade he held at the time of his recognition as unfit for service.
2. This reduction shall apply only up to the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations.

Instruction

15.1 - Double entitlement to an invalidity pension and other income

a) By gainful employment under Article 15 is meant any employment outside the Co-ordinated Organisations, as well as employment pursued therein, including as temporary, auxiliary or local official personnel or as an "employee", and also as an expert in receipt of fees.

b) A person in receipt of an invalidity pension shall immediately notify the organisation which pays the pension of any gainful, non-occasional employment; in addition, he shall inform that organisation of the total amount of remuneration he received during the preceding calendar year, the reduction referred to in Article 15 thus being calculated on a monthly basis.

Express mention of this obligation shall be made in the decision notifying the award of an invalidity pension.

Last update: December 2012

Article 16 – Medical examination – Termination of pension

1. While a person drawing an invalidity pension is still under the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, the Organisation may have him medically examined periodically to ascertain that he still satisfies the conditions for entitlement to such pension, in particular having regard to any new duties corresponding to his experience and qualifications which may have been proposed to him by the Organisation.

2. When a person drawing an invalidity pension who has not reached the said age limit ceases to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to the invalidity pension, the Organisation shall terminate that pension.

3. The time during which the person concerned has drawn his invalidity pension shall then be reckoned, without payment of back contributions, for the calculation of the leaving allowance or retirement pension, as the case may be.

Instructions

16/1 - Suspension of Invalidity Pension

If the recipient of an invalidity pension fails to submit to medical examination as prescribed by the Organisation, payment of the invalidity pension may be suspended.

16/2 - Medical Examination and new Invalidity Board

The periodical medical examinations required under Article 16 shall normally take place at the place of residence of the person concerned, unless the Organisation requires otherwise or it is impracticable to have the person concerned examined at his place of residence.

Such examinations shall be carried out by a medical practitioner chosen by the Organisation; the latter shall bear the cost thereof, including travelling expenses of the person concerned if exceeding 50 km from his home. Should the medical practitioner chosen by the Organisation report that the staff member no longer satisfies the conditions of entitlement to an invalidity pension, notably having regard to any new duties proposed to him by the Organisation corresponding to his experience and qualifications, an Invalidity Board shall be convened in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 and its implementing Instructions.

16/3 - Cessation of Entitlement to an Invalidity Pension

Where the Invalidity Board, in application of Article 16, paragraph 2, declares that the person concerned who is still under the age limit has ceased to satisfy the conditions of entitlement to an invalidity pension, the payment of that pension shall be terminated; if the person concerned does not resume work in the Organisation, he shall receive either a leaving allowance based on his years of service and years of invalidity where the total is less than 10 years, or a deferred or early retirement pension.

16/4 - Re-entitlement to an Invalidity Pension

Where the person concerned is entitled to a deferred or early pension and subsequently suffers a relapse, while still under the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, resulting from the same condition as that which had entitled him to the previous invalidity pension, the Invalidity Board, convened at the staff member's request in accordance with instruction 13/3, shall declare that he once again effectively fulfils the conditions required under Article 13, paragraph 1, insofar as he is not receiving for that same condition an invalidity benefit or pension borne by another scheme.

Last update: November 2007

Article 17 – Commencement and cessation of entitlement

1. Entitlement to an invalidity pension shall commence on the first day of the month following the date of the beginning of the invalidity as recognised by the Invalidity Board.

2. Subject to application of Article 16, paragraph 2:

- i) the invalidity pension payable under Article 14, paragraph 2 shall be paid for life;

ii) in other cases, entitlement to an invalidity pension shall terminate:

- either at the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations;
- or at the end of the month in which the recipient of such a pension dies.

Where the invalidity pension terminates because the person concerned has reached the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, he shall, notwithstanding the ten-year minimum requirement provided for in Article 7, be entitled to a retirement pension calculated as follows:

- reckonable years of service shall be calculated as if he had remained in service until the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations;
- the reference salary shall be that of his grade and step at the time of his being recognised an invalid, updated in accordance with Article 36.

3. Invalidity pensions assessed before December 1st, 2002, whatever the cause of the invalidity, shall be paid for life.

CHAPTER IV - SURVIVOR'S AND REVERSION PENSIONS

Article 18 – Conditions of entitlement

1. The surviving spouse* of a staff member who died in service shall be entitled to a survivor's pension, provided they had been married to each other for at least one year at the time of the staff member's death, unless the death resulted either from disablement or illness contracted in the performance of his duties, or from an accident.

2. A reversion pension shall be payable to the surviving spouse:
 - i) of a former staff member drawing an invalidity pension, if they were married to each other for at least one year at the time of his being recognised an invalid; this condition of anteriority shall not apply if the marriage had existed for at least five years at the time of his death, or if the death resulted either from disablement or illness contracted in the performance of his duties, or from an accident;

 - ii) of a former staff member drawing a retirement pension, if they had been married to each other for at least one year at the time when the former staff member's appointment ceased; this condition of anteriority shall not apply if the marriage had existed for at least five years at the time of the former staff member's death; or

 - iii) of a former staff member entitled to a deferred pension, if they had been married to each other for at least one year at the time when the former staff member's appointment ceased; this condition of anteriority shall not apply if the marriage had existed for at least five years at the time of his death.

3. The above-prescribed conditions of anteriority or minimum duration of marriage shall not apply where there are one or more children of the marriage or of a marriage of the staff member contracted prior to the cessation of his appointment, inasmuch as the non-remarried surviving spouse is providing for their needs; in such case, the survivor's or reversion pension shall be payable under the derogation provided for in the present paragraph, for so long as the children are actually being so provided for.

When they are no longer being so provided for, the survivor's or reversion pension shall nonetheless continue to be payable for so long as the surviving spouse does not have an income of his own from the exercise of any occupation, or from any retirement pension or other survivor's or reversion pension, equal to at least the amount of the survivor's or reversion pension from the Organisation.

4. Entitlement to a survivor's or reversion pension shall be subject to the provisions of Article 2.

Last update: December 2012

* Wherever it occurs in these Rules, the expression “surviving spouse” applies indifferently to the wife or husband of the deceased staff member.

Instruction

18.1 - Staff Member dying during leave granted for personal reasons

i) When a staff member who has completed at least 10 years' service within the meaning of Article 4 dies during a period of leave in respect of which no contributions were made to the Pension Scheme, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to:

- the survivor's pension under Article 19, paragraph 1 ii), the minimum and maximum amounts of such pension being in accordance with paragraphs 3 and 4 of the same Article;

- and, where appropriate, the benefits specified in Article 28.

In addition, any orphans and/or dependants shall be entitled to the benefits specified in Articles 25 and 25bis.

ii) Where the deceased staff member had not completed ten years of service conferring entitlement, as defined in Article 4, the amounts provided for in Article 11 shall be paid to his estate; such amounts shall be calculated on the basis of rights acquired and salary at the date of termination of the period in respect of which contributions to the Pension Scheme were payable, without any subsequent adjustment or interest.

Last update: November 2006

Article 19 – Rate of pension

1. The survivor's or reversion pensions shall be 60% of:
 - i) the retirement pension that would have been payable to the staff member, had he not died in service, on the basis of his reckonable service credited up to the time of his death, without the need for a minimum of ten years' service under the provisions of Article 7;
 - ii) the deferred retirement pension that would have been paid to the former staff member at the age of sixty;
 - iii) the invalidity pension, updated in accordance with the provisions of Article 36, that was actually being paid to the staff member at the time of his death, no account being taken of reductions under Article 15;
 - iv) the retirement pension, updated in accordance with the provisions of Article 36, that was actually being paid to the staff member at the time of his death, no account being taken of any reductions under Article 8, paragraph 4.
2. Where a staff member has died as a result of an accident in the course of the performance of his duties, from an occupational disease, from a public-spirited act or from risking his life to save another human being, the survivor's pension shall be 60 per cent of the invalidity pension to which the staff member would have been entitled under Article 14, paragraph 2 had he survived.
3. The survivor's or reversion pension shall not be less than 35 per cent of the staff member's last salary; nor shall it be less than the salary for Grade C1, step 1. Said pensions shall be updated in accordance with the provisions of Article 36.

4. However, the reversion pension shall not exceed the amount of the former staff member's own pension in the cases covered by paragraph 1 ii), iii) and iv) above, nor the amount of the pension to which the former staff member would have been entitled had he reached the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations at the time of his death.

Last update: November 2006

Article 20 – Reduction for difference in age

1. Where the difference in age between the deceased staff member or former staff member and his younger surviving spouse and/or former spouse, less the length of time they have been married, is more than ten years, the survivor's or reversion pension, calculated in accordance with the preceding provisions, shall be subject to a reduction, per year of difference, amounting to:

- 1 % for the years between 10 and 20;
- 2 % for the years 20 up to but not including 25;
- 3 % for the years 25 up to but not including 30;
- 4 % for the years 30 up to but not including 35;
- 5 % for the years from 35 upwards.

Instruction

20.1 – Calculation of the reduction for difference in age

The result in years of the difference in age between the deceased staff member or former staff member and his younger surviving spouse and/or former spouse, less the length of time they have been married, shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

The initial 1 % reduction shall apply for a period of 9 years following 10 complete years, i.e. from the eleventh to the nineteenth year inclusive, as illustrated in the example below:

Difference in age: 29 years and 6 months;

Length of marriage: 8 years and 7 months;

Duration taken into account for the calculation of the reduction: 20 years and 11 months, rounded down to 20 years.

Calculation of the reduction:

1 % for the years between 10 and 20 = $9 \times 1 \% = 9 \%$;

2 % for the years 20 up to but not including 25 = $1 \times 2 \% = 2 \%$;

Article 21 – Remarriage

1. Entitlement to a survivor's or reversion pension shall cease on remarriage. The surviving spouse or ex-spouse shall be entitled to immediate payment of a capital sum equal to twice the annual amount of the pension, if there are no dependent children to whom the provisions of Article 25, paragraph 4 apply.

2. The capital sum paid to the ex-spouse shall not be more than the amount to which he could still be entitled under Article 22, paragraph 1.

Last update: December 2012

Instruction

21.1 Payment of the capital sum

The capital sum provided for under Article 21, paragraph 1 shall be calculated with reference to the basic salary scale applicable at the date of remarriage, and paid to the recipient.

Article 22 – Rights of a former spouse

1. The non-remarried former spouse of a staff member or former staff member shall, on the latter's death, be entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension, provided that and for as long as the staff member or former staff member was, at the time of his death and by virtue of a court decision which had become final and binding, under an obligation to pay maintenance or compensation to the former spouse in a personal capacity; but the survivor's or reversion pension shall not exceed the amount of such payment.

This entitlement shall not arise if the former spouse remarried before the staff member or former staff member died. If remarriage takes place after the staff member's or former staff member's death and while the conditions laid down in the sub-paragraph above are still fulfilled, the provisions of Article 21 shall apply.

2. Where a staff member or former staff member dies leaving both a spouse entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension and a non-remarried former spouse fulfilling the conditions laid down in paragraph 1 above, the whole of the survivor's or reversion pension shall be divided between the before-mentioned persons in proportion to the duration of their marriages.

The amount to which a non-remarried former spouse is entitled shall however not be more than the amount of the maintenance or compensation payable at the time of the death of the staff member or former staff member.

3. Where one of the persons entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension renounces his share, ceases to satisfy the conditions for entitlement or forfeits his rights under Article 35, or where the amount of his pension has been restricted under the terms of the second sub-paragraph of paragraph 2 above, his share shall accrue to the share of the other person, except where pension rights revert to orphans, as provided under Article 25, paragraph 3, last sub-paragraph. In such a case, the restriction laid down in the second sub-paragraph 2 above shall apply.

4. Reductions in respect of difference in age as provided for in Article 20 shall be applied separately to survivors' and reversion pensions calculated in accordance with the present Article.

Last update: January 2020

Instructions

22.1 Rights of a non-remarried former spouse

i) The maintenance or compensation payments referred to in Article 22, paragraph 1 shall, where appropriate, be converted into the currency of the scale applicable to the country of the staff member's or former staff member's last posting or, in cases to which Article 33, paragraph 2 applies, of the scale for which an option has been exercised by the former staff member prior to his decease, by applying the rate of exchange used in the relevant Organisation at the date the latter's pension was assessed;

ii) the maintenance or compensation payments referred to in the preceding sub-paragraph shall be subject to the same adjustments as those actually applied to the basic salary corresponding to the grade and step used to calculate the survivor's or reversion pension provided for under Article 19.

iii) Failing a final and binding court decision, the non-remarried former spouse shall be entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension by virtue of an officially registered settlement in force between the former spouses.

Last update: January 2020

Article 23 – Commencement and cessation of entitlement

1. Entitlement to a survivor's or reversion pension shall commence from the first day of the month following that in which the staff member or former staff member died. If the salary of a staff member who died in service continues to be paid to a surviving spouse or former spouse, directly and in full, under the Staff Regulations and Rules of the Organisation, payment of the pension shall be deferred accordingly.
2. Entitlement to a survivor's or reversion pension shall cease at the end of the month in which the recipient of the pension dies or ceases to satisfy the conditions for entitlement to that pension.

2. Where there are children or dependent persons from different family groups, with entitlement to a pension, the total pension, calculated as though all were from the same family group, shall be apportioned among the various categories of beneficiaries in proportion to the pensions which would have been payable to each category if treated separately.

Instructions

27.0 – Beneficiaries of more than one category - General provisions

In cases of coexistent pension entitlements of a spouse, former spouse(s), children and/or dependants, the “total pension” referred to in Article 27, paragraphs 1 and 2 is defined in Instructions 27.1/1 i) and 27.2/1 i) respectively. It shall be apportioned as follows:

27.1/1 – Coexistence of beneficiaries, without children or dependants, entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension on the one hand, and of orphans and/or dependants on the other, belonging to different family groups

i) In this case, the total pension referred to in Article 27, paragraph 1 shall be calculated as if all beneficiaries of the deceased staff member or former staff member formed part of a single family group. This total pension shall comprise:

- a survivor's or reversion pension as would be payable to a surviving spouse of the deceased staff member or former staff member in accordance with Article 19 only;
- orphans' pensions calculated as if all orphans of the deceased staff member or former staff member belonged to the family group entitled to the survivor's or reversion pension mentioned above;
- dependants' pensions calculated theoretically as orphans' pensions before application of the provisions of Article 25bis, paragraph 2.

In accordance with Article 25, paragraph 3 ii), only one minimum orphan's pension (50% of C1/1) shall be taken into account in this calculation.

ii) The total pension shall be apportioned among:

- the surviving spouse or non-remarried former spouse(s) and
- orphans and/or dependants,

in proportion to the amounts which would have been payable directly to each of these family groups considered separately, after application of Articles 20 and 22 for the survivor's or reversion pension, Article 25 for orphans' pensions, and Article 25bis for dependants' pensions.

iii) If the amounts so apportioned exceed the pensions to which the beneficiaries would have been entitled if they had been considered separately, including, for dependants' pensions, after application of Article 25bis, any such excess amounts shall not be payable.

iv) The minimum amounts laid down for survivors' and reversion pensions and for orphans' and/or dependants' pensions shall no longer apply to the shares actually attributed.

27.1/2 – Coexistence of beneficiaries entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension with children and/or dependants on the one hand, and of orphans and/or dependants belonging to another family group on the other.

i) In this case, the total pension, calculated in accordance with Instruction 27.1/1 i), shall be apportioned among:

- the children and/or dependants belonging to another family group, in proportion to the amounts which would have been payable directly to each of these family groups considered separately, after application of Articles 20 and 22 for the survivor's or reversion pension, Article 25 for orphans' pensions, and Article 25bis for dependants' pensions.

ii) Within the group consisting of a surviving spouse or former spouse(s) and orphans and/or dependants, the share going to that group shall be apportioned, for the purpose of calculating the individual entitlement of each member as mentioned above, in proportion to the survivor's or reversion pension on the one hand, and the orphans' and/or dependants' pensions on the other.

iii) If the amounts so apportioned exceed the pensions to which the beneficiaries would have been entitled if they had been considered separately, including after application of Article 25bis, any such excess amounts shall not be payable.

iv) The minimum amounts laid down for survivors' and reversion pensions and for orphans' and/or dependants' pensions shall no longer apply to the shares actually attributed.

27.2/1 – Coexistence of beneficiaries entitled to orphans' and/or dependants' pensions belonging to different family groups

i) In this case, the total pension referred to in Article 27, paragraph 2 shall be calculated as if all the persons entitled to an orphan's pension and/or dependant's pension formed part of a single family group. Before apportionment, dependants shall be treated in theory as orphans. This total pension shall comprise:

- a single orphan's pension calculated, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of Article 25, paragraph 3 i) if there are one or more persons entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension, or of Article 25, paragraph 4 i) where there are no such persons;
- orphans' pensions equal to the dependent child allowance where there are one or more persons entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension, or to double that allowance where there are no such persons.

ii) This total pension shall be apportioned among the different family groups in proportion to the pensions which would have been payable directly to each of these family groups considered separately.

iii) Within each family group, the share going to that group shall be divided equally among the beneficiaries before application of Article 25bis, where applicable.

iv) The minimum amounts laid down shall no longer apply to the shares actually attributed.

Article 33 – Basis of calculation

1. Pensions provided for in the Rules shall be calculated by reference to the salary defined in Article 3 and to the scales applicable to the country of the staff member's lastposting.
2. However, if the former staff member settles subsequently:
 - i) in a Member country of one of the Co-ordinated Organisations of which he is a national, or
 - ii) in a Member country of one of the Co-ordinated Organisations of which his spouse is a national; or
 - iii) in a country where he has served at least five years in one of the Organisations listed in Article 1, he may opt for the scale applicable to that country.

The option shall apply to only one of the countries referred to in this paragraph, and shall be irrevocable except where paragraph 3 below is applicable.

3. On the death of his spouse, a former staff member who settles in the country of which he is a national, or of which such deceased spouse was a national, may opt for the scale applicable in that country.

The same option shall be open to the surviving spouse or former spouse of a former staff member and to orphans who have lost both parents.

4. These options, available under paragraphs 2 and 3, shall be irrevocable.

5. If the staff member, spouse, former spouse or orphan opts for the scale of a country referred to in paragraph 2, but there is no scale approved by the Organisation for that country, the scale applicable to the country in which the Organisation responsible for paying his pension has its headquarters shall be applied temporarily until a scale had been adopted for the country chosen.

6. The amount of the pension based on the scale chosen shall be calculated in accordance with Article 36.

7. The provisions of paragraph 2 above do not apply to the benefits under Article 11. ii) the share of benefit apportioned to each beneficiary of the option shall be expressed as a percentage of the basic salary for the grade and step used in calculating the theoretical survivor's or reversion pension;

iii) the share apportioned to the beneficiary of the option referred to in Article 33, paragraph 3 shall be equal to the basic salary corresponding to the grade and step referred to in sub-paragraph ii) of the scale applicable in the country chosen, multiplied by the percentage referred to in the same sub-paragraph.

33.3/2 - Transitional arrangements

If the persons entitled under a staff member who has died before having exercised his right of option choose the Pension Scheme under Articles 43 and 44 of the Rules, the scale - other than that of the last country of service - for which they opt pursuant to Article 33 of the Rules shall be irrevocably applicable. However, where the surviving spouse dies after having exercised the said irrevocable option, the orphans may in their turn exercise a joint option which shall also be irrevocable.

33.5 - Calculation following approval of a new scale

In cases where Article 33, paragraph 5 is applied, benefits are calculated under the new scale as from the date of its entry into force, with no retroactive effect.

Article 34 – Re-assessment – cancellation the persons entitled under him or from the amounts due to his estate. The reimbursement may be spread over a period.

2. Benefits shall be subject to modification or cancellation if their award was contrary to the provisions of these Rules.

Article 35 – Requirement of evidence - forfeiture of rights

1. Persons who are eligible for benefits under these Rules shall inform the Organisation or the International Service for Remuneration and Pensions of any facts which may affect their entitlement to benefits and to furnish such supporting evidence as may be required of them.

Should they fail to comply with these obligations, they may be deprived of the right to benefits under this Scheme; save in exceptional circumstances, they shall refund any sums received to which they were not entitled.

2. Where the surviving spouse, orphans or other dependants of a deceased staff member or former staff member fail to apply for their pension within twelve months from the date of his death, payment of the benefits under these Rules may, at the discretion of the Organisation, be deferred until the first day of the month following that in which they make their application.

3. Where a staff member's or former staff member's former spouse referred to in Article 22 fails to apply for a pension within twelve months from the date of his death, the former spouse's rights may, at the discretion of the Organisation, be wholly forfeited.

All amounts incorrectly received shall be refunded pursuant to Articles 34 and 35, in the manner prescribed in the Rules and Regulations applicable to staff serving in the Organisation, without prejudice to the special provisions laid down for implementing Article 42 with regard to taxation.

35.1/3 - Obligation on claimants to make themselves known

In the absence of a statement provided for under Instruction 35.1/1, it is the responsibility of persons entitled under a deceased staff member or former staff member to notify their existence to the Organisation which they consider to be liable for the payment to them of benefits under the Pension Scheme, except for those cases where notification is the responsibility of the Organisation under Article 43, paragraphs 2 iii) and 3 ii).

35.1/4 - Notifying beneficiaries

The Organisation shall then inform the beneficiaries concerned of the benefits which they may claim under the Pension Scheme Rules.

Section 2 - ADJUSTMENT OF BENEFITS

Article 36 – Adjustment of benefits

1. The Organisation shall adjust pensions, every year, in accordance with the revaluation coefficients based on the consumer price index for the country of the scale used to calculate each pension.

It shall also adjust them in the course of the year, for any given country, when prices in that country show an increase of at least 6%.

2. At regular intervals, the Secretary General shall establish a comparison of the difference between increases in salary and increases in pensions, and may, where appropriate, propose measures to reduce it.

3. When the beneficiary of a pension dies, any reversion, orphan's and/or dependant's pensions that may be due shall be calculated as follows:

i) The pension(s) shall be calculated:

- with reference to the scale in force on 31 December 2019 if the deceased pensioner's entitlement was assessed prior to 1 January 2020;
- with reference to the scale in force at the date on which the deceased former staff member's pension was assessed if such entitlement was assessed from 1 January 2020.

ii) Said scale shall be updated, as from that date, by application of the pensions revaluation coefficients for the country in question.

4. If the beneficiary of an invalidity pension, which was not awarded under Article 14, paragraph 2 reaches the age limit laid down in the Staff Rules and Regulations, his invalidity pension shall be converted, in accordance with Article 17, paragraph 2, to a retirement pension calculated using the following method:

i) The pension shall be calculated:

- with reference to the scale in force on 31 December 2019 if the invalidity pension was assessed prior to 1 January 2020;
- with reference to the scale in force at the date on which the invalidity pension was assessed if such pension was assessed from 1 January 2020.

ii) Said scale shall be updated, as from that date, by application of the pensions revaluation coefficients for the country in question.

5. If the beneficiary of a pension exercises one of the options under Article 33, the following calculation shall be made:

i) The pension shall be recalculated:

- with reference to the scale in force on 31 December 2019 for the country selected if the pension was assessed prior to 1 January 2020;
- with reference to the scale in force at the date of its assessment for the country selected if the pension was assessed from 1 January 2020.

ii) Said scale shall be updated, as from that date, by application of the pensions revaluation coefficients for the country in question.

Instruction

36.1/1 - Notifying beneficiaries

Adjustments to pensions currently being paid shall be notified in writing to the beneficiaries of such pensions, either by the Organisation or, as instructed by it, by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions.

36.1/2 - Consumer price indices

Consumer price trends shall be monitored with reference to the Harmonised Index of Consumer Prices (HICP), or where these series are not available, the national Consumer Price Indices (CPI) used in the salary adjustment procedure in force in the Organisation. The annual adjustment index shall be the evolution in consumer prices between 1st January of the year of the annual adjustment and 1st January of the previous year, less any special adjustment granted during this period.¹

36.1/3 – Date of effect of the annual adjustment

36.1/4 – Special adjustment in the event of price evolution of at least 6% during the year

Whenever the 6 % inflation threshold is exceeded, the special adjustment applied to pensions shall be equal to the change in consumer prices between the month in which the previous adjustment took effect and the month in which the special adjustment threshold is exceeded. Any special adjustment shall take effect in the month following the month in which the threshold was exceeded. The monitoring of consumer price trends shall then be reset, taking the consumer price index of the month during which the high inflation threshold was reached as the basis to further monitor inflation until the next special or annual adjustment.

36.1/5 – Procedure for granting the special adjustment

Any special adjustment is granted provisionally until PACCO's issuance of a technical opinion recommending, where applicable, the definitive granting of this special adjustment. PACCO's technical opinion is communicated to the CRSG for information.

3. Benefits shall be paid in the currency used in their calculation in accordance with Article 33.
4. Benefits shall be paid to the recipient by bank transfer to an account either in the country of the scale used to calculate these benefits, or in the country where the recipient resides.

¹ By way of derogation and for the purpose of the annual adjustment of pensions on 1 January 2021, as well as for any special adjustment until that date as referred to in Implementing Instruction 36.1/4, consumer prices trends shall be monitored as from 1 July 2019.

The deduction may be spread over a period.

Instruction

38.1 - Buying back rights - Credit for past service

Any amounts remaining due on the death, recognition of invalidity or termination of service of a staff member, in respect of pension rights bought back under Article 5 or credited under Articles 44 and 49, shall constitute a debt owed to the Organisation by the staff member or the persons entitled under him or the estate.

Payment to the Organisation of any amounts thus owing shall be made pursuant to the special condition agreed to by the staff member at the time of his application to buy back or to be credited with pension rights; this condition shall give the Organisation a preferential right to deduct such amounts from the capital sums due at the time of death or recognition of invalidity, or of termination of service, where appropriate, under the conditions provided for in Instructions 5.1 and 5.5.

Article 39 – Right of subrogation

1. Where a staff member's invalidity or death is attributable to a third party, the award of the benefits provided for in these Rules shall in principle be made subject to the beneficiary assigning to the Organisation his claims against such third party, up to the amount of such benefits.

2. However, the Organisation may waive its right to take action pursuant to such subrogation against the third party concerned where special circumstances justify such a waiver.

CHAPTER X - FINANCING THE PENSION SCHEME

Article 40 – Charge on budgets

1. Benefits paid under this Pension Scheme shall be charged to the budgets of the Organisation responsible for the assessment of these benefits pursuant to Article 31.

2. The Member States of the Organisation jointly guarantee the payment of the benefits.

3. In the event of a merger, reconstitution or other transformation or in the event of dissolution of the Organisation, the Council or any ad hoc body set up, where required in one of the aforementioned cases, shall take the necessary measures to ensure uninterrupted payment of the Pension Scheme benefits until the cessation of entitlement of the last beneficiary.

4. Should a country, being a Member or ex-Member of the Organisation, fail to comply with its obligations under this Article, the other countries shall meet the cost thereof in proportion to their contribution to the budget of the Organisation as fixed annually from and after the said country's default.

Last update: January 2025

5. An actuarial study shall be carried out every five years for all the Organisations, using the method described in Annex. In accordance with the result of that study, the staff contribution rate shall automatically be adjusted, with effect from the fifth anniversary of the preceding adjustment, the rate being rounded to the nearest first decimal.

However, in the event of exceptional circumstances, the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration (CCR) could recommend that the date of that study, and of any adjustment of the contribution rate resulting therefrom, be advanced.

In such a case, the normal 5-year interval between two studies and any adjustment of contributions resulting therefrom shall begin as from the date of that supplementary study except for a new application of the provisions of the preceding sub-paragraph.

6. Contributions properly deducted shall not be recoverable. Contributions improperly deducted shall confer no rights to pension benefits; they shall be refunded at the request of the staff member concerned or those entitled under him without interest.

Instructions

41.1/1 - Sickness

The staff members' contribution to the Pension Scheme shall be paid during sick leave and during periods of temporary incapacity following such leave if the staff member concerned continues to receive an allowance equal to the whole or part of his emoluments. 41.1/2 - Leave for personal reasons

A staff member may not pay pension contributions during periods of leave for personal reasons of more than six months' duration, and during such periods the staff member shall not acquire any pension rights.

CHAPTER XI - PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE ADJUSTMENT OF PENSIONS

Article 42 - Pensions which are subject to national tax legislation

1. The recipient of a pension under these Rules shall be entitled to the adjustment applying to the Member Country of the Organisation in which the pension and adjustment relating thereto are chargeable to income tax under the tax legislation in force in that country.

2. The adjustment shall equal 50 per cent of the amount by which the recipient's pension would theoretically need to be increased, were the balance remaining after deduction of the amount of national income tax or taxes on the total to correspond to the amount of the pension calculated in accordance with these Rules.

For such purpose, there shall be drawn up, for each Member country, in accordance with the Implementing Instructions referred to in paragraph 6, tables of equivalence specifying, for each amount of pension, the amount of the adjustment to be added thereto. The said tables shall determine the rights of the recipients.

3. In calculating the theoretical amount of income tax or taxes referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, account shall be taken only of the provisions of tax legislation and regulations affecting the basis of liability and the amount of income tax or taxes for all pensioner-taxpayers in the country concerned.

Pensioners without spouse or dependants shall be deemed to be in the position of a pensioner without entitlement to any tax reliefs or allowances for family responsibilities, all other recipients being deemed to be pensioners enjoying the tax reliefs and allowances of a person who is married without children.

No account shall be taken:

of individual factors related to the personal circumstances or private means of a particular pensioner,

of income other than that arising under these Rules, of the income of the spouse or dependents of the pensioner.

On the other hand, account shall, in particular, be taken of circumstances arising in the course of the year as a result of:

- a change in civil status or settlement in another place of residence with a different taxation system,
- commencement or cessation of payment of the pension.

4. The Organisation shall supply the Member Countries concerned with the names, forenames and full address of pensioners and the total amount of the pension and adjustment.

5. The recipient of an adjustment as specified in this Article shall be required to inform the Organisation of his full address and of any subsequent change therein.

Such recipient shall produce evidence of his pension and the relative adjustment having been declared or taxed; should he fail to comply with this obligation, he shall be deprived of the right to this adjustment and shall refund any amounts unduly received in this respect.

6. The other procedures for calculating the adjustment and, in particular, those necessitated by the special features of certain national tax laws, and the procedure for payment of the adjustment shall be laid down in the Implementing Instructions established in accordance with the tax legislation of Member Countries.

Notwithstanding Article 52, the implementing provisions referred to in this paragraph shall require approval by the Councils of the organisations listed in Article 1.1.

Instructions

42/1 - Scope and calculation of the adjustment

1. Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall apply only if the pension and the adjustment relating to it are subject to taxes on income levied in a Member Country of the Organisation. The family allowances provided for in Article 28 of the Pension Rules shall be assimilated to pensions in determining the tax adjustment in so far as similar allowances are taxable under the national tax legislation of the Member country.
2. The adjustment referred to in Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall be determined on the basis of the legal provisions relating to taxes on income in force in the Member country in which the pensioner is legally subject to such taxation. It shall be established in respect of pensions paid during the tax period as determined in that country.
3. Where the pension of a person entitled to the adjustment is paid in a currency other than that of the country in which such person is subject to taxes on income, the adjustment shall be determined on the basis of the pension converted into the currency of that country. Such conversion shall be effected at the rate obtained on the official exchange market.
4. Where the amounts paid during any tax period include arrears of pension relating to any previous period, the adjustment shall be determined or recalculated, as the case may be, with due regard to the tax treatment applicable to such arrears.

42/2 - Establishment of tables of equivalence for payment of the adjustment

1. Tables of equivalence for payment of the adjustment shall be established for each tax year by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions, hereinafter referred to as 'the Service'.
2. The tax authorities of Member countries shall provide the Service, at its request, with the details of legislation and regulations necessary for establishing the tables. The tables shall be checked and confirmed by the tax authorities of the Member country concerned. In the event of disagreement between such authorities and the Service on the content of the tables, the Secretaries- General and the Coordinating Committee shall consider the matter on the basis of Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules and of these Implementing Instructions.
3. Provisional tables of equivalence shall be drawn up prior to the commencement of the period to which they refer. They shall show, for rounded pension figures and in respect of each Member country, an amount equivalent to 90 per cent of the monthly adjustment calculated according to the distinctions contained in Article 42.3 of the Pension Scheme Rules and on the basis of the tax legislation in force at the time of drawing up the tables.

4. The provisional tables shall be revised whenever amendments to tax legislation involve a change in the amount of the adjustment. The Secretaries-General and the Coordinating Committee may however decide by mutual agreement to dispense with the up-dating of tables in cases where the balance of gain or loss is minimal.

5. As soon as the authorities in Member countries have finally adopted the tax legislation applicable to income for the period covered by the provisional tables, these latter shall be replaced by final tables establishing the rights of recipients in accordance with Article 42.2 of the Pension Scheme Rules. These final tables shall show the amount of the adjustment for the whole of the period which they cover, as well as the monthly amount of the adjustment.

6. The provisional and final tables of equivalence shall be accompanied by all such information as is necessary for their use. Such information shall include:

- the rules to be observed in cases where changes in family status, dependants or permanent address (domicile) of the person entitled to the adjustment may affect the amount of the adjustment which the person concerned may claim;
- the names and addresses of the tax authorities to which the Organisations supply the information specified in Article 42.4 of the Pension Scheme Rules;
- the evidence to be supplied by persons entitled to the adjustment as proof of the declaration for tax purposes, or the taxation, of their pension and the adjustment relating thereto;
- the dates for making such declarations and for paying the tax in those Member countries which have been authorised to avail themselves of the provisions of Instruction 42/3, paragraph 2 below.

42/3 - Method of payment of the adjustment

1. The adjustment shall be paid by monthly instalments by way of advance at the same time as the pension and in an amount corresponding to that appearing in the provisional tables of equivalence referred to in Instruction 42/2, paragraph 3 above. The amounts of pension, arrears of pension and adjustment shall be shown separately on the instrument of payment issued to the recipient.

2. At the request of a country, the Secretaries-General and the Coordinating Committee may, by mutual agreement, decide that by way of exception to paragraph 1, there shall be a time lag in payment of the monthly instalments of the adjustment relating to that country, provided however that payment of the whole of the monthly instalments shall be finalised before the ultimate date for payment of the tax to which they refer.

3. As soon as the final tables of equivalence are available, the total amount of the monthly instalments paid in respect of the tax period shall be compared to the final amount of the adjustment due for the whole of that period. Any excess or shortfall shall be rectified but so however that the amount involved shall not be taken into account in determining the adjustment in respect of the following tax year.

4. The adjustments shall be paid in the currency of the country in which the recipient is subject to taxes on income.

42/4 - Information to be supplied to Member countries by the Organisation

1. The particulars specified in Article 42/4 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall consist of the following:

- a) a personal particulars form giving the name and forenames, full address and, where applicable, the residence for tax purposes (domicile fiscal) of the pensioner, the total amount of pension paid for the period constituting the tax year, the final amount of the adjustment arrived at for such period, and the amount of arrears of pension, identifying the year to which such arrears relate;
- b) a master list reproducing for each country, the information contained in the personal particulars form.

2. The particulars listed in paragraph 1 of this Instruction shall be supplied to the tax authorities of the country in which the persons concerned are subject to taxes on income. A copy of the personal particulars form shall be sent to the pensioner and a copy of the master list shall be sent to the Representative of the country in question to the Organisation.

3. The obligations specified in this Instruction shall be complied with at the time of the rectification referred to in Instruction 42/3, paragraph 3 above.

42/5 - Evidence of payment of tax

The tax authorities referred to in Instruction 42/2, paragraph 6 above shall inform the Service of the evidence by which, in accordance with Article 42.5 of the Pension Scheme Rules, recipients of the adjustment may establish that their pension and the relevant adjustment have been declared for tax purposes or have been taxed.

42/6 - Financing the adjustment

1. The cost of the adjustment provided for in Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall be borne by the country in which the recipient thereof is subject to taxes on income for the period considered.

2. Expenditure arising under paragraph 1 of this Instruction shall be the subject of a separate budget which shall be drawn up at the same time as the other budgets of the Organisation. Final settlement of the contributions to this separate budget shall be made at the end of the period to which it relates.

42/7 - Transitional measures

1. Arrears of pension relating to tax periods prior to the approval of the Pension Scheme Rules by the Council shall be treated as contributions towards the purchase of pension rights to the extent that they are set off against capital due for the crediting of the pensioner's past service.

2. The effect of this provision on the amount of the adjustment shall be determined by the tax authorities mentioned in Instruction 42/2, paragraph 6 above, in collaboration with the Service.

42/8 - Date of effect

CHAPTER XII - TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS APPLICABLE TO STAFF WHOSE SERVICE BEGAN BEFORE 1st JULY 1974

Article 43 - Scope

1. Permanent staff serving on 1st July 1974, must, within the period referred to in paragraph 4 i) of this Article, state in writing which one of the options referred to in Articles 44, 45 and 48 they wish to select. Staff failing to make their choice within that period shall be deemed to have chosen the option under Article 44 and to elect to be credited with past service for the periods referred to in paragraph 2 of that same Article.

This choice shall be irrevocable both for the staff member and for persons entitled under him.

i) Should a staff member who was serving on 1st July 1974 become incapacitated without having made the choice referred to in this Article, his choice will in future be limited to Articles 44 and 48.

ii) Should a staff member who was serving on 1st July 1974 die without having made the choice referred to in this Article, his spouse or, in the event of the latter's death, his orphans or other dependants, may only make the choices referred to in sub-paragraph i) above.

iii) The choice in favour of Article 44 or 48 must, in any event, be made by the staff member, or the persons entitled under him, within the period referred to in paragraph 4 i) of this Article, or, in the event of death of the staff member or his spouse, six months after the date on which the Organisation has notified the new scheme to the persons entitled under them.

In the cases dealt with in this paragraph 2, if the choice is not made within the time limit laid down, the staff member or the persons entitled under him shall be deemed to have made the choice covered by Article 48.

i) Staff who have left the Organisation between 1st January 1973 and 1st July 1974 may also opt for the Pension Scheme under the terms of Article 44 provided they make an application to this effect within the period referred to in paragraph 4 i) of this Article.

ii) Should a staff member to whom this paragraph applies die without having opted for Article 44, the persons entitled under him may exercise such option not later than six months after the date on which they have been notified of the new scheme by the Organisation.

i) The option period provided for in this Article shall end in each of the Organisations listed in Article 1.1 one year after final approval of these Rules has been given by the Council of the said Organisation, save in the cases referred to in paragraphs 2 iii) and 3 ii) of this Article.

- ii) The options provided for under this Section of the Rules shall take effect on 1st July 1974; however, the option referred to in paragraph 3 above shall take effect on the date of the award of the benefits under the Pension Scheme, but not earlier than 1st January 1973.

Instructions

43/1 - Time for exercising options and statement of the position of each staff member

- i) The time limits laid down in Articles 43 and 44 of the Rules shall begin to run from the date fixed by the Council of the Organisation at the time of the approval of the Pension Scheme Rules.
- ii) A statement of the position of each staff member, to be established provisionally as at [1st January 1978] (), shall show as at that date:*
- the actual amount of the staff member's holding in the Provident Fund;
 - the amount of contributions paid after 1st July 1974, such contributions being the property of the Organisation, with the actual yield thereon, save where the option under Article 48 of the Rules is exercised;
 - the amount due in accordance with the provisions implementing Article 44 of the Rules, should the person concerned opt to be credited with all service completed as a permanent staff member prior to 1st July 1974, or prior to termination of service if this occurred before 1st July 1974.
- ii) The options provided for in Article 43 of the Rules shall be exercised in the Organisation where the staff member is actually serving before the end of the transitional period; if the staff member has transferred from one Organisation to another between 1st July 1973 and the end of the option period, and any break in service does not exceed six months, the said staff member shall be entitled to the same options.

43/2 - Option exercisable by widow

In application of Article 43.2 ii) and 3 ii) of the Rules, the right to exercise an option shall be accorded only to the widow of the deceased staff member, to the exclusion of any former wife.

However, where the deceased staff member has left neither a widow nor any orphans but an unremarried former wife to whom he was paying maintenance, such ex-wife may exercise the option provided for in Article 43.2 ii) of the Rules.

Article 44 - Pension with credit for past service

1. A staff member to whom this Section of the Rules applies and who has chosen the option provided for by this Article shall be bound by the terms of the Pension Scheme, and be credited with any periods served by him before 1st July 1974 in one or more of the Organisations listed in Article 1.

(*) Date varying according to Organisations.

2. A staff member credited with past service under paragraph I shall surrender his holding in the Provident Fund.

However,

i) for the period prior to the setting-up of the Provident Fund, the staff member shall retain the difference between a) the amounts contributed by the Organisation plus their yield up to the date when the option referred to in Article 43.4 ii) takes effect, and b) the aforesaid amounts plus compound interest at 4 per cent per annum up to the aforesaid date;

ii) for the period between the setting-up of the Provident Fund and the date when the option referred to in Article 43.4 ii) takes effect, the staff member shall retain such part of his holding as exceeds 21 per cent of the salaries paid to him during this period plus compound interest at 4 per cent per annum on the said amount of 21 per cent up to the aforesaid date;

iii) notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs i) and ii) above, a staff member may not retain that part of his Provident Fund holding which corresponds to any interest-bonuses granted in certain Organisations.

The cost of crediting past service under this paragraph shall be determined in nominal terms in the currency of the country or countries of service where the salaries used as a basis for the calculation of contributions were actually paid, the necessary conversions into the currency ultimately used for keeping the individual accounts being effected on the basis of exchange rates in use for Provident Fund operations on the date when the option takes effect. In cases where the Provident Fund holding paid over to a staff member when he left is refunded, the cost of crediting past service may be paid directly in the currency (or currencies) in which the contributions were payable.

The crediting of past service in the manner prescribed in this paragraph shall be irrevocable and must include all periods of service covered by this paragraph.

i) Where a staff member has exercised his right to make withdrawals from his Provident Fund holding and where, in consequence, the amount standing to his credit is less than the amount he would have surrendered under paragraph 2 if he had not made withdrawals, service prior to 1st July 1974 shall only be credited in the proportion these two amounts bear to each other.

ii) This provision shall not apply where a staff member has, within the period referred to in Article 43.4 i), undertaken to repay the difference between the two amounts plus compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum as from that date.

If the staff member makes only partial repayment, past service shall only be credited in the proportion referred to in the first sub-paragraph above.

iii) Should a staff member become incapacitated or die without having made the choice referred to in this Article, the figure of 70 per cent referred to in Article 14.2 as well as the minimum pensions referred to in Articles 14.4 and 19.3 shall be reduced according to the ratio between:

- the total number of years of service that would have been reckonable -up to the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, in the event of invalidity - allowing for the reductions referred to in this paragraph, and

- the total number of years of service that would have been credited if the staff member had entirely repaid the withdrawals made from his Provident Fund holding.

iv) Repayments provided for in this paragraph must be made within the time limit laid down in the Instructions for the implementation of these Rules.

4. A staff member may also, within the period referred to in Article 43.4 i), ask to be credited with service completed before his appointment as a permanent staff member, in accordance with Article 5.5.

5. A staff member to whom this Article applies and who leaves the Organisation at the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations after having completed less than the ten years required under Article 7 shall be entitled to opt for a grant calculated in accordance with Article 11 or for a proportionately reduced pension calculated in accordance with Article 10.

Instructions

44/1 - Credit for past service where there have been no withdrawals

A staff member who chooses the option specified in Article 44 of the Rules and who has not made any withdrawals affecting the amount required for crediting past service must elect to be credited with all periods of service referred to in the said Article.

44/2 - Staff who left the Organisation between 1st January 1973 and 1st July 1974

i) If such staff members opt for Article 44 of the Rules, the cost of crediting their past service shall be calculated as stated in Article 44/3 below, but as at the date of actual termination of their service.

ii) Where a pension is due to the staff member - or to any persons entitled under him - on termination of service, the above-mentioned cost of crediting past service shall be deducted from the arrears of pension. Any balance remaining outstanding shall be deducted from the staff member's holding in the Provident Fund or failing this, shall be repaid before any payment of pension.

iii) In the case of a deferred pension, the cost of crediting past service referred to in paragraph i) shall be repaid within twenty-four months from the end of the option period, and at a rate of compound interest of 4 per cent per annum from the date of termination of service up to the date when such repayment is completed.

iv) The above-mentioned amounts shall be refunded in the currency of the last country of service at the rate in force for Provident Fund operations on the first day of the month following the termination of service; however, the staff member concerned may make the refunds directly in the currency of the country where the remuneration was paid, in respect of the crediting of the relevant pension rights.

44/2bis - Staff leaving the Organisation after 1st July 1974

i) Staff serving before 1st July 1974, and having left the Organisation after that date, shall be entitled to exercise the option on the terms laid down in Articles 43 and 44 of the Rules.

ii) In the case of such staff members, or of pensions entitled under them, Instructions 44/2 ii) and iii) and 44/3 shall be applicable, but the cost of crediting past service to be taken into account shall be determined as at 1st July 1974.

ii) They shall in addition be liable to pay over the 21 per cent contributions paid after 1st July 1974, with the actual yield thereon up to the date of repayment. Such repayment must be made not later than the end of the option period, save where Article 48 of the Rules applies.

44/3 - Cost of crediting past service for staff serving at the time when the option is exercised

i) Contributions paid from 1st July 1974

A staff member or any person entitled under him who opts for Article 44 or Article 45 of the Rules shall be liable to pay over the contributions paid after 1st July 1974, with the actual yield thereon in the Provident Fund of the Organisation; such amount is to be paid over not later than the end of the option period.

ii) Cost of crediting service prior to 1st July 1974

Such cost, as determined in accordance with Article 44.2 of the Rules, shall not be greater than the Provident Fund holding to which the person concerned would have been entitled if he had not made any withdrawals.

Subject to this limit, the calculation of the amount of Provident Fund holding which must be surrendered to the Organisation in respect of the crediting of past service shall be made at the rate of compound interest of 4 per cent per annum from the date of actual payment of the contributions until 1st July 1974; if the contributions were in fact calculated at the time on the basis of salaries corresponding to countries of service other than the country of service on 1st July 1974, they shall be calculated separately, with compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum up to 1st July 1974, in the respective currencies of the said other countries, and then converted into the currency of the country of service on 1st July 1974, at the rate of exchange in force on that date for operations of the Provident Fund. The total of such costs of crediting past service corresponding to different countries of service shall determine the amount due at 1st July 1974, in order to have such past service credited.

ii) Reconstitution of the cost of crediting past service

Where a staff member has exercised his right to make withdrawals from his Provident Fund before 1st July 1974, and the amount standing to his credit in his individual account at that date is less than the cost of crediting past service as calculated at 1st July 1974, he may refund the difference between the two amounts, with compound interest on such difference at the rate of 4 per cent per annum, accruing from 1st July 1974, over a maximum period of five years from the end of the option period, provided, however, that such refund may not continue beyond the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations.

Where a staff member has exercised his right to make withdrawals from his Provident Fund after 1st July 1974, and the amount standing to his credit in his individual account is less than the cost of crediting past service as calculated at 1st July 1974, plus the actual yield of the Fund thereon up to the date of the withdrawal, he may refund the difference between the said two amounts over a maximum period of five years from the end of the option period, such refund not continuing however beyond the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, with compound interest at 4 per cent per annum accruing from the date of the withdrawal.

The same provisions shall apply where the staff member had received his Provident Fund holding on leaving a previous Organisation.

iv) Refunds made after 1st July 1974

Such refunds are to be taken into account on the successive dates on which they are made, for the purpose of:

- reconstituting, in priority, the contributions referred to in paragraph i),*
- reducing the amount to be refunded in respect of the cost of crediting past service referred to in paragraph iii).*

Such refunds, within the limits of the amounts due under paragraphs i) and iii) above, shall increase for the benefit of the Organisation, at the rate of the actual yield on the Provident Fund.

v) Credit balance

If the statement referred to in Instruction 43/1 ii) shows that the staff member's Provident Fund holding is greater than the total of the amounts due pursuant to the preceding paragraphs of this Instruction, the staff member may, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Rules of the Provident Fund of the Organisation, either:

- have his credit balance paid to him within such time as is compatible with the management of the Fund, or*
- leave such balance invested with the other Provident Fund holdings.*

Until such time as it is withdrawn by him, the staff member's credit balance shall be subject to the fluctuations of the Provident Fund of the Organisation, all risks of gain or loss being borne solely by the staff member or any persons entitled under him.

vi) Partial credit for past service

If a staff member who has availed himself of the facilities provided for in paragraph iii) above for refunding the amounts identified in that paragraph has not succeeded in refunding the total of such amounts on the expiry of the period prescribed in that paragraph, his past service completed prior to 1st July 1974 shall be credited only in proportion to the amount of capital actually paid over for the purpose of crediting such service.

vii) Reduction of minimum pensions

In the cases provided for in Article 44.3 iii) of the Rules, the calculation of the reductions shall be made in accordance with the example annexed hereto, if the staff member became incapacitated or died before exercising the option specified in Article 44 and if the service completed by him before 1st July 1974, in the Organisation responsible for paying the invalidity or survivor's pension - and in any other previous Coordinated Organisation - has not been fully credited at the time when the above-mentioned pension is awarded.

However, no reduction in the minimum pensions referred to in this paragraph shall be made if the staff member or persons entitled under him pay the sums remaining due in respect of credit for past service before the payment of pension benefits.

44/4 - Refund of amounts due in respect of the cost of crediting past service

i) Refunds due as mentioned in Instruction 44/3 iii) for the purpose of reconstituting the cost of crediting past service shall be made in equal monthly instalments within a maximum period of five years.

They may not, except with the consent of the person concerned, exceed 20 per cent of his basic salary for the first month following the Decision of the Council approving the Pension Scheme Rules; they shall, however, be at least 10 per cent of such salary.

ii) In the event of the staff member becoming incapacitated or dying, any amounts still remaining due in respect of credit for past service shall be deducted from the capital amounts payable to the staff member concerned or the persons entitled under him, in accordance with the provisions of Instruction 38.1.

However, any amounts due under Instruction 44/3 i) shall be deducted in priority from such capital amounts, or failing this, from the pension benefits.

iii) A staff member who, when exercising his option under the Transitional Arrangements, requests that years of service completed in one or more Coordinated Organisations be taken into account shall be required to pay over to the Organisation in which he is serving at the time of exercising his option the cost of crediting the above-mentioned years of service, as calculated according to the rules applicable to the previous Organisation or Organisations; if any refunds in respect of such years of service are due from the staff member concerned, such amounts shall be paid to the Organisation in which the option was exercised, in accordance with the terms of paragraph i) above.

iv) However, if the staff member concerned is entitled to any arrears of pension, such arrears shall be set off against the refunds due in respect of credit for past service(), and the rate of compound interest of 4 per cent per annum shall not be taken into account during the period running from the date on which the pension takes effect up to the date of actual award of the arrears of pension. Any balance remaining due in respect of credit for past service shall be repaid before any payment of pension.*

(*) The cost of validation covers all amounts due by entitled persons at the date of accrual of the right to a pension.

Article 45 - Pension without credit for past service

1. A staff member to whom this Section of the Rules applies and who has chosen the option provided for by this Article shall be bound by the terms of the Pension Scheme but shall in derogation of Article 5.1.
 - ii) irrevocably renounce the right to be credited with service prior to 1st July 1974 in one or more of the Organisations listed in Article 1.1.
2. If he leaves the Organisation without completing ten years' service subsequent to 1st July 1974 he shall receive a leaving allowance as provided for in Article 11 in respect of his service subsequent to that date.
3. If he leaves the Organisation after completing ten or more years' service subsequent to 1st July 1974 he shall, subject to the conditions laid down in Chapter II, be entitled to a retirement pension for his service subsequent to that date. In the calculation of the minimum retirement pension provided under Article 10.3 only the years served after the afore-mentioned date shall be taken into account.
4. If he becomes incapacitated or dies while serving, the provisions of Chapters III to VI shall be applied as appropriate.

Article 46 - Bonus for service after the age of sixty

1. A staff member to whom this Section of the Rules applies, who has chosen one of the options given in Articles 44 and 45, and who has continued to serve beyond the age of sixty, shall, in respect of each year completed after that age, be entitled to an increase in pension corresponding to 5 per cent of the reckonable years of service credited to him at the age of sixty, but
 - i) the increase granted in respect of each year served after the age of sixty shall not exceed 2 per cent of the salary defined in Article 10.1, and
 - ii) his total pension shall not exceed 70 per cent of the salary so defined.
2. Within the same limit, pension rights shall continue to accrue as provided for in Article 10.1.
3. This Article shall, in the case covered by Article 14.1, apply only in respect of actual service after the age of sixty.

Instruction

46/1 - Calculation of bonus

- i) The bonus provided for in Article 46 of the Rules shall be calculated by reference to the reckonable years of service acquired at the end of the month in which the staff member attained his sixtieth year:
 - even if on that date they number less than ten years;
 - full months of service being counted as twelfths of a reckonable year of service;
 - account being taken, where appropriate, of reckonable years of service up to the age of 60 years for the purpose of Articles 14.1 and 16.2 of the Rules.

32.3 Subject to the ceilings specified in Article 46.1 of the Rules, the bonus percentage ascertained as above shall be added to the normal rate of pension entitlement, namely, 2 per cent, which is allotted for each year of service, or for each fraction amounting to at least one-twelfth of a year, completed after the age of 60 years.

Examples of calculations

1.	-	Reckonable years of service at age 60:	12, i.e. rate of pension = 24 %
	-	Bonus per year from age 60 to 65:	$\frac{24\% \times 5}{100} = 12\%$
	-	Total pension entitlement peryear from age 60 to 65:	2 + 12 = 3.2%
2.	-	Reckonable years of service at age 60:	20 years and 6 months, i.e. rate of pension = 41 %
	-	Bonus per year from age 60 to 65:	$\frac{41\% \times 5}{100} =$ 2.05% reduced to 2%
	-	Total pension entitlement peryear from age 60 to 65:	2 + 2 = 4 %
	-	e.g. if the staff member leaves at age 62 years and 6 months:	41 + 8 + 2 = 51 %
3.	-	Reckonable years of service at age 60:	25, i.e. rate of pension = 50 %
	-	Annual bonus reduced to maximum of 2 %
	-	Total pension entitlement peryear from age 60 to 65:	2 + 2 = 4 %
4.	-	Reckonable years of service at age 60:	30, i.e. rate of pension = 60 %
	-	Bonus per year from age 60 to 65:	$\frac{60\% \times 5}{100} =$ 3 % reduced to 2 %
	-	Total pension entitlement peryear from age 60 to 65:	2 + 2 = 4 %
	-	Maximum of 70 % at 62.5 years.

Article 47 - Compensation for loss of previous pension rights

A staff member to whom this Section of the Rules applies may receive compensation by way of reckonable years of service under the conditions and within the limits laid down in the provisions implementing the Rules if he establishes that, by reason of having joined the Pension Scheme of the Organisation, he has been obliged to forfeit all or part of any pensions rights that may have accrued to him previously in his country of origin, without being able to obtain the actuarial equivalent of such rights.

Instructions

47/1 - Conditions of entitlement

The compensation referred to in Article 47 of the Rules shall be awarded if the staff member satisfies all the following conditions:

- i) that he has lost, in whole or in part, the pension rights corresponding to periods of service immediately preceding his appointment by the Organisation, or by another Organisation listed in Article 1.1 of the Rules in the case of a change from one of such Organisations to the present one;*
- ii) that the earlier pension scheme has not made a payment of the actuarial equivalent or of a capital commutation representing the full value of the aforesaid right, e.g. under Article 12.1 of the Rules;*
- iii) that the staff member pays over to the Organisation a fraction of any amounts he may receive from the earlier pension scheme, although not representing the full actuarial value of the rights lost; such fraction shall be calculated according to the ratio between the number of reckonable years lost and the number of reckonable years allotted as compensation under this Instruction;*
- iv) that, under the earlier scheme, it is impossible to retain the full benefit of previous rights, e.g. by contributing to such scheme on a voluntary basis or by way of secondment rather than resignation;*
- v) that he elects to be credited in full for all service with the Organisations listed in Article 1.1, in accordance with Articles 4, 5 and 44 of the Rules;*
- vi) that he continues to serve in the said Organisations until the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, save in case of death or loss of employment.*

47/2 - Calculation of compensation

Compensation by way of reckonable years of service shall be calculated by applying to the past reckonable years which have been recognised as lost the coefficients and maxima appearing in the annexed table, established by reference to age at the time of the appointment referred to in paragraph 1 i) above. Such compensation may not exceed:

- the number of years of actual service which it will be possible for the staff member to complete up to the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations;*
- half the number of years of service which, upon his attaining the age limit laid down in the Staff Regulations, would still have been required for him to complete 35 reckonable years of service.*

47/3 - Time limit for applying

Applications for compensation must be submitted before the end of the option period.

47/4 - Repayments of amounts received for previous rights

i) Any repayment due under Instruction 47/1 iii) must be made before the end of the option period or as soon as the relevant amounts are paid by the previous pensionscheme.

ii) If, instead of the actuarial equivalent of the previous pension rights, the staff member concerned has received any payments in satisfaction of such rights, he shall refund to the Organisation a fraction of such payments equal to the ratio between the number of reckonable years of service awarded as compensation under Article 47 of the Rules and the number of reckonable years which he has had to relinquish under the previous scheme.

Failing such repayment within two months of the payment made in satisfaction of such rights, or of the application for compensation, no compensation shall be awarded under Article 47 of the Rules.

iii) In the case of total or partial refusal to award the above compensation on the termination of service of a staff member, any amounts repaid under this Instruction shall be refunded to the staff member, where necessary in proportion to the compensation awarded.

Article 48 - Provident Fund

1. A staff member to whom this section of the Rules applies may opt to remain in the Organisation's Provident Fund Scheme instead of receiving the benefits provided for in these Rules, where his contractual situation requires that such an option be given to him.
2. In derogation of Article 5.1 ii), he shall thus irrevocably renounce the right to be credited with service prior to 1st July 1974 in one or more of the Organisations listed in Article 1.1.

Instruction

48/1 - Limited nature of the option

A staff member whose contract is terminated after he has chosen the option specified in Article 48 of the Rules and who, after leaving the Organisation, is then re-appointed by the same or another Co-ordinated Organisation, shall be subject to the Pension Scheme from the commencement of this new appointment.

Section 2 - STAFF WHOSE SERVICE TERMINATED BEFORE 1st JANUARY 1973

Article 49 - Scope

1. As a transitional measure, the provisions of these Rules shall, if so requested by them, apply to:
 - i) former staff members, with not less than ten years' service who left the Organisation at the age of sixty or more, and their widows, incapacitated widowers and orphaned children,
 - ii) the widows, incapacitated widowers and orphaned children of staff members who died while serving,
 - iii) staff members permanently incapacitated while serving, and their widows, incapacitated widowers and orphans, when the events referred to in i), ii) and iii) occurred before 1st January 1973.
2. These beneficiaries shall, however, refund to the Organisation responsible for payment of the benefits the Provident Fund holding due to the staff member at the time of his departure, death or recognition as unfit for service. This refund shall include non-reimbursed withdrawals under the conditions laid down in Article 44.3.

This refund shall be limited to the amount of contributions paid by the staff member and by the Organisation, plus compound interest at 4 per cent per annum, such refund shall be abated, where applicable, by an amount calculated by means of the following fraction:

 - Numerator: the difference between the age of the staff member on 1st January 1973 and his age at the time of departure, death or recognition as unfit for service.
 - Denominator: the difference between 80 and the age of the staff member at the time of departure, death or recognition as unfit for service.
3. The request referred to in paragraph 1 above must be made within the period referred to in Article 43.4 i), failing which the right to do so shall lapse. The benefits under this Article shall be granted with effect from 1st January 1973.
4. Benefits under this Article shall be calculated by reference to the staff member's grading when he left the service before 1st January 1973 but on the basis of the corresponding scales in force on 1st January 1973, subsequently adjusted in accordance with Article 36.
5. Staff to whom this Article applies shall not benefit under the provisions of Article 46.

Instructions

49/1 - Abatement showing a positive balance

When the abatement under Article 49.2 of the Rules is greater than 100 per cent, such excess shall not be paid to the beneficiary.

49/2 - Special case of staff members re-appointed in an auxiliary or temporary capacity

The abatement shall be calculated in a manner specified in Article 49.2 of the Rules if the former staff member concerned is granted a retirement pension with effect from 1st January 1973 in accordance with paragraph 3 of that Article.

49/3 - Procedure for refund of Provident Fund holdings

i) The amounts refundable under Article 49.2 of the Rules shall be calculated at 4 per cent per annum compound interest up to 1st January 1973; they shall then be abated as prescribed in Article 49.2 of the Rules. If the refunds actually made constitute only part of the above-mentioned amounts, the pension rights and minimum pensions shall be reduced proportionately, in accordance with the rule laid down in Article 44.3 of the Rules.

ii) The amounts referred to in the preceding paragraph may include, before any abatement is applied, withdrawals previously made by the staff member concerned from his Provident Fund holdings in order to maintain his rights under a national retirement pension scheme or to finance dealings in real estate. The refund of such withdrawals may be partial, in which case the pension rights and minimum pensions shall be reduced in accordance with the rule laid down in Article 44.3 of the Rules, in the ratio existing, after abatement, between the amounts partly refunded (Provident Fund plus withdrawals) and the same amounts were they to be refunded in full.

iii) The amounts payable for the crediting of past service thus determined shall be refunded at the time when payment of the corresponding pensions commences.

If the sums due in respect of arrears of pensions enduring at 1st January 1973, fall short of the amount to be paid for the crediting of past service, the balance remaining due must be paid by the staff member concerned as soon as the pensions are effectively paid, where necessary by deduction from holdings remaining in the Provident Fund, or failing this, in monthly instalments with interest at the interest rate of 4 per cent per annum from the commencement of actual payment of pension and within a maximum period of 12 months.

Section 3 - HARDSHIP ALLOWANCE

Article 50 - Hardship Allowance

1. As an exceptional measure, where a staff member governed by the transitional arrangements is - or the persons claiming under him are - unable to make the refunds required under Article 44 or Article 49, he - or they - may, if the Secretary-General considers this justified in the light of his - or their - overall income, be granted a hardship allowance. This allowance shall not exceed the amount of the minimum pension provided for in the Rules in respect of each category of beneficiary.

A hardship allowance may also be granted on grounds of low level of income to the widowers of female staff members who died before 1st January 1979. In this case any pension granted as the case may be to the children or other dependants shall be reduced to the amount laid down in Article 25.2.

2. The hardship allowance may only be granted as from the first day of the month following that in which the application is made, and in any event not earlier than 1st July 1974; it may not, however, be granted to a former staff member before he has reached the age of sixty, unless he is incapacitated.

3. Detailed application of this Article will be governed by the Instructions referred to in Article 52.

Instructions

50/1 - Other income taken into account

i) The Secretary-General of the Organisation shall decide, after consulting the Staff Association, unless the person concerned objects to such consultation, whether a hardship allowance is justified having regard to the impossibility of the staff member or those entitled under him to refunding the amounts referred to in Instructions 44 or 49, taking account of their income or assets in the form of capital or real estate which could be realised to make the refunds in question.

ii) In any event, the hardship allowance shall be reduced to the extent that the former staff member required to make refunds (or the persons entitled under him) is in receipt of taxable income exceeding the salary for Grade C 1, Step 1 for the country where he resides, or the last country in which he served if the country of residence is not a Member of one of the Co-ordinated Organisations mentioned in Article 1.1 of the Rules.

50/2 - References to the Pension Scheme Rules

The hardship allowance shall not constitute a right for a former staff member or for any other beneficiaries; subject to this proviso, the following provisions of the Pension Scheme Rules shall apply to it: Articles 3, 7, 9.2, 10.3, 14.3 and 14.4, 15, 16, 17.2, 18, 19.3 and 19.4, 21 (first sentence), 22.1, 23 to 29, 31, 33 to 40 and 42.

CHAPTER XIII - FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 51 – Co-ordination

1. These Rules must be applied in a uniform manner by the different Organisations listed in Article 1. To this end, the Secretaries/Directors-General of those Organisations shall consult among themselves in order to carry out the appropriate co-ordination.

Instructions

51.1/1 - Administrative Committee on Pensions

The Standing Committee of Secretaries-General has set up the Administrative Committee on Pensions of the Co-ordinated Organisations (CAPOC) so as to have at its disposal a body which can effectively ensure that the provisions of the Pension Scheme Rules are uniformly applied (document CCG/W(74)43 of 27 December 1974, paragraph 1).

51.1/2 - Forms

A standard form is used for determining the position regarding each staff member's reckonable years of service for pension purposes at a particular date, viz.:

- either on leaving the Organisation or on the assessment of a benefit; or*
- on changing from one Organisation to another.*

This form recapitulates the regulatory provisions to be consulted on such occasions.

Article 52 – Detailed implementation

1. Instructions for the implementation of these Rules shall be drawn up by the Secretary/Director-General of the Organisation.

Instruction

52.1 - Date of issue

The implementing Instructions shall be issued by the Secretary/Director-General on a proposal by the Committee of Representatives of the Secretaries-General (CRSG) of the Co-ordinated Organisations after consultation of the Committee of Staff Representatives (CRP).

They shall be updated periodically.

Article 53 – Entry into force

1. These Rules shall enter into force on 1st July 1974.

Instruction

53.1 - Date of entry into force of the Implementing Instructions

The implementing Instructions shall enter into force on the date as laid down by the Secretary/Director-General of the Organisation.

APPENDIX 2

ANNEX TO ARTICLE 41 -- ACTUARIAL STUDIES

Periodicity: At least every 5 years

Method

1. Calculation, as at the effective date of the study for all the organisations, of the rate of contribution payable by staff in order to finance one-third of benefits provided under the Scheme, establishing the present value of future entitlements and salaries.
2. Projections of annual amounts of future entitlements will be calculated, on the one hand, for the overall population of staff members at the date of the study and, on the other hand, for the population of staff members who will be recruited by the Co-ordinated Organisations in the years to come. Projections of salaries for these populations will also be established year by year. Each of these amounts will be discounted to present worth.
3. Combining these results will make it possible to determine the rate of contribution needed to finance one-third of benefits provided under the Scheme.

Demographic assumptions

4. The demographic assumptions are derived from detailed demographic studies for each of the Co-ordinated Organisations. These studies examine past experience over a period of fifteen years in tranches of five years so as to identify trends; they also take account of available forecasts regarding future numbers of staff.
5. The rates obtained are adjusted so as to eliminate distortions resulting from insufficient data in certain Organisations.

Economic assumptions

6. The discounting process is based on observed rates of return on long-term bonds issued in the reference countries, as from the date when they become a referencecountry.
7. A discount rate net of inflation shall be used. It shall be equal to the arithmetical average of average real rates observed over the thirty years preceding the date when the actuarial study is conducted.
8. The average real rate for a given past year is obtained from the real rates in each country, calculated as the quotient of the rate of gross return on bonds by the corresponding rate of inflation, as shown by the national consumer price index. The average is obtained by weighting the real rate in each country by the number of serving staff in that country at the effective date of the study.

Salary increase assumptions

9. The salary increase assumptions are derived for each organisation from an analysis of the past experience over a period of 15 years in tranches of five years so as to identify trends. They also take account of available forecasts in that respect.

NEW PENSION SCHEME (NPS)

CHAPTER I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 – Scope

1. The pension scheme established by these Rules, hereinafter referred to as the “New Pension Scheme” (NPS), applies to staff members who:

- took up duty on or after the 1st of January 2002;
- have never contributed to the Pension Scheme of the co-ordinated organisations set up by the adoption of the 94th Report of the CCG by the governing bodies of these Organisations; and
- hold indefinite term or definite or fixed-term appointments in the Organisation.

2. A staff member who, during his last appointment with a co-ordinated organisation, benefited from the provisions of Article 11 of the scheme set up by the adoption of the 94th Report of the CCG and who has not repaid the amounts provided for under that Article, shall be deemed to have relinquished entitlement to benefit from the said scheme and shall irrevocably be affiliated to the NPS.

3. The NPS shall not apply to other categories of personnel defined in the Organisation, such as Experts, Consultants, Temporary Staff, Auxiliary Staff, Employees and personnel hired under local labour legislation, etc.

4. In these Rules, the term “Organisation” refers to the OECD, the term “other Organisation” means any other co-ordinated organisation having adopted the NPS and the term “staff member” means the staff referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 above.

Last update: July 2024

Article 2 - Deferred entitlement

1. Where the medical examination which every staff member has to undergo as part of the appointment process (and the consequences of which will have duly been expounded to him before his appointment) shows him to be suffering from an illness or disablement, the Organisation may decide that, as regards risks arising from an illness or disablement existing before he took up his duties, the said staff member shall not be entitled to the invalidity or death benefits provided for in these Rules until the expiry of a period not exceeding five years from the date of his appointment. If a staff member leaves an organisation which has adopted the NPS and, within a period of not more than six months, enters the service of another organisation which has also adopted the NPS, the time spent in the service of the first organisation shall be deducted from the period of deferred entitlement.

Instructions

2.1/1 - Medical examination

The Organisation shall inform the staff member in writing of the application of a period of deferred entitlement and of its duration, which may be from one to sixty months. The Medical Consultant of the Organisation shall inform him in writing of the nature of the illness or disablement which justified the application of the deferment period.

2.1/2 - Definition of entitlements during the deferment period

i) If the staff member concerned leaves the Organisation during the deferment period, the leaving allowance shall be paid to him and the years of service completed during the deferment period shall be taken into account.

ii) In the event of either permanent total invalidity or death resulting from a cause which justified the deferment period in course:

- a) should such an event occur before the staff member has fulfilled the condition provided for in Article 7, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to a lump sum, calculated in accordance with the provisions of Article 11;*
- b) should such an event occur after the staff member has fulfilled the condition provided for in Article 7*
 - and if this condition was fulfilled during the deferment period, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to a lump sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of Article 11, in respect of the reckonable years of service credited within the meaning of Article 6;*
 - and if this condition was fulfilled prior to the deferment period, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to both a lump sum calculated in accordance with the provisions of Article 11, in respect of the reckonable years of service completed during the deferment period, and the benefits to which they would have been entitled before the staff member's appointment.*

Last update: May 2005

iii) In the event of either permanent total invalidity or death resulting from either an accident at work, or an illness or disablement other than that which justified the deferment period, and which occurred after commencement of duties, the staff member or the beneficiaries shall be entitled to the benefits provided by the Pension Scheme for such events.

Article 3 - Definition of salary

1. Unless otherwise specified, for the purposes of these Rules, salary shall be the monthly basic salary of the staff member, according to the scales in force in the Organisation at the time when the pension is assessed, and updated in accordance with the provisions of Article 36.

Article 4 - Definition of service conferring entitlement to benefits

1. Subject to the provisions of Articles 5 and 41, paragraph 1, entitlement to benefit under these Rules shall be determined by the total of the periods actually served in the Organisation or in another Organisation:
 - i) as a staff member;
 - ii) in any other capacity prior to appointment as a staff member, provided any periods so served were not separated by breaks of more than one year.

Last update: January 2005

2. In addition to the total of the periods of service thus calculated, a staff member may request, on termination of service, that periods of service corresponding to certain statutory indemnities be taken into account, in particular payment in lieu of notice, for loss of employment, and for leave not taken, under the provisions laid down by Instruction (*).
3. Periods of part-time service shall be taken into consideration in calculating entitlement to benefit under these Rules provided they correspond to at least half-time work as defined by the provisions laid down by Instruction.
4. The periods referred to in Article 16, paragraph 3 shall also be taken into consideration.
5. The period of affiliation to the pension scheme of an international organisation, and for which a staff member has benefited from an inward transfer of pension rights, shall be taken into account in calculating entitlement to benefit under these Rules, under the provisions laid down by Instruction.

Last update: September 2020

(*) Unless otherwise specified, the term "provisions laid down by Instruction" refers, throughout these Rules, to the implementation provisions in Article 44.

Instructions

4.1/1 - Service counting for entitlement

Service counting for entitlement shall consist of the following:

- i) any periods of service completed on behalf of a Co-ordinated Organisation by a staff member before the Staff Regulations or the Provident Scheme came into effect; such service must have been completed under an appointment issued by the Organisation or by the provisional Committee or Secretariat from which the Organisation emanated;*
- ii) any periods of service completed as a staff member;*
- iii) any periods of sick leave or temporary incapacity in respect of which benefits have been paid; the staff member concerned shall be required to have paid his personal contribution to the Pension Scheme as calculated on the amounts so received; such periods shall be counted without any reduction;*
- iv) any periods of unpaid leave, if such periods are not taken into account by a new employer for the purposes of a pension scheme; the crediting of periods of unpaid leave equal to or less than two months shall be dependent on payment, for these periods, of the staff member's personal contribution to the Pension Scheme; the crediting of periods of unpaid leave beyond two months and up to a maximum of the four months following, shall be dependent on payment by the staff member, for these periods, of a contribution equal to two and a half times his personal contribution to the Pension Scheme;*
- v) any periods of secondment by the Organisation, should the staff member be reinstated ; the detailed rules for the crediting of such periods shall be laid down in the regulations applicable to staff.*

Last update: September 2019

4.1/2 - Service completed in another capacity before appointment as a permanent staff member Periods of service referred to in Article 4.1 ii) may be taken into account in accordance with Article 5, paragraph 5, if the following conditions are fulfilled:

- i) such periods must have been prior to the appointment as a staff member of the Organisation or of another Organisation mentioned in Article 1.*
- ii) such service must have been completed in the full-time or at least half-time employment^() of the Organisation, or of another Organisation mentioned in Article 1.

Such employment must have been remunerated according to periods of time and not by the job or piece, being service performed on the premises and under the control and to the instructions of the Organisation, according to its hours of work.

The staff member must have received all his emoluments for the service mentioned in the above sub-paragraph directly from the Organisation.

iii) any such periods completed in the service of the same Organisation, or of more than one Organisation mentioned in Article 1, must not have been broken for more than 12 consecutive months.

iv) in accordance with the provisions of Instruction 6.2, periods so to be taken into account must be of a minimum of thirty days; periods of part-time work, equal to or more than half time, shall be taken into account as a proportion of full time. The periods thus validated must total at least 30 days of full time.

4.2 – Crediting of reckonable years of service corresponding to indemnities

A staff member may request, on cessation of work, the crediting of reckonable years of service corresponding to:

- i) compensatory payments in respect of leave not taken ;*
- ii) compensatory payments in lieu of notice;*
- iii) indemnity for loss of employment.*

Such reckonable years of service shall be credited subject to payment by the staff member of the personal contribution to the pension scheme or Provident Fund in respect of all these amounts and insofar as the periods on which the calculation was based are not taken into account by a new employer for the purposes of a pension scheme of a Co-ordinated Organisation.

Only reckonable years of service corresponding to periods below the statutory age limit may however be taken into account for the calculation of benefits provided for in these Rules.

Last update: November 2008

4.2 - Definition of half-time service

A staff member shall be considered as working half-time, within the meaning of Article 4, paragraph 3, when the number of his working hours, calculated on a monthly basis, is equal to half the number of full-time working hours.

4.2 - Recognition of the period of affiliation in the pension scheme of an international organisation

i) The period of affiliation to the pension scheme of an international organisation shall be recognised on the basis of the period certified by this scheme but shall not exceed the reckonable years of service credited pursuant to Article 12, paragraph 1.

ii) Such recognition shall become effective upon expiry of a five year period from the date of taking up duty as a staff member.

Last update: September 2020

Article 5 - Calculation of service conferring entitlement to benefits¹

1. Where staff members appointed by the Organisation have previously served with the Organisation or another Organisation², their entitlement to benefits under the terms of Article 4 shall be conditional upon their paying over to the Organisation which re-appoints them the amounts paid to them on leaving their previous service pursuant to Article 11 plus compound interest on such amounts at 4 % per annum from the date when the staff members received them until the date they are paid over in accordance with this paragraph. Should the staff members fail to pay over the amounts in question, reckonable service shall count only as from the new appointment.

2. Where staff members appointed by the Organisation were previously drawing a retirement pension in respect of service with another Organisation, payment of that pension shall cease.

If the staff members refund to the Organisation offering them a new appointment the pension payments they have received, the provisions of Article 4 shall apply on cessation of their new appointment.

If they do not make this refund, the years of service for which credit was acquired in the employment that originally entitled them to payment of the discontinued retirement pension shall be taken into account in the calculation of the retirement pension due on cessation of their new employment by reference to the salary for their last grading in such previous employment; moreover, that part of the final pension figure shall be abated by 5 per cent for each whole year during which the staff members drew the initial pension before the pensionable age applicable to them³.

3. Where a staff member ceases his functions at a grade and step lower than that which he had previously held in the Organisation or in another Organisation, his entitlement to benefits under these Rules shall be determined by taking into account the total of his reckonable years of service and the benefits shall be calculated on the basis of the salary for the highest grading held by him. However, a reduction shall be made in the number of years of service to be credited to him in respect of time served at a lower grade and step after having held the grade by reference to which benefits are calculated; this reduction shall be proportionate to the difference between the said gradings.

4. For the implementation of paragraphs 2 and 3 above, salaries shall be taken into account in accordance with the scales in force when the final pension assessment is made.

5. The crediting of the periods referred to in Article 4, paragraph 1 ii) shall be conditional on:

- i) the staff member submitting an application to that effect no later than six months after confirmation of his appointment as a staff member; the application shall specify the periods of service with which the staff member wishes to be credited;
- ii) the Organisation giving its agreement;
- iii) the staff member paying, for each month of service with which he is to be credited, the contribution provided for in Article 41, calculated on the basis of his first monthly salary upon affiliation to the scheme.

¹ Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall only apply inasmuch as another Organisation has adopted the NPS.

³ As defined in Staff Rule 17/2.1 bis.

Instructions

5.1 - Service completed as a staff member

i) Application for any service referred to in Article 5, paragraph 1 or paragraph 2, to be taken into account must be made no later than six months after confirmation of the new appointment.

ii) Where, pursuant to Article 11, the staff member received a leaving allowance at the end of his previous appointment, then pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 1, no partial crediting of such service shall be allowed; accordingly, the staff member concerned shall be required either to refund such leaving allowance in full or to forgo the right to have the corresponding service credited.

iii) Should the staff member fail to make a full refund immediately, he may be authorised to make such refund, at the latest, as from the expiry of the period referred to in sub-paragraph i) above, by monthly deductions of not less than 20 per cent of the basic monthly salary received at the time of beginning such refunds; compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum shall be applied to the amount outstanding, until the refund has been made in full.

iv) If at the date on which any benefit under the Pension Scheme is payable, such refunds have not been completed, the balance still due shall be repaid in its entirety through deduction from the benefits to be paid, including those payable to persons entitled under the staff member. The Organisation may authorise payment by instalments, in which case compound interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum shall be applied to the amount outstanding, until the refund has been made in full.

v) In the event of incapacity, death or termination of the service of the staff member concerned, any amount still remaining unpaid shall be set off against the capitalsums due to him or to the persons entitled under him, in accordance with the provisions of Instruction 38.1, and the balance still due shall be deducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph iv) above.

vi) In the event of the termination of his service without any payment of leaving allowance or pension, the staff member concerned may request time not exceeding twenty-four months in which to make up all or part of any refund then still outstanding, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph iv).

5.2 - Non-refund of previous pension payments

Example illustrating the application of Article 5, paragraph 2, last sub-paragraph:

(i) First pension paid from age 60 to 62: $\left(T' \times \frac{40}{100}\right)$ reduced pursuant to Article 8.4

(T' = salary used as basis of calculation)
(20 reckonable years of service at 2%)

(ii) Second period paid from age 62 to 66: $\left(T'' \times \frac{8}{100}\right)$

$(T'' = \text{salary used as a basis of calculation at age 66})$

Total Pension

i.e. $0.4T' - 0.04T' + 0.08T''$

(iii) In the final calculation of the total pension, the pension between brackets

has now been reduced pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 2, and not Article 8, paragraph 4; the pension as stated in (i) above is reduced to 90%.

5.3 - Termination of service at a lower grade

For the implementation of Article 5, paragraph 3 of the Rules, the calculation shall be made as illustrated below:

*(i) On previous termination of service (or at highest point in career before downgrading):
 10 years' service, grading on departure, A5/5 = theoretical final salary: $100 = T'$
 i.e. 10 years' reckonable service*

*(ii) On final termination of service:
 10 years served in second period, grading on departure, A4/5 = theoretical final salary: $75 = T''$ the reckonable service in respect of the second period will thus be reduced in the ratio:*

$$\frac{T''}{T'} = \frac{75}{100}$$

i.e. 7.5 reckonable years.

(iii) Total: $10 + 7.5 = 17.5$ years' reckonable service.

*(iv) Total pensions will be calculated on the basis of:
 $T' = 100 \times 17.5$ reckonable years of service.*

Last update: July 2024

5.4 - Crediting of service completed before appointment as a staff member

i) Application to be credited with service completed before appointment as a staff member must be made no later than six months after confirmation of the said appointment.

ii) Persons entitled under a deceased staff member may not apply in his place for service to which this Instruction applies to be credited.

iii) Service shall be credited subject to payment of the contribution referred to in Article 41 as calculated on the basis of the first monthly salary upon affiliation to the scheme and multiplied by the number of months of service in respect of which rights are credited, a pro rata deduction being made, where appropriate, for part-time service. First monthly salary here means the salary corresponding to full-time employment in the grade and step of the staff member, whether he be recruited on a full-time or a part-time basis. Such payment may be made by instalments in the form of monthly deductions from emoluments, commencing not later than the end of the relevant period referred to in sub-paragraph i) above and spread over a period not exceeding the duration of the previous service so credited.

Interest at 4 per cent per annum shall be due in respect of any part of the payments which is deferred beyond such period at the request of the staff member.

If, at the date on which any benefit under the NPS is awarded, such payments have not been completed, the balance still due shall be deducted from the benefits to be paid, where necessary by instalments.

iv) On making his application to credit such service as aforesaid, the staff member shall be required to consent to the Organisation's having first claim on any capital sums payable in the event of his death or invalidity or of the termination of his service, to the extent of any amounts then still outstanding in respect of crediting such service.

v) In the event of the termination of his service, the staff member or persons entitled under him may request time not exceeding twelve months in which to make up any amount then still outstanding, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraphs iii) and iv) above.

Article 6 - Reckonable years of service

1. The benefits provided for under these Rules shall be calculated by reference to reckonable years of service consisting of:

- i) service calculated in accordance with Articles 4 and 5;
- ii) service credited in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 1.

2. Incomplete years of reckonable service shall be taken into account on the basis of one-twelfth of a year for each whole month of service. For benefit calculation purposes the period remaining shall be treated as a whole month if it is equal to or more than 15 days.

However, the period remaining shall not be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the 10 years' service required for entitlement to the retirement pension provided for in Article 7.

3. In the case of part-time work:

- i) reckonable years of service shall be calculated in accordance with the ratio between the working hours corresponding to part-time service and the official number of hours for full-time work in the Organisation;

- ii) however, reckonable years of service shall not be reduced when the staff member authorised to work part-time has contributed to the NPS on the basis of full-time work, by paying, in addition to his personal contribution to the NPS for the part corresponding to his part-time work, a contribution equal to two and a half times the rate of contribution mentioned in Article 41, paragraph 3, on the difference in salary between his part-time work and the corresponding full-time work, under the provisions laid down by Instruction.

Instructions

6.2 - Fractions of a month

Any fraction of less than thirty days remaining after aggregating periods of service shall be treated as a whole month if it is equal to or more than fifteen days and disregarded if it is less than fifteen days.

6.3 – Non reduction of reckonable years of service

A staff member authorised to work part-time may request to contribute to the NPS on the basis of full-time work, provided that these periods are not taken into account by another employer for the purposes of a pension scheme and the amount of the supplementary contribution referred to in Article 6, paragraph 3 ii) is paid in accordance with the provisions of Article 41, paragraph 2. The staff member should make his request not later than the eighth day following the beginning of the period for which he is authorised to work part-time. This request shall be final, unless an exceptional derogation is granted by the Secretary / Director General upon receipt of a duly justified request from the staff member.

Article 6bis -Part-time service - effects on the calculation of entitlement

1. Where at the time of termination of his service an official was working part-time, the salary taken into account in calculating his pension entitlement shall be that payable for full-time work at his grade and step as provided in these Rules.
2. However, when an official terminating his service in the circumstances described in paragraph 1 above had been recruited to serve on a part-time basis, or authorised to work part-time for an indefinite period or for a fixed-term renewable by tacit agreement and if the provisions of Article 6, paragraph 3 ii) are not applied, the rate of the invalidity pension provided for in Article 14, paragraph 2, and the minimum and maximum amounts that apply, shall be set in accordance with the provisions laid down by Instruction.

Instructions

6 bis.2/1 - Benefit payable to a staff member who has only worked part time

i) For the purposes of calculating the benefit payable under Article 6 bis, paragraph 2, to a staff member who has only worked part time, the following shall be reduced by an amount corresponding to the ratio between the number of hours actually worked and the official number of hours for full-time work:

(a) the maximum rate of retirement pension provided for under Article 10, paragraph 2 and the maximum amount of retirement pension provided for under Article 10, paragraph 3;

(b) the rate of invalidity pension under Article 14, paragraph 2, and the minimum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4;

(c) the maximum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4, and the salary referred to in Article 15;

(d) the minimum amounts of survivor's pension provided for under Article 19, paragraph 3;

(e) the amount of the reversion pension provided for under Article 19, paragraphs 4 and 5

(f) the minimum amounts of orphan's pension provided for the first beneficiary under Article 24, paragraphs 3 and 4, as well as the increases provided for under Article 24, paragraphs 3 and 4, for orphans in respect of the second and every further beneficiary;

(g) the amount of the dependant's pension provided for under Article 25, paragraph 2;

(h) the ceiling for benefits payable to survivors and orphans as defined in Article 29.

ii) However, when a staff member was recruited by the Organisation for part-time service, after having worked full time for one of the Organisations referred to in Article 1, paragraph 4, he shall be subject to the provisions of Instruction 6bis.2/2 provided he pays over, if appropriate, the sums specified in Article 5, paragraph 1 or Article 5, paragraph 2, as the case may be.

6 bis.2/2 - Benefit payable to a staff member who, at the time of termination of his service, is working part time for an indefinite period or for a fixed period renewable by tacit agreement, having previously worked full time

i) For the purposes of calculating the benefit payable under Article 6bis, paragraph 2 to a staff member authorised to work part time for an indefinite period or for a fixed period renewable by tacit agreement, the following shall be reduced in accordance with the ratio between the number of hours actually worked and the official number of hours for full-time work:

(a) the rate of invalidity pension under Article 14, paragraph 2, as well as the minimum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4, and, for those periods of part-time service, the maximum amount of invalidity pension provided for under Article 14, paragraph 4;

(b) the minimum amounts of survivor's pension provided for under Article 19, paragraph 3;

(c) the amount of the reversion pension provided for under Article 19, paragraphs 4 and 5;

(e) the amount of the dependant's pension provided for under Article 25, paragraph 2.

ii) However, when a staff member fulfils the conditions laid down in Article 7 at the date from which he is authorised to work part time for an indefinite period or for a fixed period renewable by tacit agreement, the benefit resulting from application of the provisions of sub-paragraph i) above, may not be less than that to which he or his authorised representatives would have been entitled had he ceased working for the Organisation at that date for a reason other than invalidity or death.

CHAPTER II - RETIREMENT PENSION AND LEAVING ALLOWANCE

Section 1 - RETIREMENT PENSION

Article 7 - Conditions of entitlement

1. A staff member who has completed ten or more years' service, within the meaning of Article 4, in the Organisation and, where applicable, in other Organisations, shall be entitled to a retirement pension.

2. For the implementation of the condition of length of service referred to in paragraph 1 above, periods of service in respect of which contributions to the Defined Benefit Funded Pension Scheme of the ECMWF or the Third Pension Scheme of the Council of Europe have been paid and for which the staff member has benefited from an inward transfer of pension rights, under the provisions laid down in Article 12, paragraph 1 and its implementing instructions, shall also be taken into account.

Instructions

7.1/1 - Service for the purposes of Article 4

For the purposes of Article 4, service as a staff member in one or more of the Organisations referred to in Article 1, paragraph 4, shall be:

- periods served in respect of which the staff member's contributions to the NPS have been paid in accordance with Article 5, paragraphs 1 and 5;*
- periods referred to in Article 16, paragraph 3, in accordance with Article 4, paragraph 4.*

7.1/2 - Part-time service

Without prejudice to Article 6, paragraph 3 i), periods of part-time service shall be considered periods of full-time service within the meaning of Article 7.

Article 8 - Age of entitlement, deferred or early pension

1. A staff member shall become eligible for a retirement pension at the age laid down by the Organisation.¹

2. Pension rights shall continue to accrue to staff members continuing to be employed after pensionable age, but their pension shall not exceed the maximum amount laid down in Article 10, paragraph 2.

3. Where staff members cease their functions before reaching the pensionable age applicable to them, payment of their retirement pension shall be deferred until they reach that age.

4. However, staff members may request early payment of their pension before they reach the pensionable age applicable to them, as detailed below:

- staff members appointed on or after 1st July 2024 may request early payment of their pension as from age 60;
- - staff members appointed prior to 1st July 2024 may request early payment of their pension as from the applicable age corresponding to their situation at 1st July 2024, as set out in the table below:

		Minimum age for drawing an early pension
		>0 and <5 years of service	≥5 and <10 years of service	10 or more years of service
Length of Service on 1 July 2024	Age on 1 July 2024

	50 – 57	51	51	51
	40 – 49	55	54	53
	<40	60	57	55

When staff members request early payment of their pension, the amount of their retirement pension shall be affected by reduction coefficients. This reduced amount shall correspond to a proportion of the pension the staff members would have received had their pension been assessed on the applicable pensionable age, as determined in the table below:

An actuarial study of the reduction coefficients used in this table, based in particular on the relevant data from the study provided for in Article 41 on the contribution rate of staff members, shall be carried out at the same intervals as this latter study.

5. Where the Organisation terminates the appointment of staff members, the reduction coefficient applicable to early payment of their pension shall be 3% a year between the age of 60 and the pensionable age applicable to them. However, this provision does not apply when the Organisation terminated the appointment as a result of disciplinary action or for unsatisfactory service.

Instruction

8.4 - Method of reducing pension - Early pension

i) Early retirement pension shall be calculated as follows:

- if the pension that would be due with no reduction at the applicable pensionable age is lower than the minimum rate prescribed in Article 10, paragraph 3, it shall be brought up to that minimum rate and the reduction provided for in Article 8, paragraphs 4 and 5, shall then be applied to it;

- if the pension that would be due with no reduction at the applicable pensionable age is higher than the aforesaid minimum rate, the reduction shall be applied to it even if the result is lower than that minimum.

ii) The reductions provided for in Article 8, paragraphs 4 and 5, shall be applied by reference to whole years, no account being taken of months.

iii) Family allowances shall be paid and calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Instructions of Articles 28 and 28bis.

iv) Staff members whose service has ceased before they have reached the pensionable age applicable to them may request an early pension under the conditions laid down in Article 8 and in this Instruction. Such requests must be in writing and dated.

v) Subject to the provisions of Article 5, paragraph 2, payments shall begin, irrevocably, on the first of the month following the date on which the request was made.

Last update: July 2024

Article 9 - Commencement and cessation of entitlement

1. Entitlement to payment of a retirement pension shall commence on the first day of the month following that in which the person concerned became eligible for payment of the pension and requested it. Except in cases of force majeure, such request shall not have a retroactive effect.

2. Entitlement shall cease at the end of the month in which the pensioner dies.

Article 10 - Rate of pension

1. The amount of the retirement pension shall be, per reckonable year of service within the meaning of Article 6, 2 % of the salary corresponding to the last grade held by the staff member for not less than one year before cessation of his appointment and the last step held in that grade.

2. The maximum rate of the pension shall be 70 % of this salary, subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 below.

3. The amount of the retirement pension shall not be less than 4 % of the salary for grade C1, step 1, per reckonable year of service credited pursuant to Article 6; it may not, however, exceed the staff member's last salary as defined in Article 3.

Instructions

10.3/1 - Part-time service

The minimum rate of the retirement pension shall be calculated on reckonable years' service, to be taken into account where applicable in fractions corresponding to any part-time service in accordance with Article 6, paragraph 3 i); this minimum shall therefore be equal to 4% of the salary for grade C1, step 1, per reckonable year of service thus credited.

10.3/2 – Termination of service at a lower grade

In cases where Article 5, paragraph 3 is applied, the minimum rate of the retirement pension shall be equal to 4% of the salary for grade C1, step 1, per reckonable year of service, without any reduction.

Section 2 - LEAVING ALLOWANCE

Article 11 - Leaving allowance

1. A staff member whose service ceases otherwise than by reason of death or invalidity and who is not entitled to a retirement pension nor to the benefit of the provisions of Article 12, paragraph 2, shall be entitled on leaving to payment of an amount equal to 2.25 times his rate of contribution as applied to his last annual salary, multiplied by the number of reckonable years of service credited within the meaning of Article 6, paragraph 1, i)*.
2. The reckonable years of service credited in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 1 shall not be taken into account for the calculation of the leaving allowance but shall give rise to the payment of an actuarial equivalent calculated in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 2, unless the amounts initially transferred are refunded to the pension scheme concerned.
3. A staff member who is re-appointed by the Organisation after having received a leaving allowance must pay it back if the period during which he was not employed by the Organisation, in whatever capacity, is less than 12 months.

Instructions

11.1/1 - Last annual salary

“Last annual salary” shall be construed to mean the salary, as defined in Article 3, corresponding to the official’s last grade and step, according to the scales in force at the time his service terminates, multiplied by twelve.

11.1/2 – Rate of contribution

In the case the rate of contribution is reviewed over the periods of service for which contributions to the pension scheme were paid pursuant to Article 4, the coefficient of 2.25 mentioned in Article 11.1 is applied to the successive contribution rates, prorata temporis.

Last update: December 2009

11.1/3 - Staff member whose service terminates at the end of a period of unpaid leave

When final termination of service occurs at the end of a period of unpaid leave during which no contributions were made to the NPS, the amounts stipulated in Article 11 shall, notwithstanding Instruction 11.1/1, be calculated on the basis of rights acquired and salary at the date of commencement of that period, without any subsequent adjustment or interest.

Last update: November 2006

11.1 – Compulsory repayment of the leaving allowance

A staff member who has received a leaving allowance as provided in Article 11, paragraph 1, but whose service has not terminated according to Article 11, paragraph 3, shall repay the whole leaving allowance received upon his previous appointment, in accordance with the provisions laid down in instruction 5.1 sub-paragraphs iv) to vi). The time limit for application set out in instruction 5.1 i) shall not apply.

Article 12 - Inward and outward transfer of pension rights

1. A staff member who enters the service of the Organisation after leaving the service of a government administration or national organisation, or international organisation not referred to in Article 1, paragraph 4, or a firm, may arrange for payment to the Organisation in accordance with the provisions laid down by Instruction, of any amounts corresponding to the retirement pension rights accrued under the pension scheme to which he was previously affiliated and under any international organisation pension scheme to which he had been affiliated in so far as those schemes allow such transfers.

In such cases, the Organisation shall determine, by reference to the provisions laid down by Instruction, the number of years of reckonable service with which he shall be credited under the present scheme.

2. A staff member who leaves the service of the Organisation to enter the service of a government administration or national organisation, or international organisation, not referred to in Article 1, paragraph 4, which has entered into an agreement (*) with the Organisation, shall be entitled to transfer to the pension fund of that administration or organisation:

- either the actuarial equivalent of his retirement pension rights accrued under these Rules, such equivalent being calculated in accordance with the provisions laid down by Instruction;
- or, in the absence of such rights, the amounts provided under Article 11.

Instructions

12.1 - Inward transfer of previously accrued rights

i) Previous periods of affiliation to a pension scheme

a) Reckonable years of service shall be credited pursuant to Article 12, paragraph 1, subject to the conditions set out in this Instruction, in respect of a period of affiliation to the last pension scheme prior to appointment in the Organisation or to any pension scheme of an international organisation, in so far as those schemes allow such a transfer. Such affiliation may cover periods served in several administrations, organisations or firms, on condition that all these rights have been taken into account by the pension scheme of the last administration, organisation or firm before appointment in the Organisation.

b) An amount shall be taken into account under this Instruction only if it has been certified by the previous pension scheme as being the amount of the actuarial equivalent of retirement pension rights or a capital payment in respect of rights to a pension or rights under a provident scheme (excluding compensation for dismissal or a leaving gratuity), and it must represent the total amounts paid to the staff member by the previous pension scheme in question. The "total amounts paid" shall be taken to mean the amounts representing the total rights transferable to the Organisation. Staff members shall not be entitled to transfer only part of their accrued rights where that part is not equal to the transferable maximum.

ii) Amounts taken into account

For the purpose of calculating the reckonable years of service credited under Article 12, paragraph 1, the amounts indicated in sub-paragraph i)

b) above shall be taken into account, as calculated by the previous pension scheme - as a capital sum, and with interest where applicable - as at the date on which they are paid to the Organisation¹; any conversion into the currency of the salary paid by the Organisation shall be made at the rate of exchange in force on that date.

iii) Calculation of reckonable years of service

The number of reckonable years of service to be credited under Article 12, paragraph 1, shall be calculated on the basis of the table annexed to this Instruction, by dividing the amounts taken into account under sub-paragraph ii) above by the coefficient corresponding to the age of the staff member as at the date of payments of the amounts, and then by dividing the resultant amount by the theoretical value of a reckonable year of service (2% of the annual basic salary), established on the basis of the salary corresponding to the staff member's grade and step as at the date of payment of the amounts.

¹ The accrued rights are invariably rights which are not yet due or the actuarial equivalent thereof.

iv) Maximum number of reckonable years of service

Taking such reckonable years of service into account shall not have the effect of bringing the total pension up to more than the maximum rates prescribed in Article 10.

v) Time limits for application and revocation

Failing any special provisions in a reciprocal transfer agreement entered into by the Organisation, application for the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph ii) above to be taken into account by the Organisation shall be made in writing:

a) either within 6 months from the date of notification of confirmation of appointment after the probationary period;

b) or within twelve months from the date on which the previous pension scheme allowed such transfers.

The application to transfer pension rights may be revoked by the staff member at any time before the payments provided for in sub-paragraph ii) above have been made in accordance with sub-paragraph vi) below.

The application to transfer pension rights shall be null and void if the payments provided for in sub-paragraph ii) above have not been made at the time of the staff member's termination of service.

vi) Time limit for payment

Payment of the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph ii) above shall be made:

- within three months after the expiry of the time limit prescribed in sub-paragraph v) above, if the person concerned has actually received such amounts from his previous employer;

- on receipt of such amounts from the previous employer in other cases.

Payment to the Organisation shall be made in the currency -or its equivalent value at the rate of exchange in force on the date of actual payment to the Organisation -in which the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph ii) above have been or will effectively be paid by the previous pension scheme.

Last update: November 2010

12.2. - Transfer of pension rights to an outside scheme

vii) Time limit for application

a) Application for transfer of pension rights under Article 12, paragraph 2 must be made by the staff member to the Organisation in which his service has terminated, within six months after his definitive appointment by the new administration or organisation referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2.

b) If the Organisation is unable to conclude with the new administration or organisation referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2, an agreement for such transfer on terms which it considers satisfactory, it shall confine itself to making immediate payment of the amounts referred to in Article 11, paragraph 1, or to immediate or deferred payment of a retirement pension.

viii) Conditions as to transfer

The amounts referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2 may be transferred only to the pension fund of the administration or organisation referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2, that is to say, to the statutory or contractual pension scheme in force in that administration or organisation.

ix) Calculation of amounts to be transferred

The actuarial equivalent of the retirement pension rights referred to in Article 12, paragraph 2 shall be calculated on the basis of the table annexed to this Instruction, the annual pension acquired in the Organisation (2% of the annual basic salary per reckonable year of service), established on the basis of the salary scale in force at the date on which the staff member ceases his functions - being multiplied by the coefficient corresponding to the age of the staff member at that date.

CHAPTER III - INVALIDITY PENSION

Article 13 - Conditions of entitlement - Invalidity Board

1. Subject to the provisions of Article 2, an invalidity pension shall be payable to staff members who are under the age limit applicable to them, as laid down in the Staff Regulations and who, at any time during the period in which pension rights are accruing to them, are recognised by the Invalidity Board defined below to be suffering from permanent invalidity which totally prevents them from performing their functions or other functions corresponding to their experience and qualifications which may have been proposed to them by the Organisation.

2. The Invalidity Board shall consist of three medical practitioners, the first two being appointed by the Organisation and the staff member, respectively, and the third one selected jointly by the first two. Cases shall be submitted to it by the Organisation either on its own initiative or at the request of the staff member concerned.

Last update: January 2025

Instructions

13/1 - Period of non-activity

i) The invalidity pension shall not be payable if it results from an illness or accident occurring during unpaid leave or a period of non-active status which did not give rise to contributions to the NPS (leave for personal reasons, military service).

ii) On the other hand, it shall be payable if the events mentioned above occur during a period of non-active status which follows a period of sick leave, and during which the staff member is in receipt of an allowance for temporary incapacity; in such event, he shall continue to pay contributions to the NPS in accordance with Instruction 4.1/1 ii). The same shall apply to any periods of unpaid leave provided for under Instruction 4.1/1 iii).

Last update: November 2006

13/2 - Invalidity Board

Tasks of the Invalidity Board

i) Subject to the provisions of Article 2, the tasks of the Invalidity Board are:

a) to ascertain whether a staff member is suffering from invalidity within the meaning of Article 13, paragraph 1.

b) when an incident is recognised by the Organisation as falling within the scope of Article 14, paragraph 2 (work accident, occupational disease or public-spirited act), to decide to what extent the staff member's invalidity is the result thereof ;

c) to decide whether, following an examination under Article 16, the former staff member no longer fulfils the conditions for entitlement to an invalidity pension.

Secretariat of the Invalidity Board

ii) The Organisation shall appoint a staff member as secretary of the Invalidity Board. Secretariat services may also be provided by the Organisation's medical adviser, who shall be given any administrative assistance he requires.

Convocation and composition of the Invalidity Board

iii) When the Invalidity Board is to be convened at the staff member's request, the request shall be addressed to the Head of Personnel () responsible for him : it must include his formal application to be declared a permanent total invalid, and give the name of the medical practitioner who is to represent his interests on the Invalidity Board. The request may be accompanied by a medical file, under separate confidential cover, for the attention of the Organisation's medical adviser.*

Upon receipt of this request the Head of Personnel shall forward it to the Organisation's medical adviser with a request to contact the medical practitioner nominated by the staff member. The staff member must ask his medical practitioner to forward to the Organisation's medical adviser all medical evidence in support of his application.

Within 30 calendar days following receipt of the staff member's request, the Head of Personnel shall inform the medical practitioner nominated by the staff member of the name of the medical practitioner who will represent the Organisation on the Invalidity Board.

Article 18 - Conditions of entitlement

1. The surviving spouse* of a staff member who died in service shall be entitled to a survivor's pension, provided they had been married to each other for at least one year at the time of the staff member's death, unless the death resulted either from disablement or illness contracted in the performance of his duties, or from an accident.

2. A reversion pension shall be payable to the surviving spouse:

i) of a former staff member drawing an invalidity pension, if they were married to each other for at least one year at the time of his being recognised an invalid; this condition of anteriority shall not apply if the marriage had existed for at least five years at the time of his death, or if the death resulted either from disablement or illness contracted in the performance of his duties, or from an accident;

ii) of a former staff member drawing a retirement pension, if they had been married to each other for at least one year at the time when the former staff member's appointment ceased; this condition of anteriority shall not apply if the marriage had existed for at least five years at the time of the former staff member's death; or

iii) of a former staff member entitled to a deferred pension, if they had been married to each other for at least one year at the time when the former staff member's appointment ceased; this condition of anteriority shall not apply if the marriage had existed for at least five years at the time of his death.

3. The above-prescribed conditions of anteriority or minimum duration of marriage shall not apply where there are one or more children of the marriage or of a marriage of the staff member contracted prior to the cessation of his appointment, inasmuch as the non-remarried surviving spouse is providing for their needs; in such case, the survivor's or reversion pension shall be payable under the derogation provided for in the present paragraph, for so long as the children are actually being so provided for.

When they are no longer being so provided for, the survivor's or reversion pension shall nonetheless continue to be payable for so long as the surviving spouse does not have an income of his own from the exercise of any occupation, or from any retirement pension or other survivor's or reversion pension, equal to at least the amount of the survivor's or reversion pension from the Organisation.

1. The survivor's pension shall be 60 % of the retirement pension that would have been payable to the staff member, had he not died in service, on the basis of his reckonable years of service credited up to the time of his death, the requirement for a minimum of ten years of service under the provisions of Article 7 not being applicable.

2. Where a staff member has died as the result of an accident in the course of the performance of his duties, from an occupational disease, from a public-spirited act or from risking his life to save another human being, the survivor's pension shall be 60 per cent of the invalidity pension to which the staff member would have been entitled, had he survived, under Article 14, paragraph 2.

5. When former staff members were not receiving a pension at the time of their death, the amount of the reversion pension shall correspond to the highest of the following amounts:

Article 20 - Reduction for difference in age

1. Where the difference in age between the deceased staff member or former staff member and his younger surviving spouse and/or former spouse, minus the length of time they have been married, is more than ten years, the survivor's or reversion pension, calculated in accordance with the preceding provisions, shall be subject to a reduction, per year of difference, amounting to:

- 1 % for the years between ten and twenty;
- 2 % for the years twenty up to but not including twenty-five;
- 3 % for the years twenty-five up to but not including thirty;
- 4 % for the years thirty up to but not including thirty-five;
- 5 % for the years from thirty-five upwards.

Instruction

20.1 – Calculation of the reduction for difference in age

The result in years of the difference in age between the deceased staff member or former staff member and his younger surviving spouse and/or former spouse, less the length of time they have been married, shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

The initial 1 % reduction shall apply for a period of 9 years following 10 complete years, i.e. from the eleventh to the nineteenth year inclusive, as illustrated in the example below:

Difference in age: 29 years and 6 months;

Length of marriage: 8 years and 7 months;

Duration taken into account for the calculation of the reduction: 20 years and 11 months, rounded down to 20 years.

Calculation of the reduction:

1 % for the years between 10 and 20 = 9 x 1 % = 9 % ;

2% for the years 20 up to but not including 25 = $1 \times 2\% = 2\%$;
Reduction = $9\% + 2\% = 11\%$.

This entitlement shall not arise if the former spouse remarried before the staff member or former staff member died. If remarriage takes place after the staff member's or former staff member's death and while the conditions laid down in the sub-paragraph above are still fulfilled, the provisions of Article 21 shall apply.

2. Where a staff member or former staff member dies leaving both a spouse entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension and a non-remarried former spouse fulfilling the conditions laid down in paragraph 1 above, the whole of the survivor's or reversion pension shall be divided between the before-mentioned persons in proportion to the duration of their marriages.

The amount to which a non-remarried former spouse is entitled shall however not be more than the amount of the maintenance or compensation payable at the time of the death of the staff member or former staff member.

3. Where one of the persons entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension renounces his share, ceases to satisfy the conditions for entitlement or forfeits his rights under Article 35, or where the amount of his pension has been restricted under the terms of the second sub-paragraph of paragraph 2 above, his share shall accrue to the share of the other person, except where pension rights revert to orphans, as provided under Article 24, paragraph 3, last sub-paragraph. In such a case, the restriction laid down in the second sub- paragraph 2 above shall apply.

27.1/1 – Coexistence of beneficiaries, without children or dependants, entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension on the one hand, and of orphans and/or dependants on the other, belonging to different family groups

i) In this case, the total pension referred to in Article 27, paragraph 1 shall be calculated as if all beneficiaries of the deceased staff member or former staff member formed part of a single family group. This total pension shall comprise:

- a survivor's or reversion pension as would be payable to a surviving spouse of the deceased staff member or former staff member in accordance with Article 19 only;

- orphans' pensions calculated as if all orphans of the deceased staff member or former staff member belonged to the family group entitled to the survivor's or reversion pension mentioned above;

- dependants' pensions calculated theoretically as orphans' pensions before application of the provisions of Article 25, paragraph 2.

In accordance with Article 24, paragraph 3 ii), only one minimum orphan's pension (50% of C1/1) shall be taken into account in this calculation.

ii) The total pension shall be apportioned among:

- the surviving spouse or non-remarried former spouse(s) and

iii) If the amounts so apportioned exceed the pensions to which the beneficiaries would have been entitled if they had been considered separately, including, for dependants' pensions, after application of Article 25, any such excess amounts shall not be payable.

iv) The minimum amounts laid down for survivors' and reversion pensions and for orphans' and/or dependants' pensions shall no longer apply to the shares actually attributed.

27.1/2 – Coexistence of beneficiaries entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension with children and/or dependants on the one hand, and of orphans and/or dependants belonging to another family group on the other.

i) In this case, the total pension, calculated in accordance with Instruction 27.1/1 i), shall be apportioned among:

in proportion to the amounts which would have been payable directly to each of these family groups considered separately, after application of Articles 20 and 22 for the survivor's or reversion pension, Article 24 for orphans' pensions, and Article 25 for dependants' pensions.

ii) Within the group consisting of a surviving spouse or former spouse(s) and orphans and/or dependants, the share going to that group shall be apportioned, for the purpose of calculating the individual entitlement of each member as mentioned above, in proportion to the survivor's or reversion pension on the one hand, and the orphans' and/or dependants' pensions on the other.

iii) If the amounts so apportioned exceed the pensions to which the beneficiaries would have been entitled if they had been considered separately, including after application of Article 25, any such excess amounts shall not be payable.

iv) The minimum amounts laid down for survivors' and reversion pensions and for orphans' and/or dependants' pensions shall no longer apply to the shares actually attributed.

27.2/1 – Coexistence of beneficiaries entitled to orphans' and/or dependants' pensions belonging to different family groups

Before apportionment, dependants shall be treated in theory as orphans. This total pension shall comprise:

- a single orphan's pension calculated, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of Article 24, paragraph 3 i) if there are one or more persons entitled to a survivor's or reversion pension, or of Article 24, paragraph 4 i) where there are no such persons;

ii) This total pension shall be apportioned among the different family groups in proportion to the pensions which would have been payable directly to each of these family groups considered separately.

iii) Within each family group, the share going to that group shall be divided equally among the beneficiaries before application of Article 25, where applicable.

36.1/4 – Special adjustment in the event of price evolution of at least 6% during the year

Whenever the 6 % inflation threshold is exceeded, the special adjustment applied to pensions shall be equal to the change in consumer prices between the month in which the previous adjustment took effect and the month in which the special adjustment threshold is exceeded. Any special adjustment shall take effect in the month following the month in which the threshold was exceeded. The monitoring of consumer price trends shall then be reset, taking the consumer price index of the month during which the high inflation threshold was reached as the basis to further monitor inflation until the next special or annual adjustment.

36.1/5 – Procedure for granting the special adjustment

Any special adjustment is granted provisionally until PACCO's issuance of a technical opinion recommending, where applicable, the definitive granting of this special adjustment

Article 38 - Sums owed to the organisation

1. Any sum owed by a staff member, former staff member or pensioner to the Organisation which pays the pension at the date when the benefits are payable under these Rules shall be deducted from the amount of these benefits or from the benefits payable to those entitled under him. The deduction may be spread over a period.

Instruction

38.1 - Buying back rights - Credit for past service

Any amounts remaining due on the death, recognition of invalidity or termination of service of a staff member, in respect of pension rights bought back under Article 5, shall constitute a debt owed to the Organisation by the staff member or the persons entitled under him or the estate.

Payment to the Organisation of any amounts thus owing shall be made pursuant to the special condition agreed to by the staff member at the time of his application to buy back or to be credited with pension rights; this condition shall give the Organisation a preferential right to deduct such amounts from the capital sums due at the time of death or recognition of invalidity, or of termination of service, where appropriate, under the conditions provided for in Instructions 5.1 and 5.4

1. Where a staff member's invalidity or death is attributable to a third party, the award of the benefits provided for in these Rules shall in principle be made subject to the beneficiary assigning to the Organisation his claims against such third party, up to the amount of such benefits.

2. However, the Organisation may waive its right to take action pursuant to such subrogation against the third party concerned where special circumstances justify such a waiver.

CHAPTER X - FINANCING THE PENSION SCHEME

2. The Member States of the Organisation jointly guarantee the payment of the benefits.
3. In the event of a merger, reconstitution or other transformation or in the event of dissolution of the Organisation, the Council or any ad hoc body set up, where required in one of the aforementioned cases, shall take the necessary measures to ensure uninterrupted payment of the Pension Scheme benefits until the cessation of entitlement of the last beneficiary.
4. Should a country, being a Member or ex-Member of the Organisation, fail to comply with its obligations under this Article, the other countries shall meet the cost thereof in proportion to their contribution to the budget of the Organisation as fixed annually from and after the said country's default

Article 41 - Staff member's contribution - costing the scheme

1. Staff members shall contribute to the NPS.
2. The staff members' contribution shall be calculated as a percentage of their salaries and shall be deducted monthly.
3. The rate of the staff contribution shall be set so as to represent the cost, in the long term, of 40% of the benefits provided under these Rules. The rate shall be 13.2%. This rate shall be reviewed every five years on the basis of an actuarial study, the procedures for which are appended hereto. The staff contribution rate shall be adjusted, with effect from the fifth anniversary of the preceding quinquennial adjustment, the rate being rounded to the nearest first decimal.
Notwithstanding the above, the Council may adopt intermediary adjustments of the contribution rate if and when:
 - i) the Council decided to change the target return on assets of the Pension Budget and Reserve Fund of the Organisation (PBRF); or
 - ii) based on an annual review of the NPS assets and liability values, it appears that the officials' contribution rate would fluctuate by at least 0.5 percentage points since the last adjustment.
4. Contributions properly deducted shall not be recoverable. Contributions improperly deducted shall confer no rights to pension benefits; they shall be refunded at the request of the staff member concerned or those entitled under them without interest.

Instructions

41.1/1 - Sickness

The staff members' contribution to the NPS shall be paid during sick leave and during periods of temporary incapacity following such leave if the staff member concerned continues to receive an allowance equal to the whole or part of his emoluments. This contribution shall be calculated in relation to the portion of the allowances corresponding to salary, but reckonable years of service shall be counted at the full rate, subject to the provisions applicable in the event of temporary incapacity during a period of part-time service.

41.1/2 - Leave for personal reasons

A staff member may not contribute to the NPS during periods of leave for personal reasons of more than six months' duration, and during such periods the staff member shall not acquire any pension rights. However, the persons entitled under him shall be entitled to receive benefits under the conditions set out in Instruction 18.1.

41.1/3 - Intermediary adjustments to officials' contribution rate

Officials' contribution rate following intermediary adjustments shall be calculated according to the procedures set out in the Annex to this Article. CHAPTER XI - PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE ADJUSTMENT OF PENSIONS

Article 42 - Pensions which are subject to national tax legislation

1. The recipient of a pension under these Rules shall be entitled to the adjustment applying to the Member Country of the Organisation in which the pension and adjustment relating thereto are chargeable to income tax under the tax legislation in force in that country.

2. The adjustment shall equal 50 per cent of the amount by which the recipient's pension would theoretically need to be increased, were the balance remaining after deduction of the amount of national income tax or taxes on the total to correspond to the amount of the pension calculated in accordance with these Rules.

For such purpose, there shall be drawn up, for each Member country, in accordance with the Implementing Instructions referred to in paragraph 6, tables of equivalence specifying, for each amount of pension, the amount of the adjustment to be added thereto. The said tables shall determine the rights of the recipients.

3. In calculating the theoretical amount of income tax or taxes referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, account shall be taken only of the provisions of tax legislation and regulations affecting the basis of liability and the amount of income tax or taxes for all pensioner-taxpayers in the country concerned.

4. Pensioners without spouse or dependants shall be deemed to be in the position of a pensioner without entitlement to any tax reliefs or allowances for family responsibilities, all other recipients being deemed to be pensioners enjoying the tax reliefs and allowances of a person who is married without children.

No account shall be taken:

- of individual factors related to the personal circumstances or private means of a particular pensioner,
- of income other than that arising under these Rules,
- of the income of the spouse or dependants of the pensioner.

On the other hand, account shall, in particular, be taken of circumstances arising in the course of the year as a result of:

- a change in civil status or settlement in another place of residence with a different taxation system,
- commencement or cessation of payment of the pension.

5. The Organisation shall supply the Member Countries concerned with the names, forenames and full address of pensioners and the total amount of the pension and adjustment.

6. The recipient of an adjustment as specified in this Article shall be required to inform the Organisation of his full address and of any subsequent change therein.

Such recipient shall produce evidence of his pension and the relative adjustment having been declared or taxed; should he fail to comply with this obligation, he shall be deprived of the right to this adjustment and shall refund any amounts unduly received in this respect.

7. The other procedures for calculating the adjustment and, in particular, those necessitated by the special features of certain national tax laws, and the procedure for payment of the adjustment shall be laid down in the Implementing Instructions established in accordance with the tax legislation of Member Countries.

Instructions

42/1 - Scope and calculation of the adjustment

1. Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall apply only if the pension and the adjustment relating to it are subject to taxes on income levied in a Member Country of the Organisation. The family allowances provided for in Articles 28 and 28bis of the Pension Rules shall be assimilated to pensions in determining the tax adjustment in so far as similar allowances are taxable under the national tax legislation of the Member country.

2. The adjustment referred to in Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall be determined on the basis of the legal provisions relating to taxes on income in force in the Member country in which the pensioner is legally subject to such taxation. It shall be established in respect of pensions paid during the tax period as determined in that country.

3. Where the pension of a person entitled to the adjustment is paid in a currency other than that of the country in which such person is subject to taxes on income, the adjustment shall be determined on the basis of the pension converted into the currency of that country. Such conversion shall be effected at the rate obtained on the official exchange market.

4. Where the amounts paid during any tax period include arrears of pension relating to any previous period, the adjustment shall be determined or recalculated, as the case may be, with due regard to the tax treatment applicable to such arrears.

42/2 - Establishment of tables of equivalence for payment of the adjustment

1. Tables of equivalence for payment of the adjustment shall be established for each tax year by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions, hereinafter referred to as 'the Service'.

2. The tax authorities of Member countries shall provide the Service, at its request, with the details of legislation and regulations necessary for establishing the tables. The tables shall be checked and confirmed by the tax authorities of the Member country concerned. In the event of disagreement between such authorities and the Service on the content of the tables, the Secretaries-General of the Co-ordinated Organisations and the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration shall consider the matter on the basis of Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules and of these Implementing Instructions.

3. Provisional tables of equivalence shall be drawn up prior to the commencement of the period to which they refer. They shall show, for rounded pension figures and in respect of each Member country, an amount equivalent to 90 per cent of the monthly adjustment calculated according to the distinctions contained in Article 42, paragraph 3 of the Pension Scheme Rules and on the basis of the tax legislation in force at the time of drawing up the tables.

4. The provisional tables shall be revised whenever amendments to tax legislation involve a change in the amount of the adjustment. The Secretaries-General of the Co-ordinated Organisations and the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration may however decide by mutual agreement to dispense with the updating of tables in cases where the balance of gain or loss is minimal.

5. As soon as the authorities in Member countries have finally adopted the tax legislation applicable to income for the period covered by the provisional tables, these latter shall be replaced by final tables establishing the rights of recipients in accordance with Article 42, paragraph 2 of the Pension Scheme Rules. These final tables shall show the amount of the adjustment for the whole of the period which they cover, as well as the monthly amount of the adjustment.

6. The provisional and final tables of equivalence shall be accompanied by all such information as is necessary for their use. Such information shall include:

- the rules to be observed in cases where changes in family status, dependants or permanent address (domicile) of the person entitled to the adjustment may affect the amount of the adjustment which the person concerned may claim;
- the names and addresses of the tax authorities to which the Co-ordinated Organisations supply the information specified in Article 42, paragraph 4 of the Pension Scheme Rules;
- the evidence to be supplied by persons entitled to the adjustment as proof of the declaration for tax purposes, or the taxation, of their pension and the adjustment relating thereto;
- the dates for making such declarations and for paying the tax in those Member countries which have been authorised to avail themselves of the provisions of Instruction 42/3, paragraph 2 below.

42/3 - Method of payment of the adjustment

1. The adjustment shall be paid by monthly instalments by way of advance at the same time as the pension and in an amount corresponding to that appearing in the provisional tables of equivalence referred to in Instruction 42/2, paragraph 3 above. The amounts of pension, arrears of pension and adjustment shall be shown separately on the instrument of payment issued to the recipient.

2. At the request of a country, the Secretaries-General of the Co-ordinated Organisations and the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration may, by mutual agreement, decide that by way of exception to paragraph 1, there shall be a time-lag in payment of the monthly instalments of the adjustment relating to that country, provided however that payment of the whole of the monthly instalments shall be finalised before the ultimate date for payment of the tax to which they refer.

3. As soon as the final tables of equivalence are available, the total amount of the monthly instalments paid in respect of the tax period shall be compared to the final amount of the adjustment due for the whole of that period. Any excess or shortfall shall be rectified so that the amount involved shall not be taken into account in determining the adjustment in respect of the following tax year.

4. The adjustments shall be paid in a bank account of the country in which the recipient is subject to taxes on income.

42/4 - Information to be supplied to Member countries by the Organisation

1. The particulars specified in Article 42, paragraph 4 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall consist of the following:

a) a personal particulars form giving the name and forenames, full address and, where applicable, the residence for tax purposes (domicile fiscal) of the pensioner, the total amount of pension paid for the period constituting the tax year, the final amount of the adjustment arrived at for such period, and the amount of arrears of pension, identifying the year to which such arrears relate;

b) a master list reproducing for each country, the information contained in the personal particulars form.

2. The particulars listed in paragraph 1 of this Instruction shall be supplied to the tax authorities of the country in which the persons concerned are subject to taxes on income. A copy of the personal particulars form shall be sent to the pensioner and a copy of the master list shall be sent to the Representative of the country in question to the Organisation.

3. The obligations specified in this Instruction shall be complied with at the time of the rectification referred to in Instruction 42/3, paragraph 3 above.

42/5 - Evidence of payment of tax

The tax authorities referred to in Instruction 42/2, paragraph 6 above shall inform the Service of the evidence by which, in accordance with Article 42, paragraph 5 of the Pension Scheme Rules, recipients of the adjustment may establish that their pension and the relevant adjustment have been declared for tax purposes or have been taxed.

42/6 - Financing the adjustment

1. The cost of the adjustment provided for in Article 42 of the Pension Scheme Rules shall be borne by the country in which the recipient thereof is subject to taxes on income for the period considered.

2. Expenditure arising under paragraph 1 of this Instruction shall be the subject of a separate budget which shall be drawn up at the same time as the other budgets of the Organisation. Final settlement of the contributions to this separate budget shall be made at the end of the period to which it relates.

42/7 - Date of effect

CHAPTER XII - FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 43 – Pensions administrative committee of the co-ordinated organisations (PACCO)

1. The Pensions Administrative Committee of the co-ordinated organisations, created by the Standing Committee of Secretaries-General, shall give technical opinions and, where necessary, ensure appropriate co-ordination between the Organisation and the other Organisations.

Instruction

43.1 - Forms

A standard form is used for determining the position regarding each staff member's reckonable years of service for pension purposes at a particular date, viz.:

- either on leaving the Organisation or on the assessment of a benefit; or*
- on changing from one Organisation to another.*

This form recapitulates the regulatory provisions to be consulted on such occasions.

Article 44 – Detailed implementation

1. Instructions for the implementation of these Rules shall be drawn up by the Secretary-General of the Organisation after an opinion of the Pensions Administrative Committee of the co-ordinated organisations.

Article 45 – Entry into force

1. These Rules shall enter into force on 1st January 2002.

Instruction

45.1 - Date of entry into force of the Implementing Instructions

The implementing Instructions shall enter into force on the date as laid down by the Secretary- General of the Organisation.

APPENDIX 1

Method

1. Calculation, as at the effective date of the study, for the OECD, of the rate of contribution payable by staff to finance 40% of benefits provided under the Scheme, establishing the present value of future entitlements, entitlements already accrued and future salaries, taking into consideration the actuarial value of the assets of the NPS.

2. Past entitlements and projections of future entitlements will be calculated, on the one hand, for staff affiliated at the date of the study to the NPS, for former staff affiliated to the NPS (pensioners and holders of deferred pension rights) and for the population of staff who will be recruited in the years to come. Projections of salaries for these populations will also be established year by year. Each of these amounts will be projected over an infinite period and discounted to present worth.

The actuarial value of the assets of the NPS shall be established by considering a smoothed value over a five-year period, with a 10% corridor.

3. Combining these results according to the aggregate cost method will make it possible to determine the rate of contribution needed to finance 40% of benefits provided under the Scheme.

Demographic and salary-related assumptions

4. The demographic assumptions are derived from detailed demographic studies for each of the Co-ordinated Organisations which have adopted the NPS. These studies examine past experience over a period of 15 years, where the information is available, and also take account of available forecasts regarding future staff profiles.

5. The assumptions relating to salaries are based on detailed observation of the past, over a period of 15 years, where the information is available, and also take account of practices and forecasts available in this field.

Economic assumptions

6. A discount rate net of inflation shall be used, and shall correspond to the target rate of return for the assets of the Pension Budget and Reserve Fund (PBRF) decided by the Council, minus 50 basis points.

Article 4 – PRINCIPLES RELATING TO PROCESSING

4.1 Processing

Personal Data shall be:

Data subjects adversely affected by an outcome involving an AI system have the right to challenge the outcome with the controller, in particular on grounds of inaccuracy or bias.

Article 5 – RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS

5.1 Transparency and Information

a) The controller shall provide information on the processing and its purpose(s) to the data subjects, as well as any amendment made to such processing, which shall be set out in a concise, transparent, intelligible and easily accessible form and made available through appropriate means.

- viii) any external storage location; and
- ix) the existence of the right to request access, rectification, erasure, object to processing of personal data and to submit claims.

c) Paragraphs a) and b) above shall not apply if the provision of such information proves impossible, would involve a disproportionate effort, or is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of the processing. In such cases, the controller takes appropriate measures to protect the data subjects' rights and freedoms and legitimate interests.

5.2 Right of access

- a) Data subjects have the right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether their personal data are being processed, and, where that is the case, to have access to these.
- b) One copy of the requesting data subject's personal data undergoing processing shall be made available to him/her, free of charge. Where the data subject makes the request by electronic means, the information shall be provided in a commonly used electronic form.

 - iii) the data subject withdraws the consent on which the processing is based.
- c) Paragraph b) above does not apply to the extent that processing is necessary for:

 - ii) exercising or protecting the rights of freedom of expression and information;
 - iii) reasons of public interest in the area of public health and security.

5.4 Right to object

Data subjects have the right to object to the processing of their personal data on the grounds that such processing is not necessary for the performance of tasks carried out in the exercise of the Organisation's mission and programme of work. The controller shall consider the objection, and if well-founded shall cease to process the personal data.

Article 6 – IMPLEMENTATION FRAMEWORK FOR PROCESSING

6.1 Accountability

a) The controller shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that processing is performed in accordance with the requirements of this Decision, and be able to demonstrate that this is the case.

b) The controller and, where applicable, the processors, shall maintain a record of any processing under their responsibility. Such record shall include information related to the processing activities as set out in article 5.1 above.

6.2 Prior consultations and data protection risk assessment

a) Prior to a new or amended processing, the controller shall carry out a risk assessment of the impact of the envisaged processing on the protection of personal data (data protection risk assessment) and inform the Data Protection Of.

b) Where a data protection risk assessment indicates that the processing may result in a high risk for the protection of personal data, the controller shall consult the Data Protection Officer. When so consulted, the Data Protection Officer provides written advice to the controller, including on safeguards that could be usefully implemented to reduce the risk. If the Data Protection Officer considers that, even with the implementation of the safeguards, the processing would result in a high risk for the protection of personal data, he/she may decide to suspend the processing pending a decision by the Data Protection Commissione.

6.3 Data Protection by Design

a) The controller shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures that are designed to implement this Decision, both at the time of the determination of the means for processing and that of the processing itself. For that purpose, they shall take into account the data protection risk assessment, the state of the art, the cost of implementation and the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing, as well as the likelihood and severity of the risks to rights, freedoms and legitimate interests of data subjects posed by the processing.

b) The controller shall also implement appropriate technical and organisational measures for ensuring that, by default, only personal data necessary for each specific purpose of the processing are actually processed.

6.4 Personal data breach

a) The controller and, where applicable, processors, shall notify the Data Protection Officer of any personal data breach as soon as possible after its discovery.

b) The notification, which shall be in writing, shall include the facts relating to the personal data breach, its likely effects and the remedial action taken or planned. Where the notification occurs more than 72 hours after the discovery, the reasons for delay shall be provided as well.

c) Where the personal data breach is likely to adversely affect data subjects, the controller shall notify the Data Protection Commissioner without undue delay, as well as affected data subjects unless this would involve disproportionate effort.

6.5 Transfers of personal data outside the Organisation

- a) Personal data may be transferred outside the Organisation under the conditions set out in this article and following consultation with the Data Protection Officer. Any onward transfers shall be subject to the same conditions, and only permitted for purposes that are compatible with the purpose for which the personal data were initially transferred.
- b) Prior to the transfer, the controller shall ensure that the recipient of the personal data commits to safeguards that ensure a level of protection in line with this Decision, including, in particular, effective data subject rights and legal remedies. Such safeguards shall be proportionate to the risks to data subjects presented by the transfer, taking into account the nature of the data and the purpose and context of the processing;
- c) Safeguards pursuant to paragraph b) above may result from:
 - i) contractual clauses or provisions inserted in other written arrangements;
 - ii) a decision of the OECD Council or another competent body that is binding upon the recipient of the personal data and the controller;
 - iii) other mechanisms as may be established in specific rules adopted under article 10(b) of this Decision.

The controller shall ensure that processors (and any subprocessors) provide guarantees to the Organisation on the implementation of appropriate technical and organisational measures aimed at ensuring that the processing will meet the requirements of this Decision. Such guarantees shall be provided through contractual clauses or provisions inserted in other written arrangements between the controller and the processor. The engagement of subprocessors by the processor is subject to prior written authorisation by the controller.

3. The methods for and possible difficulties in determining the tax base and collecting contributions shall be settled in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Arrangement.

Article 6

The competent French Authorities and the Secretary-General of the Organisation shall consult with each other on steps to be taken in the event of substantial changes to French Social Security legislation or regulations on the one hand, or to the Organisation's social protection scheme and benefits thereunder on the other.

 - b. officials with fixed-term appointments who have served no less than ten consecutive years with one or more of the co-ordinated organisations specified in Staff Rule 17/7.1.
1. bis a. When an official asks that the Secretary-General place him/her on special leave, the competent advisory body under Staff Regulation 6 shall be consulted if the official so requests in writing as part of his/her petition to be placed on special leave. The decision of the Secretary-General to place the official on special leave may not be taken until after this body has expressed its opinion.
 - b. The competent advisory body shall be consulted after expiry of the three-month period referred to in Instruction 111/1.7, or earlier if the official has chosen not to be redeployed in the Organisation. The official must be heard by this body, if he has so requested, within eight days of receiving the letter informing him/her of the date on which his/her case is to be submitted to it for consideration. Should he be physically unable to attend, the advisory body shall take its decision in the absence of the official, who may designate another serving official to represent him/her.
2. Special leave shall take effect on the date fixed by the Secretary-General and shall not exceed 5 years.
3. Officials on special leave shall not be entitled to any leave, allowance benefit, indemnity or payment on account of the period of special leave other than those specifically provided for in this Annex.
4. Officials on special leave shall receive in equal monthly instalments the amount of the indemnity to which they would have been entitled on account of loss of employment. Such amount shall be calculated on the basis of the scale of salaries applicable in the country in which the official was serving prior to the beginning of the special leave.
5. Accrued annual leave and the indemnity instead of notice owing to the official at the time of beginning special leave may be added to the amount of the indemnity mentioned in the previous paragraph and paid in the same way.

6. At the date special leave begins, officials may credit for the Pension Scheme the periods corresponding to the amount calculated in accordance with paragraphs 4 and 5 above, within the limits set by instruction 4.1/1 ii) and v) of the Pension Scheme. Their personal contribution is deducted from the amount on which the monthly instalments are based. Officials affiliated to the Provident Fund may credit such periods to their individual account in the same conditions and within the same limits.
7. The instalments shall be adjusted at the beginning of each financial year by applying to them the average interest rate obtained by the Organisation on its short-term investments during the previous year.
8. Unless otherwise stipulated, officials on special leave remain subject to the rights and obligations of officials of the Organisation.

Social protection

9. Officials on special leave shall not benefit, on account of such leave, from the provisions of Staff Regulations 17 a) and b) concerning medical and social cover and affiliation to the Pension Scheme and the Provident Fund. However, at their request, they shall be entitled to cover for health care expenses by the medical and social system of the Organisation, provided that they pay a contribution determined by the Secretary-General under Staff Rule 17/1.15. Such request shall be made no later than the month that follows the beginning of the special leave. Officials on special leave affiliated to the French Social Security scheme shall remain affiliated to this scheme, provided that they pay the applicable contribution, and shall continue to be entitled to complementary health care benefits.

Officials on special leave affiliated to the medical and social system of the Organisation in respect of cover for health care expenses shall pay a monthly contribution expressed as a percentage of the highest of the two following amounts:

a) the monthly instalment paid to the official on account of special leave; or

b) the pension which would be due to a former official of the same grade and step, and who leaves the Organisation at the age of 60 after 20 years' service.

For the application of Instruction 117/1.2.1 a) iv) concerning voluntary affiliation to the medical and social system of the Organisation in respect of cover for health care expenses, former officials whose appointments ended following the expiry of special leave shall be assimilated to former officials whose appointments were terminated under Staff Regulation 11 a) iii).

10. Officials on special leave may apply for financial assistance in case of financial distress arising out of an accident, serious or prolonged illness or family difficulties as provided for under Staff Rule 17.4/3.

Travel and Removal Expenses

11. At any time after the beginning of special leave, officials on special leave may claim reimbursement of their travel and removal expenses for return to the place of their residence at the time of taking up duty, in accordance with the conditions applicable to the reimbursement of travel and removal expenses incurred on leaving the service of the Organisation.
12. If an official on special leave is transferred to a post in the Organisation, the Secretary-General may grant him/her such financial assistance as he/she deems appropriate in respect of the official's cost of returning to his/her duty station if by virtue of the immigration or labour law in the country of the official's duty station prior to special leave, the official could not obtain remunerated employment in that country. Such financial assistance may not exceed the travel and removal expenses that may be reimbursed to officials taking up duty.

End of appointment and of special leave

13. Except in cases of transfer to a post in the Organisation, the appointment of an official on special leave shall expire at the end of that leave.
14. The period of special leave shall expire:
 - a. on the date agreed upon at the beginning of special leave;
 - b. on the date the official resigns, claims his/her retirement benefits, reaches the age limit or on the death of the official;
 - c. on the date the official takes up employment in the Organisation or with another employer or exercises a remunerated professional activity; or
 - d. on the date of termination of the appointment of the official for disciplinary reasons.
15. Officials on special leave may resign by giving written notice of no less than 30 days to the Secretary-General.
16. Subject to paragraph 17 below, an official on special leave or, in case of death, the duly qualified claimants to his/her rights, shall receive at the end of special leave a lump sum representing the difference between the sums to which he/she would have been entitled under Staff Regulation 11 a) iii), adjusted in accordance with paragraph 7 above, and those that have been paid to him/her during special leave.
17. When special leave ends as a result of a transfer to a post in the Organisation, the lump sum referred to above and the total sums paid during special leave, shall not amount to more than the emoluments the official concerned would have earned at his/her last grade and step during the period of his special leave. If, at the time of transfer, the sums already paid on account of special leave exceed the emoluments the official concerned would have earned at his/her last grade and step during special leave, the official shall reimburse the Organisation for the excess amount.

ANNEX XIX – RENT ALLOWANCE

The provisions of the present Annex shall apply to officials in receipt of a rent allowance at 1 January 2001 for as long as they rent the dwelling place for which entitlement to the allowance was established.

1. Officials of grade A1, A2, LI1-LT1 or LT2, or of category B or C, who are not the owners, or whose spouse is not the owner, in the Paris area, of a dwelling place which the Secretary-General considers to be suitable for their requirements, having regard to their functions and family status, and who rent a dwelling place considered suitable for their requirements, may receive a rent allowance. The rent allowance may not be granted to married officials who do not receive the household allowance.

An official, who fulfils the conditions laid down in this Annex and who is the owner of a dwelling place in the Paris area which he/she does not occupy, may only be granted the rent allowance after deduction of the rent which he/she receives or should normally receive according to the market price for the dwelling place of which he/she is the owner.

2. The rent allowance is paid only if the rent exceeds a fraction of the emoluments which varies according to the official's grade as follows:

In this Annex, emoluments shall be the salary as defined in Rule 15/1, increased, where appropriate, by household, expatriation and language allowances, less compulsory contributions made to French Social Security or to the Medical and Social System of the Organisation, Pension Scheme or Provident Fund, and for death or total permanent invalidity benefits.

5. The rent allowance of an official shall be a percentage of the difference between his rent and the fraction of his emoluments as specified in this Annex. This percentage shall vary, according to his family status, as follows:

- officials who do not receive the household allowance and officials who receive the household allowance with no dependant: 50 per cent;
- officials with one dependant: 55 per cent;
- officials with two or more dependants: 60 per cent.

Officials shall inform the Head of Human Resource Management of any change affecting their entitlement to rent allowance.

ANNEX XX - DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON CONFLICT AND HARASSMENT PREVENTION AND RESOLUTION

PREVENTING AND DEALING WITH HARASSMENT AT THE OECD

INTRODUCTION: PREVENTING AND DEALING WITH HARASSMENT AT THE OECD

1. Staff are expected to treat their colleagues and all other persons with dignity, courtesy and respect, and to refrain from verbal or physical abuse and any form of harassment. The OECD is committed to promoting a work environment that is free of personal harassment, sexual harassment (collectively referred to herein as “harassment”) and abuse of authority, as well as addressing any form of inappropriate behaviour that is inconsistent with the expected standards of conduct for an official of the Organisation. Accordingly, the purpose of this Policy is to promote a positive and harmonious work environment that is free from harassment, to prescribe measures to deter inappropriate behaviour and prevent it from escalating into harassment, and to provide various means for resolving staff concerns about inappropriate behaviour in or in connection with the work environment.

Standards of Behaviour

2. All OECD staff and persons engaged by or with the OECD shall treat one another, whether supervisors, peers or subordinates, in a professional manner, with courtesy, dignity and respect, and without harassment, or physical, psychological or verbal abuse. Any form of harassment constitutes misconduct and may result in the imposition of disciplinary measures, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with Regulation 21.

Multi-Cultural Context

3. In an international and multi-cultural work environment like the OECD, all staff should be aware that their own cultural norms and values may not be shared by colleagues, and they should therefore be sensitive to misunderstandings or disagreements based on those differences. At the same time, these differences do not excuse inappropriate behavior or harassment. Within the context of this international and multi-cultural work environment, all staff members are expected to observe the highest possible standards of behaviour and shall treat others with courtesy, dignity and respect.

Policy Overview

4. This Policy has the following components: (i) it prohibits harassment and other inappropriate behaviour that is offensive or may create an atmosphere of hostility or intimidation in the work environment (Part I); (ii) it establishes procedures, both informal and formal, to assist staff in finding effective ways to deal with behaviour they find inappropriate and resolve their concerns (Part II); and (iii) it prescribes the respective roles and responsibilities within the Organisation in preventing and addressing such behaviours and in maintaining a respectful work environment (Part III).

PART I: PROHIBITION OF PERSONAL HARASSMENT, SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND ABUSE OF AUTHORITY

Application

5. All OECD staff and all other persons engaged by or with the OECD, regardless of the type or duration of their engagement with the Organisation and the location where they are called upon to work, are covered by the Policy as provided herein.¹
6. Everyone working for the OECD (whether directly or indirectly), including persons on secondment, staff on loan from other organisations and interns as well as personnel of external contractors performing services for the OECD are protected under this Policy. Conversely, the obligation to treat others, including any person who has a professional interaction with the Organisation, with courtesy, dignity and respect, applies to all of these categories as well.
7. If the accused person² is not employed directly by the OECD, the matter will be addressed under the OECD's contract with the accused person's employer or referred to that external party or other responsible organisation to address under their own employment rules. When circumstances warrant, external parties may be excluded from OECD premises on this basis.
8. The Policy also applies to prohibited conduct that occurs outside the duty station (for example, during missions, conferences or other settings in which individuals may find themselves in connection with their OECD work), and/or outside working hours.
9. Special care needs to be taken on missions, where mission members often work closely together for extended periods away from home. Taking advantage of this forced proximity to press unwelcome attention on another person could constitute harassment and mission members should avoid all forms of behavior that could constitute, or be interpreted as, harassment.

Concepts, definitions and examples

10. Personal harassment, sexual harassment and abuse of authority may take various forms, and therefore a single all-encompassing definition is not possible. However, for purposes of this Policy, the following definitions and examples may be useful to identify and categorize these types of inappropriate behaviour, which generally refer to any unwelcome or offensive conduct that has had, or might reasonably be expected to have, the effect of:

¹ For purposes of this Policy, the "complainant" is the aggrieved person who alleges that he/she has been at the receiving end of harassment, abuse of authority or other inappropriate behaviour as defined under this Policy.

² For purposes of this Policy, the "accused person" is the person identified by the complainant as allegedly having engaged in harassment, abuse of authority or other inappropriate behaviour as defined under this Policy.

- Offending, humiliating, embarrassing or intimidating another person(s); or
- Creating an intimidating or hostile work environment and/or unreasonably interfering with the other person(s)'s ability to carry out their functions for or at the OECD.

11. Harassment is not defined by the intention of the offender, but rather by the impact of his/her behaviour on the recipient. If a specific action could reasonably be perceived as offensive, humiliating or intimidating, that action may be regarded as harassment, whether or not such harm was deliberate. Therefore, in their interactions with others, staff should always consider how their behaviour could be perceived by others and avoid behaviour that may create an atmosphere of hostility or intimidation.

12. Harassment may take various forms, through words (spoken or written), gestures or actions. Harassment normally implies persistent or repetitive events rather than a single or isolated occurrence. However, a one-off incident might be considered as harassment if it is serious enough in itself.

Personal harassment

13. "Personal harassment" generally refers to any unwelcome and unwanted conduct that might reasonably be expected or perceived to create a hostile work environment and/or demeans, belittles or humiliates an individual, in violation of the right to dignity at work. Harassment may occur in a range of situations, for example:

- from a superior to a subordinate
- from a subordinate to a superior
- from a colleague to a peer, a supplier, etc.
- through scapegoating of an individual by a group ("mobbing")

14. Personal harassment normally involves repeated behaviour or a pattern of behaviour, although it may also take the form of an accumulation of incidents, even if each incident, taken in isolation and out of context, would not be regarded as harassment. Examples of behaviours that may constitute personal harassment include, without limitation:

- (i) Intimidating behaviour, including threats, shouting, or abusive language or gestures
- (ii) Offensive comments (especially in public), undue pressure, antagonism, or refusal to communicate
- (iii) Repeatedly humiliating, ridiculing, mimicking or belittling someone, particularly if in front of colleagues
- (iv) Offensive jokes, sarcasm, gossip or ridicule
- (v) Repeatedly ignoring or excluding someone from meetings and professional activities without a valid business reason; talking across them or not listening to them

- (vi) Racial or sexual epithets, slurs and negative stereotyping of an individual or group, directly or indirectly*
- (vii) Display of images or written materials that are offensive, obscene or otherwise create a hostile work environment*
- (viii) Derogatory or otherwise discriminatory remarks about such personal characteristics as racial or ethnic origin, nationality, opinions or beliefs, gender, sexual orientation, health or disabilities*

Sexual harassment

15. “Sexual harassment” is any unwelcome behaviour of a sexual nature that might reasonably be expected or be perceived to cause offense or humiliation to another, when such conduct interferes with work, creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment, or is made a condition of employment or career opportunities. Sexual harassment may be verbal (e.g., suggestive innuendoes, jokes of a sexual nature), physical (e.g., unwanted physical contact), or visual (e.g., displaying sexually suggestive objects or pictures), as exemplified in the non-exhaustive list below under paragraph 17. Anyone, regardless of their gender or sexual orientation, can be either targets or the offenders who engage in sexual harassment.
16. Sexual harassment is particularly egregious when it takes the form of direct or implied threats or promises that submission to sexual advances will be a condition of favorable career treatment. This type of harassment occurs when demands of a sexual nature are accompanied either by the promise of a reward for acquiescence or threats of detrimental action for refusal. This situation typically arises when a more senior person takes improper advantage of his/her rank or status to try to elicit sexual favours from a subordinate; if so, such behaviour would also constitute an abuse of authority (see below).
17. In addition to situations involving an abuse of authority, a wide range of other types of behaviour may also constitute sexual harassment, depending on the circumstances in which they occur. Examples of behaviours that may constitute sexual harassment include, without limitation:
 - (i) The repetition of suggestive comments or innuendos of a sexual nature that, even if minor in themselves, gain in offensiveness as they accumulate*
 - (ii) The exhibition of materials of a sexually oriented nature in the workplace or in a work-related setting*
 - (iii) The use of crude or obscene language or gestures, or the telling of risqué or obscene jokes or stories*
 - (iv) Repeated and/or exaggerated comments about a colleague's personal appearance, or about his/her physical features*
 - (v) Invitations to social activities or "dates" if they persist after the recipient has made clear that they are not welcome*
 - (vi) Unwarranted, intrusive or persistent questioning about a person's private life*

- (vii) Direct propositions of a sexual nature, including any link between acceptance of such propositions and conditions of employment, promotion, professional development, etc.
- (viii) Deliberate and unwelcome physical contact, or unnecessarily close physical proximity

Abuse of authority

18. When harassment is committed by an official who is in a position to influence the career or employment conditions of the target of the harassment (for example, through recruitment, assignment, contract renewal, performance evaluation or promotion), it may also constitute an abuse of authority, which elevates the seriousness of the potential misconduct. Possible examples of behaviours that may constitute an abuse of authority include, without limitation:

- (i) sexual harassment by a supervisor or person in a position to impact the target's employment status or career
- (ii) Requesting staff to do personal favours or errands outside the context of the workplace or the target's work functions
- (iii) Pressuring staff to distort facts or break the rules

Behaviours not constituting harassment

19. The usual performance by staff members of their functions and duties, including the discharge of managerial and supervisory responsibilities, does not in itself constitute harassment. The taking or implementation of difficult decisions on work-related issues that could be the subject of disagreement, such as assignments or performance assessment, which might include comments indicating areas in need of improvement, or that might include directions that work be completed to an appropriate standard or within a prescribed timeframe, are a normal part of those responsibilities.³ Reasonable actions of this nature are not acts of harassment or an abuse of authority, unless they are carried out in a manner that is reasonably perceived as demeaning, humiliating or otherwise in violation of the right to be treated with courtesy, dignity and respect.

20. Although various forms of behaviour related to interpersonal conflict in the work environment, such as the occasional raised voice or sarcastic remark, do not necessarily constitute harassment, they are inappropriate and should be avoided, because they undermine professional dignity and can be damaging to the work environment. Moreover, such behaviour may escalate and become harassment if not promptly addressed and stopped. Therefore, if a situation has made staff feel uncomfortable, insulted or isolated, they are strongly encouraged to approach the accused person, either directly or with assistance from the resources noted below, and make their concerns known, even when the behaviour does not rise to the level of harassment. By virtue of their position, managers have a key role in establishing and maintaining a positive and harmonious working environment, including respectful treatment by and towards others.

21. Close personal relationships of a consensual nature between staff members do not, in themselves, constitute sexual harassment. However, such relationships between supervisors and subordinates or other situations where one of the staff in the relationship is in a position to influence the career prospects of the other create the risk of an actual or apparent conflict of interest. Such relationships should therefore be disclosed to Human Resources Management (HRM) so that they may take appropriate action in order to prevent or mitigate any conflict of interest (e.g., through reassignment).⁴

PART II: RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

Overview

22. If possible, it is best to deal with inappropriate behaviour by discouraging it at an early stage by speaking up to the offender. Offenders may not realise the impact that their behaviour had on others, and may discontinue once this is brought to their attention.
23. However, in the event that the behaviour continues, or if the complainant is not comfortable approaching the offender on his/her own, there are both informal and formal channels available for raising concerns and resolving the problem. Under the informal channels, the parties themselves attempt to resolve the concerns about the behaviour in question, which may involve the support or assistance of third parties. Under the formal channels, the Organisation applies its internal procedures to establish the facts following a report of behaviour and, if appropriate, imposes corrective measures to remedy the situation.
24. There are various resources available to advise staff and inform them of their options, so that they may choose the course of action with which they are most comfortable. In this manner, staff may consider such factors as the severity of the behaviour in question and the desired outcome in deciding what course of action to take. The Organisation is prepared to provide support with respect to each of these options, bearing in mind that they have different consequences in terms of what the process entails and the possible outcome(s).
25. Regardless of the option chosen by staff, the response to concerns about harassment will protect the privacy of those involved and ensure confidentiality to the maximum extent possible. However, if the complainant is unwilling to have his/her identity and concerns made known to the accused person, either directly or by a third party, this will limit the various means for dealing effectively with the matter.

Informal channels

⁴ If staff members are unsure whether and when to disclose a close personal relationship, they may seek advice and guidance from the Head of Ethics on a strictly confidential basis.

26. The objective of informal resolution is to settle any concerns over allegedly offensive or unwelcome conduct as soon as possible in a fair, constructive and respectful manner, through open communication and cooperation. Staff members are encouraged to participate in informal means of resolution and make good faith efforts to address and resolve the problem before it continues or escalates.
27. Although the authority or status of the persons involved or other considerations can make direct discussions difficult, staff who believe they are the target of harassment are encouraged to try and resolve the matter informally by raising it directly with the accused person. However, if staff feel unable to do so, or if the behaviour persists after they have raised it, they may consult any of the resources provided by the Organisation. The complainant may choose whatever resource he/she is most comfortable in approaching. Regardless of the resource(s) selected by the affected person, these third parties are expected to act with complete neutrality towards both the complainant and the accused person. These resources are also available to those who are alleged to have engaged in harassment.
28. In addition to their manager or supervisor, staff may consult with one or more of the following persons to discuss the situation and the options for dealing with it:
- The HRM Business Partner for their directorate or Head of Client Services Group
 - The Mediation Service
 - The Staff Association
 - The Social Advisers
 - The Medical Service
 - The Head of Ethics⁵

Formal channels

29. Staff who consider themselves to be the target of harassment, sexual harassment or abuse of authority may submit a written report of alleged misconduct to the Secretary-General either directly or through the relevant Deputy Secretary-General, the Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Executive Director, the Head of HRM or the Head of Ethics. Complainants are strongly encouraged, but not required, to provide information concerning the name and functions of the accused person; the nature, location and dates of any incident(s) or behaviour(s) on which the report is based; the names of potential witnesses, if any, to the incidents or behaviours in question; any documentation in support of the report, such as emails, photos, or medical reports; and the outcome or remedies that the complainant seeks.
30. A written report of harassment normally triggers a sequential process to determine whether the allegations are well-founded which, if so, could lead to disciplinary action, as follows:

⁵ Affected individuals may prefer and are encouraged to discuss their situation with the Head of Ethics, who can offer confidential advice/assistance by explaining the applicable legal framework, the options available and indicate resources available for support purposes.

- (i) Preliminary assessment by the Head of HRM to ascertain whether information that is brought to his/her attention concerns conduct that, if confirmed, might constitute a breach of the internal rules of the Organisation. If so, the matter may proceed to a full fact-finding investigation; if so
- (ii) The investigation itself in accordance with Annex XXV (Investigation Procedure); and
- (iii) Assuming the fact-finding investigation establishes the allegations in question, a disciplinary process, as provided in Regulation 21.

31. Following preliminary assessment of the written report of harassment, the Head of HRM will provide a written response to the complainant to inform him/her of the decision that has been taken with regards to opening an investigation and of any other decisions taken concerning the matter.
32. Consistent with Annex XXV, anonymous reports may be allowed.⁶ However, the anonymity of a report may render the initiation or completion of an investigation or disciplinary process more difficult, and may hinder the Organisation's ability to take action on the case.
33. Although there is no time limit on initiating a formal process, complainants are encouraged to initiate the formal process without unnecessary delay, both to protect themselves and to maximize the chances of relevant information and evidence, including witness testimony, being available.

Confidentiality

34. All staff who are aware of measures that have been taken or are underway to address alleged inappropriate conduct shall respect the sensitivity and confidentiality of the matter. In such cases, staff must refrain from discussing the matter or otherwise sharing information or documentation among themselves or with anyone who does not have a 'need to know' in order to perform their official duties in connection with this Policy. Every effort must be made to preserve the dignity, rights and self-respect of the parties to the matter. Any person heard as part of an investigation shall be bound by confidentiality.

Ongoing follow-up and support after resolution of a report

35. After a report about harassment has been resolved, the situation will be closely monitored to ensure that all persons involved in the report make the transition to their normal duties as smoothly and quickly as possible. Managers will also monitor their work units to ensure that there is no potential for a repetition or resumption of improper behaviour.

⁶ In accordance with Annex XXV, anonymous reports may only be allowed on an exceptional basis when sufficiently convincing evidence corroborates the allegations made or when the allegations concern a risk of physical harm to an individual or a financial risk to the Organisation or possible serious prejudice to the image or interests of the Organisation.

Protection against retaliation

36. Any retaliation or threat of retaliation against individuals reporting any type of misconduct under this Policy, or participating in the investigation of such reports (for example, as witnesses), will be deemed serious misconduct, and will lead to disciplinary action.⁷ At the same time, any accusation or report shown to be made in bad faith will also be considered serious misconduct and will be treated in the same manner.

PART III: ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN PREVENTING AND ADDRESSING HARASSMENT

37. The Secretary-General shall:

- (i) Foster a climate of mutual respect and act as a role model by demonstrating the highest standards of personal conduct*
- (ii) Hold all supervisory staff who report to him or her accountable for compliance with this Policy as part of the assessment of their performance*
- (iii) Ensure that mechanisms to informally resolve workplace conflicts are available and that concerns or reports about improper workplace behaviours are taken seriously and are responded to promptly and diligently*
- (iv) Appoint persons, as listed above under paragraph 28, to be available to provide advice and assistance to staff members who believe they have been subjected to harassment, have been accused of harassment, have witnessed harassment, or need advice regarding harassment issues*
- (v) Take appropriate action to maintain the safety and well-being of relevant parties and to protect the interests and reputation of the Organisation including, where necessary, taking disciplinary or administrative measures to deal with violations of the Policy*

38. The Human Resource Management (HRM) shall:

- (i) Maintain strictly confidential records on allegations of harassment and the actions taken to address them*
- (ii) In conjunction with the Head of Ethics⁸, monitor the effectiveness of this Policy in its implementation and report periodically to senior management on harassment reports and related matters*
- (iii) Ensure that there are informal channels to provide appropriate support, assistance and counselling available to staff before, during and after the resolution of harassment-related concerns*
- (iv) In situations where staff submit a formal report of harassment or other improper behaviour, conduct an initial review to determine whether to refer the report for a full investigation in accordance with Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations, as appropriate*

⁷ See Annex XXVIII to the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions.

⁸ See Annex XXVII to the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions.

- (v) Where warranted, take appropriate disciplinary or other measures with respect to staff who have been found to have engaged in harassment, sexual harassment and/or abuse of authority, as well as appropriate action with respect to non-staff personnel who have engaged in such behaviour (e.g., as provided under a vendor contract)
- (vi) Once a report is resolved, monitor the situation to ensure that all parties resume their normal duties as smoothly and quickly as possible, and that the offensive behaviour is not repeated

39. Managers at all levels have a key role and bear special responsibility for preventing and addressing any occurrence of harassment. Accordingly, managers shall:

- (i) Set a positive example and demonstrate the highest standards of behaviour
- (ii) Foster a harmonious working environment where all staff are treated with dignity and respect and ensure that no one feels threatened or intimidated in the workplace
- (iii) Make themselves available to those who wish to raise concerns in confidence, and deal with those concerns promptly and effectively
- (iv) Pay attention to signs of a deteriorating work atmosphere, and take steps to promptly resolve problems in a sensitive manner
- (v) Act promptly and effectively to stop any form of harassment, and ensure that potentially offensive material is not displayed or circulated in the work place
- (vi) Undertake and complete any mandatory training requirements on preventing and dealing with harassment, familiarise themselves with this policy and related policies and procedures, and ensure that their subordinates do so as well

40. All staff, regardless of their grade and contract status, share responsibility for preventing harassment and maintaining a harmonious work environment. Accordingly, staff and others who work for or are engaged by OECD shall:

- (i) Demonstrate tolerance, sensitivity and respect for diversity in their interactions with others
- (ii) Ensure that they do not engage in, encourage others to engage in, or condone inappropriate behaviour or harassment
- (iii) Undertake any mandatory training requirements on preventing and dealing with harassment and familiarise themselves with this policy and related policies and procedures
- (iv) Offer support to those concerned if they observe that a colleague may be subject to harassing behaviour. In addition, staff members who become aware of harassment are expected to bring it to the attention of the Secretary-General either directly or through the relevant Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Head of HRM or the Executive Director.

(v) Fully cooperate with those responsible for investigating allegations of misconduct, and fully respect the confidentiality of the process.

ANNEX XX bis - DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON PREVENTION AND RESPONSE TO SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND ABUSE (SEA)

INTRODUCTION: PREVENTING AND ADDRESSING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AT THE OECD

1. The OECD is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards, reflecting its core values as an international organisation and the fundamental principles and rules that apply to its staff and that should guide them in the discharge of their functions for the Organisation. The Organisation is committed to promoting and upholding a comprehensive culture of respect, dignity, and inclusiveness. To support this commitment, the Organisation has established a robust comprehensive framework to prevent and address all forms of misconduct, including of a sexual nature.
2. OECD staff, especially managers at all levels, have a responsibility to create and maintain an environment that prevents any forms of misconduct, and that promotes the standards of conduct set out in the OECD Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to Officials of the Organisation (the “Staff Regulations”)¹.
3. This Policy addresses sexual exploitation and abuse (SEA) committed by OECD staff vis-à-vis external parties, especially those in a situation of vulnerability. This Policy complements the Decision of the Secretary-General on Conflict and Harassment Prevention and Resolution (“Annex XX to the Staff Regulations”), which covers harassment and sexual harassment (SH) where the victims and the subjects of allegations are OECD staff or all other persons engaged by or with the OECD. Annex XX and this Annex XX bis to the Staff Regulations taken together constitute the OECD framework to prevent, report, and respond to Sexual Exploitation, Abuse and Harassment (SEAH) allegations.

PART I: PROHIBITION OF SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND ABUSE

Definition and examples

4. “Sexual Exploitation” refers to any actual or attempted abuse of a position of vulnerability, differential power, or trust, for sexual purposes, including, but not limited to, profiting monetarily, socially, or politically from the sexual exploitation of another person. Examples of behaviour that might constitute sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:
 - (i) Coercing individuals into engaging in sexual activities or other forms of abusive, humiliating, degrading or exploitative behaviour in exchange for money, goods, services, employment opportunities, or other benefits;
 - (ii) Trafficking for the purpose of sexual exploitation.
5. “Sexual abuse” refers to the actual or threatened physical intrusion of a sexual nature, whether by force or under unequal or coercive conditions. Examples of behaviours that might constitute sexual abuse include, but are not limited to:
 - (i) Sexual assault;
 - (ii) Rape or attempted rape;
 - (iii) Engaging in sexual activities with children (persons under the age of 18) regardless of the local age of consent or majority and in spite of mistaken belief of the age of a person.

¹See in particular Title II of the Staff Regulations, and the Decision of the Secretary-General on OECD Code of Conduct (the “Code of Conduct”) set out in Annex XXX to the Staff Regulations.

6. “Staff” means all officials as well as unclassified staff, temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation, and interns who are to abide by the same standards of conduct as officials to the extent that they are, by virtue of the OECD legal framework applicable to them, bound by the same rules.
7. “Victim” refers to a person who identifies their experience as being, or having been, sexually exploited or abused by an OECD staff or a person engaged by or with the OECD² .
8. “Reporting person” a person who reports an allegation of SEA against an OECD staff or another person engaged by or with the OECD.
9. “Subject of allegations” refers to a staff or person engaged by or with the OECD who is the subject of allegations of SEA misconduct.

General principles

10. The difference between SEA and SH is the victim. In accordance with paragraph 3 above, victims of SEA are external parties to the Organisation, while victims of SH are primarily OECD staff and all other persons engaged by or with the OECD.
11. SEA is an egregious form of misconduct which cannot be tolerated. In this respect, the OECD has zero tolerance towards SEA and inaction against allegations of it.
12. For purposes of the Staff Regulations, SEA and attempts thereof constitute serious misconduct and therefore ground for disciplinary measures, up to and including dismissal, in accordance with Staff Regulation 21.
13. The OECD recognises the importance of placing the dignity, safety and well-being of the victims of SEA at the centre of the prevention and response concerning SEA.

PART II: REPORT OF SEA ALLEGATIONS, RESPONSE PROCEDURE AND REFERRAL TO DONORS AND NATIONAL AUTHORITIES

Reporting SEA allegations

14. Allegations of SEA misconduct may be reported to the Organisation as follows:
 - a) OECD staff should use the reporting mechanisms set out in the Staff Regulations.³
 - b) External persons to the Organisation should submit a written report of alleged SEA misconduct via the dedicated email address: OECD.ReportMisconduct@oecd.org .
15. To facilitate assessment and support, reports of SEA allegations should be as detailed as possible and include the following information:
 - a) if known, the names and functions of the victim(s) and the subject(s) of the allegations;
 - b) the nature, location and dates of any incident(s) or behaviour(s) on which the report is based; the names of potential witnesses, if any, to the incidents or behaviours in question;
 - c) any documentation in support of the report, such as emails, photographs, medical reports or any other evidence.
16. To be effective, and to facilitate the collection of evidence, SEA allegations should be made as soon as possible. Anonymous reports may be allowed in the conditions set out in Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations.

² This includes, where applicable, external service providers and their employees as part of the provision of services to the OECD.

³ See in particular Annex XXV, the Decision of the Secretary-General Concerning the Investigation Procedure Within the Organisation (“Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations”).

17. Information about SEA allegations must be treated by all staff with confidentiality in order to protect the identities, privacy and reputation of the victims, reporting persons and subjects of the allegations. Staff must refrain from discussing the matter or otherwise sharing information or documentation other than as necessary for the implementation of this Policy, Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations and Staff Regulation 21.

Response to SEA allegation

18. In principle, allegations of SEA should give rise to an investigation carried out in accordance with Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations, provided that the criteria specified therein for opening such investigation have been satisfied.
19. Depending on the outcome of the investigation, the Organisation may initiate disciplinary action with respect to the staff concerned in accordance with Staff Regulation 21.
20. It is OECD standard policy to include relevant clauses on the prohibition and prevention of SEAH in contracts for goods and services with external partners. If the subject of the allegations is not employed by the OECD, the matter will be addressed under the OECD's contract with the employer or referred to that external party or other responsible institution to address under their own rules. The matter could also be referred to national authorities pursuant to paragraph 23 below.

Report to Donors

21. If foreseen in agreements between the Organisation and donors, the OECD might inform donors of credible allegations of SEA, i.e. allegations giving rise to an investigation carried out in accordance with Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations.
22. In such case, information will be reported if it does not jeopardise the conduct of any ongoing investigation or infringe due process or fundamental rights. Such information will be made in accordance with OECD internal regulations, rules and policies, including with respect to confidentiality of non-public information, privacy and independence of the OECD as an intergovernmental organisation. In particular, the confidentiality of information relating to and the privacy of the people involved in the matter will be maintained, identifying data such as the name(s) and function(s) of these people will not be disclosed, and the report will focus only on the reported allegations and the response of the Organisation.

Referral to National Authorities

23. Any matter involving SEA may be reported to the national authorities consistent with the relevant provisions of Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations.

ANNEX XXII - DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Further changes to the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions were published on 14 October 2002 (Basic principles, rights and duties, discipline and civil liability, policy to prevent and combat harassment). As part of this modification of the Staff Manual, it has been decided to move the rules relating to the intellectual property rights on any work produced by an official in the performance of his/her duties and incorporate them, unchanged, in the provisions concerning the terms of appointment, which are themselves currently the subject of a comprehensive review by the Executive Committee.

Consequently, pending a final decision by the Council and in order to avoid any regulatory vacuum on this point in the meantime, the Secretary-General has decided that the current rules on intellectual property within the Organisation should continue to apply, namely:

1. All rights, including copyright and patent rights, in any work produced by an official as part of his/her official duties are vested in or assigned to the Organisation, unless such rights are waived by the Secretary-General in favour of the official concerned.
2. Requests for authorisation to publish or make use of any work, as specified in paragraph 1, above, should be made to the Secretary-General by the official concerned through his supervisor. The latter shall inform the Head of Human Resources Management.

Should you have any questions about these rules relating to intellectual property rights, please contact Human Resource Management.

ANNEX XXIV - DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON TELEWORKING

General principles

1. Teleworking is a way of performing duties outside the premises of the Organisation, with the help of information and communication technologies. Performing duties whilst on mission is not considered to be teleworking.
2. Teleworking seeks to foster a better work/life balance for officials.
3. At the officials' request, this way of performing duties may be authorised by the Organisation, at its discretion and in accordance with the conditions set out in this decision.
4. Officials may only be authorised to telework if:
 - i) the nature and exercise of their duties permit teleworking;
 - ii) the requested teleworking is compatible with organisational and efficiency-related service requirements ;
 - iii) the requested teleworking is compatible with the accomplishment of assigned annual performance objectives.
5. Under exceptional circumstances that threaten the continuity and efficiency of the service, officials may be required to telework by the Secretary-General, the Executive Director or the Head of Human Resource Management, provided that they have the appropriate logistical and technical means.

Provisions applicable

6. The Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to officials of the Organisation (hereinafter referred to as the Staff Regulations) shall remain fully applicable to officials authorised or required to telework. The following provisions shall also apply to them with regards to teleworking.

Forms of teleworking

7. There are two forms of teleworking:
 - i) Regular teleworking, which is based on a regular frequency of teleworking days determined in advance for a pre-defined duration;
 - ii) Occasional teleworking, which is of irregular frequency and responds to punctual situations.

8. The choice concerning the form of teleworking, i.e. whether occasional or regular, depends on the intended frequency and duration and is decided by the officials' supervisors, Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service, and, when applicable, the Head of Human Resource Management, in accordance with paragraphs 10 to 14 below.

Teleworking location

9. a) Occasional and regular teleworking shall be performed in the duty country, at the location the officials declare to the Organisation.

b) In exceptional circumstances, officials may also perform occasional and regular teleworking outside the duty country, in accordance with paragraphs 24 to 28 below. Temporary staff members shall not perform occasional or regular teleworking outside the duty country, unless authorised by the Secretary-General.

Conditions of authorisation

10. Officials wishing to telework shall submit a request to that effect in writing to their supervisors, specifying the intended form, duration and country of performance of teleworking. Officials wishing to telework outside the duty country are required to sign and submit, along with their request, the written acknowledgment specified in paragraph 28 below.
11. Occasional teleworking shall be authorised by the officials' supervisors.
12. Regular teleworking shall be authorised by the Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service, on the recommendation of the supervisors, who shall inform the Head of Human Resource Management.
13. However, regular teleworking performed outside the duty country must be authorised by the Head of Human Resource Management, on the recommendation of the supervisors and in agreement with the Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service concerned.
14. The decision to reject a teleworking request is justified and notified to officials.

Form of authorisation

Occasional teleworking

15. Occasional teleworking shall be authorised in writing by the officials' supervisors. This authorisation is granted by email and then logged and validated in the IT system used to manage working hours. When occasional teleworking is performed outside the duty country, the authorisation shall be sent to the Head of Human Resource Management for information along with the written acknowledgment specified in paragraph 28 below.

Regular teleworking

16. Regular teleworking shall be authorised by means of a written convention signed by the officials and their supervisors, Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service, for a maximum duration of 12 months. A copy of this convention shall be sent to the Human Resource Management Service for information, along with the written acknowledgment specified in paragraph 28 below, where applicable.
17. The signature of a teleworking convention confirms acceptance of the teleworking conditions, most notably the specific requirements with regards to the presence of the officials on the premises of the Organisation and communication channels while teleworking.

18. The teleworking convention shall indicate:

- i) the days and hours of teleworking;
- ii) the days to be worked at the Organisation's premises;
- iii) the teleworking location;
- iv) the specific conditions required by the Organisation;
- v) where appropriate, the equipment made available to officials by the Organisation;
- vi) the dates of entry into force and termination of the convention.

19. a) The teleworking convention is confirmed at the end of a probationary period. This probationary period starts as of the date of entry into force of the convention for a duration of:

- i) fifteen calendar days when the teleworking duration set out in the convention is less than or equal to three months;
- ii) thirty calendar days when the teleworking duration set out in the convention is more than three months.

b) The teleworking convention may be amended during the probationary period in accordance with paragraph 21 below.

20. Upon expiration, the convention may be renewed in accordance with paragraphs 10 to 14 above, provided that the conditions referred to in paragraph 4 above are fulfilled.

21. The convention may be amended at the request of officials and their supervisors, Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service, subject to a specific written agreement and a notice period to officials of:

- i) fifteen calendar days when the teleworking duration set out in the convention is less than or equal to three months;
- ii) thirty calendar days when the teleworking duration set out in the convention is more than three months.

22. The supervisors, Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service may terminate the teleworking convention, at any time, if:

- i) the conditions referred to in paragraph 4 above are no longer met;
- ii) a significant fall in the officials' performance is observed as a result of teleworking;
- iii) the officials concerned fail to respect this decision or the teleworking convention .

The officials may also terminate the convention and, in that case, should inform their supervisors, Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of the Service.

23. The termination of a teleworking convention is subject to a notice period of:

- i) fifteen calendar days when the teleworking duration set out in the convention is less than or equal to three months;
- ii) thirty calendar days when the teleworking duration set out in the convention is more than three months.

Specific conditions concerning teleworking performed outside the duty country

24. Teleworking outside the duty country shall be performed in the territory of Member countries of the Organisation or in any other country in which the Organisation enjoys the privileges and immunities required to fulfil its mission.
25. Regular or occasional teleworking outside the duty country shall normally not exceed a limit of 80 working days per calendar year. Regular teleworking is subject to a teleworking convention set out in paragraphs 16 to 23 above.
26. The following conditions shall apply to teleworking outside the duty country:
 - i) the applicable salary scale shall remain that of the duty country, and monthly emoluments shall continue to be paid in that country. Subject to the provisions of Staff Regulation 18 and the related Staff Rules, the cost of transferring emoluments to the teleworking location outside the duty country shall be borne exclusively by the officials;
 - ii) officials' entitlement to the expatriation allowance and other related allowances shall continue to be determined with reference to their duty country;
 - iii) for the purposes of the payment of health costs by the Organisation's system, the country of residence referred to in Article 3 a) of Annex XIV of the Staff Regulations shall remain the duty country and not the country of the teleworking location.
27. Where officials can justify exceptional circumstances, they may be authorised to perform regular or occasional teleworking outside the duty country in excess of the limit of 80 working days per calendar year. Such authorisation may be granted at the discretion of the officials' Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service, following prior consultation with the Head of the Human Resources Department. The following specific conditions shall apply to teleworking outside the duty country in excess of 80 working days per calendar year:
 - i) officials bear sole responsibility for all additional liabilities, including but not limited to those of a fiscal or social contribution nature, resulting from their teleworking abroad in excess of the limit of 80 working days per calendar year;
 - ii) officials' entitlement to the expatriation allowance and other related allowances, where applicable, is suspended for the period of teleworking abroad in excess of the limit of 80 working days per calendar year; and
 - iii) officials can be required at the discretion of the Organisation, at any time, and at their own costs, to return to the duty country with reasonable notice.
28. All officials wishing to telework outside the duty country shall sign a written acknowledgment in which they recognise that specific conditions shall apply in the event they exceed the limit of 80 working days per calendar year, under the conditions set out in paragraph 27 above.

Interests of the service warranting the presence of officials on the premises of the Organisation

29. Where the interests of service so require, and notwithstanding the provisions set out in the relevant teleworking authorisations and conventions, officials may exceptionally be required by their supervisors to be present on the premises of the Organisation or on any other designated premises, on days where they are scheduled to telework.

Working duration and hours of work

30. The duration and hours of work of officials authorised to telework shall be laid down in accordance with Staff Regulation 20 a) and the related Instructions, in particular Instruction 120/1.1. These durations and hours of work should be logged and validated in the IT systems used to manage working hours.
31. For teleworking outside the duty country, hours of work shall be set in such a way as to minimise, as far as possible, the effects of any time difference between the teleworking location and the officials' duty country.

Teleworking for health reasons

32. When returning to work after sick leave or after being placed on non-active status for reasons of sickness, officials may complete a part or the totality of their working time through teleworking, on the sole recommendation of the Organisation's Medical Officer and after consultation with the supervisors, Directors, Heads of Programme or Heads of Service, provided that the conditions referred to in paragraph 4 above are met.
33. Teleworking for health reasons is a specific form of regular teleworking. The provisions regarding regular teleworking shall fully apply to teleworking for health reasons. However, the duration of teleworking for health reasons may not exceed nine months in any twelve-month period. The convention for teleworking for health reasons may only be amended after consultation with the Organisation's Medical Officer.

Statutory travel and missions

34. In the event of statutory travel or missions as provided for in Staff Rule 17/3.1 et seq., teleworking officials may be authorised to start their journey from their teleworking location. Such authorisation shall be given by the Head of Human Resource Management, in case of statutory travel, and by the officials' supervisors, in case of missions. In such cases, the expenses incurred shall be paid in advance or reimbursed insofar as they do not exceed the expenses that would have been applicable, had the journey started from the headquarters of the Organisation.
35. No other travel between the teleworking location and the premises of the Organisation shall be reimbursed by the Organisation.

Work accident

36. Within the context of teleworking, any accident which officials prove had occurred at the teleworking location, during teleworking hours, and as a result or in connection with the functions performed, shall be considered a work accident.

ANNEX XXV - DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL CONCERNING THE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE WITHIN THE ORGANISATION

Purpose

1. The following provisions set out the procedures of the Organisation with respect to investigations of alleged misconduct by staff. This procedure is intended to promote accountability, support the standards of conduct, and ensure good governance within the Organisation, as well as to protect the rights and reaffirm the duties of staff with respect to investigations.
2. The purpose of an investigation under this procedure is to examine whether there is a factual basis for the allegations of misconduct. An investigation is distinct from a disciplinary procedure, although once an investigation has been completed, the investigative findings may serve as a basis for initiating a disciplinary action, in accordance with Staff Regulation 21.
3. Both phases of the procedure under this Annex – consisting of a preliminary review and an investigation - are administrative in nature. The procedure set out here supports the Organisation in discharging its staff management responsibilities, in particular in ensuring that staff comply with the standards of conduct set out in the Organisation’s Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions.

Definitions

4. For the purposes of this Annex the following definitions apply:
 - (1) “Misconduct” shall have the meaning assigned to it in Section 3.5 of Annex XXX to the Staff Regulations (Decision of the Secretary-General on OECD Code of Conduct).
 - (2) “Head of HRM” means the Head of Human Resource Management, unless the Secretary-General, in line with paragraph 7 below, appoints a replacement, in which case all the references made to the Head of HRM in relation to his responsibilities under this Annex shall be read as referring to the replacement.
 - (3) “Investigative procedure” means all the steps carried out under this Annex, including the preliminary review and the investigation.
 - (4) “Reporting person” means the individual who reports alleged misconduct.
 - (5) “Staff” means all officials as well as unclassified staff, temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation, and interns who are to abide by the same standards of conduct as officials to the extent that they are, by virtue of the OECD legal framework applicable to them, bound by the same ethical rules.
 - (6) “Staff Regulations” shall encompass the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to Officials of the Organisation as well as the equivalent provisions applicable to other categories of staff or associates falling under the definition of “staff” under this Annex.
 - (7) "Subject" refers to a staff who is the subject of allegations of misconduct.

General provisions

5. Staff with responsibilities under this Annex shall carry out the procedural steps independently and free from any undue interference. They shall carry out the investigative procedure relating to allegations of misconduct in an objective and impartial manner.
6. The staff carrying out their respective responsibilities under this procedure shall, in accordance with Staff Regulation 3, avoid any conflict of interest or appearance thereof.
7. Should there be a conflict of interest or an appearance of a conflict of interest on the part of the Head of HRM, or where there is a perception of any such a conflict on their part, the matter shall be referred to the Secretary-General, who shall decide, where appropriate, to appoint a replacement. However, the fact that the investigation concerns one of the services of the Executive Directorate or that staff in the Human Resource Management Service may be requested to provide evidence, shall not in itself constitute a conflict of interest or appearance thereof. This shall also apply to cases in which one of the services of the Executive Directorate, including the Human Resource Management Service, may have given advice for managing a situation directly or indirectly related to the subject of the investigation.
8. Where the alleged misconduct concerns staff in the Human Resource Management Service the matter will be considered as constituting a conflict of interest of the Head of HRM and a replacement shall be appointed pursuant to paragraph 7.
9. All staff participating in any way in an investigative procedure shall be considered as acting in the performance of their official duties in relation to such participation.

Reporting of alleged misconduct

10. As provided in the Staff Regulations, staff have a duty to report any fraud, corruption or misuse of the Organisation's resources and are expected to report any other form of misconduct.
11. The Organisation will intake all reports of alleged misconduct, as defined in Annex XXX, irrespective of their source, including reports from anonymous or confidential sources.
12. Alleged misconduct shall be brought to the attention of the Organisation:
 - (1) by e-mail communication addressed to either the Secretary-General, the relevant Deputy Secretary-General, the relevant Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Executive Director, the Head of HRM (except in the circumstances described in paragraph 7 and 8 above), or the Head of Ethics, with the possibility to copy the Head of HRM;
 - (2) by submitting an online report form through a dedicated link established for this purpose and monitored by the Head of HRM, being OECD.ReportMisconduct@oecd.org or by sending it by email or post to any of the persons mentioned in (1) above.
13. The persons mentioned in paragraph 12(1) other than the Head of HRM shall refer promptly any reports of alleged misconduct to the Head of HRM or, in the circumstances described in paragraphs 7 and 8, to the Secretary-General. The Head of HRM shall normally acknowledge receipt of the report of alleged misconduct to the reporting person where their identity is known.

Preliminary review

14. The Head of HRM shall, before an investigation of alleged misconduct is opened, conduct a preliminary review in order to determine whether there is a sufficient and credible basis to open an investigation. The purpose of the preliminary review, is to assess whether (i) the alleged conduct, if established, would amount to a breach of the internal rules of the Organisation; and (ii) the verifiability, reliability and materiality of the allegations, taking into account such aspects as: (A) the length of time that has elapsed since the alleged misconduct occurred; (B) the specificity of the information received; and (C) the availability of necessary records, evidence and witnesses; and (D) the gravity of the alleged misconduct (hereafter the “preliminary assessment criteria”). Although not required, the preliminary review may involve contacting any person deemed relevant to obtain further background information or clarification. Where the identity of the reporting person is known, they shall normally be given the opportunity to be heard as part of the preliminary review.

15. Prior to the completion of the preliminary review, the Head of HRM shall consult with the Head of Ethics on the decision whether, consistent with the preliminary assessment criteria set out in paragraph 14, to open an investigation, close the matter and/or take any other action, that the Head of HRM contemplates to take.
16. The decision of the Head of HRM to open an investigation, close the matter and/or take any other action shall normally be taken within 2 months of the date when the allegations are brought to the attention of the Head of HRM, unless, in justified circumstances, the Head of HRM considers that additional time is needed.
17. If the Head of HRM determines that an investigation is not feasible or warranted, as soon as practicable following the preliminary review, the reporting person, where identified, will be informed that the review of their report of alleged misconduct has been concluded without an investigation, including a brief rationale behind such decision. If an investigation to be conducted under this Annex has been opened, the reporting person will be informed as soon as practicable by the Head of HRM taking into account the need to protect the effectiveness of the investigation.

Knowingly false or reckless statements

18. Staff are under a duty not to bring frivolous or malicious charges. Any report of alleged misconduct by a staff that is knowingly false or made in reckless disregard of the truth will be considered a violation of the Organisation’s standards of conduct and may lead to disciplinary action. Similarly, any statement or other information provided by any staff in the course of the investigative procedure that is knowingly false or made in reckless disregard of the truth, will be considered a violation of the Organisation’s standards of conduct and may lead to disciplinary action.

Presumption of innocence

19. The launching of an investigation in no way implies that the Organisation considers that any misconduct has taken place. It is only at the conclusion of a disciplinary action that the Organisation may decide that a staff has engaged in misconduct and impose a disciplinary measure.

Appointment of an investigator

20. The Head of HRM, in consultation with the Executive Director, shall appoint one or more individual from inside or outside the Organisation to conduct the investigation and may arrange for other types of assistance to the investigator(s). The Head of HRM shall issue terms of reference to the investigator(s) defining the scope and general conditions of the investigation entrusted to them.
21. In conducting the investigation, the investigator shall act independently, objectively and impartially and shall avoid any conflict of interest or the appearance thereof. If there is any doubt in this regard, the investigator shall refer the matter to the Head of HRM who, in consultation with the Head of Ethics and the Executive Director, shall decide whether to appoint a replacement and provide for additional time for the new investigator to carry its investigation in an orderly manner.
22. If a new investigator is appointed, they shall decide whether to continue the investigation on the basis of the information already gathered, as well as the nature and seriousness of the conflict of interest concerns, to repeat any procedural steps or to begin the investigation again in relation to some or all of this information. Should the investigator contemplate taking a course of action that would delay further the completion of the investigation, they shall inform the Head of HRM and solicit their views and suggestions.
23. If an investigator is unable to continue the investigation for some other reason, the Head of HRM, in consultation with the Executive Director, shall appoint a new investigator and provide for additional time for the new investigator to carry out the investigation in an orderly manner. The new investigator shall decide on the most appropriate manner of continuing the investigation in light of the information gathered up to that point.

24. The Head of HRM shall retain overall responsibility for the efficient discharge of the investigative procedure.

Confidentiality

25. All aspects of the investigative procedure shall be conducted discreetly, with due regard for confidentiality and preserving the privacy of those involved in the matter under investigation, whether as the subject, the reporting person or as interviewee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the identity of such persons may be disclosed where the alleged misconduct cannot be properly investigated without disclosing such identity (e.g., in cases involving interpersonal conflicts).
26. The investigator may, at their discretion, share information about investigative activities with persons who have a legitimate need to know this information, as deemed appropriate for the investigation, in order to protect the Organisation's interests and/or to safeguard all relevant evidence and/or property.
27. Issues discussed during an investigation are confidential, and anyone involved in an investigative procedure or questioned by an investigator must not divulge to others the information discussed or obtained, except on a need-to-know basis. This includes the fact of the investigation, the name of the subject, reporting person, or interviewees, details of the alleged misconduct, content of their or other persons' interview(s), or the nature of their participation. If in doubt, anyone involved in an investigative procedure must contact the investigator or the Head of HRM, as relevant, for guidance and receive their written consent before sharing any such information.
28. The investigator may consult with any internal resources (e.g., Directorate for Legal Affairs, HRM, the Ethics Office, Internal Audit, the Data Protection Office, etc.,) as the investigator deems appropriate in the course of the investigation.
29. The investigator shall comply with the Organisation's rules regarding data protection (Annex XII to the Staff Regulations).

Precautionary measures

30. At any time during the investigative procedure, the Head of HRM may decide, in order to safeguard evidence, ensure a proper investigation, protect the interests of the Organisation or protect persons involved in this procedure, to apply one or more of the following precautionary measures:
- (i) Relieve the staff of specific duties;
 - (ii) Suspend the staff from duty with pay;
 - (iii) Prevent the staff from having access to the Organisation's IT or telecommunication facilities and equipment, or having such access limited;
 - (iv) Prohibit the staff from entering all or any part of the Organisation's premises; and/or
 - (v) Such other precautionary measures as may be necessary or appropriate to apply from the perspective of the investigative procedure or the interests of the Organisation.
31. If a staff who is suspended from duty with pay as a precautionary measure is dismissed at the end of the disciplinary action, the Organisation shall not make any payment on account of unutilised annual leave.
32. The staff subject to precautionary measures under this Annex shall be notified in writing of any such measures, the reason for their imposition and their duration. The imposition of precautionary measures shall not be viewed as a disciplinary measure nor imply or entail any presumption that this staff has engaged in misconduct.

33. The precautionary measures under this Annex may be imposed by the Head of HRM in addition to any interim protection measures decided pursuant to Annex XXVIII (Decision of the Secretary-General on protection against retaliation for reporting misconduct (Whistleblower Protection Policy)) (the “Whistleblower Protection Policy”) or to management measures taken to ensure a serene, cohesive and efficient working environment.

Conduct of the investigation

34. Investigative activities shall aim at gathering and review of the evidence available, both inculpatory and exculpatory, that is, evidence that either substantiates or disproves an allegation, and/or contributes to identifying perpetrators and/or establishing relevant surrounding circumstances. Investigative findings and conclusions shall be determined through an impartial, objective, and independent process of information gathering and analysis, which may include reasonable inferences, and are based on substantiated facts.

35. The investigator shall pursue the lines of inquiry as the investigator considers reasonable and appropriate. Investigations shall be conducted with due regard to confidentiality, and respecting the procedural safeguards to be accorded to those involved, and the presumption of innocence of the subject of the investigation.

36. After an investigation is initiated, the investigator shall notify the subject of the opening of the investigation in writing, specifying the alleged misconduct under investigation and the internal rules of the Organisation allegedly breached.

37. The timing of such notification shall be determined by the investigator taking into account the circumstances of the individual case, including the risk of destruction of or tampering with information and/or evidence, intimidation of, or attempt to influence, prospective interviewees, or other actions that may compromise the investigation.

38. The subject shall cooperate fully with an investigation. If the subject refuses to cooperate, the investigator and the Organisation shall be entitled to draw an adverse inference regarding such refusal.

Interviews

39. The investigator may interview, on one or more occasions, staff or any other persons who the investigator considers may have information relevant to the investigation. However, the subject may not be interviewed until they have been given reasonable notification of the investigation (see paragraphs 36 and 47(i) and prior notice of the interview.

40. The investigator must explain to all interviewees the extent to which it may be necessary to disclose to the subject and/or the reporting person the information the interviewees provided, for such information to be relied on in the investigative findings and conclusions and possible disciplinary action.

41. Staff must disclose all the information in their possession that may be relevant to the investigation and must in particular answer the investigator’s questions to the best of their knowledge during the interview and in all exchanges with the investigator. They must also provide any documents or other elements of evidence requested by the investigator during the course of the interview or within the deadlines provided by the investigator. However, to protect the integrity and effectiveness of any informal dispute resolution process conducted in accordance with the Decision of the Secretary-General on Conflict Resolution and Harassment Prevention and Resolution (Annex XX), staff shall not disclose information acquired solely in the course of such process.

42. The investigator shall, wherever reasonably possible, interview the subject and follow the steps below:

- (i) interviews of the subject shall be recorded on a recording device; and

- (ii) a copy of the recording of the interviews of the subject and, if transcribed, a copy of their transcript, will be made available to the subject, no later than when the draft investigation report is provided to them as provided for in paragraph 47(iii) below.

Investigator's access to records and physical evidence

43. If needed for the investigation, the investigator may require the Organisation to produce documents or other information and have access to all the premises of the Organisation, seek and collect all relevant evidence, including examining, copying, and seizing all or any portion of physical and electronic documents and records, subject to the procedures outlined in the Executive Director's Guidelines on Access to Individual Electronic Accounts. The investigator may also access and search all of the Organisation's premises, as well as physical items, including desks, offices and other storage facilities on the Organisation's premises or under control of the Organisation, and may require the return of any Organisation-owned electronic or telephonic equipment. Any search or seizure of tangible evidence from the workspace of the subject or other staff should be performed in the presence of another person.
44. On an exceptional basis, access to records or documents or to the premises of the Organisation may be deemed to be sensitive by the Organisation, particularly when this might interfere significantly with its smooth operation or be detrimental to its relations with Members, partners countries or other international organisations, or expose it to a significant risk. In such cases, access will be subject to the authorisation of the Secretary-General, who will decide on a case-by-case basis in line with the subject and nature of the request. Where appropriate, the sensitive record or document may be forwarded to the investigator after deleting paragraphs or passages that are not relevant to the investigation under way.

Duties of staff regarding the investigative procedure

45. Staff have a duty to cooperate with any investigative procedure. They shall also not interfere with an investigative procedure including, without limitation, by :
- (i) knowingly making false or misleading statements;
 - (ii) destroying or tampering with information and/or evidence;
 - (iii) interfering with, or retaliating against, someone who has provided or is expected to provide information, or threatening to interfere or retaliate, either during or after an investigative procedure;
 - (iv) violating the confidentiality of the investigative process; and
 - (v) any other conduct that materially interferes with the ability of the Head of HRM or the investigator to conduct a preliminary review or an investigation or undermines the integrity of the investigative procedure.
46. Where substantiated, any such interference may be considered as misconduct and result in disciplinary action.

Procedural safeguards for the subject

47. The subject shall be afforded the following protections in relation to the investigation:
- (i) To be notified in writing of the allegations against them;
 - (ii) To be given the opportunity to respond to the allegations and evidence presented against them as well as to provide exculpatory evidence, respecting the deadlines set by the investigator. This may include proposing the names of witnesses who might corroborate their statements. However, the investigator may, at their discretion, decide on the individuals to be interviewed, and there is no obligation on the part of the investigator to interview any or all individuals suggested by the subject.
 - (iii) To be given the opportunity to review and comment on the accuracy the factual elements of the draft investigation report before it is finalised.
 - (iv) A subject shall not be the subject of another investigative procedure concerning the same instance of alleged misconduct unless new evidence comes to the attention of the Organisation.

Procedural safeguards for certain reporting persons

48. Individuals who report misconduct and who allege to be the direct subject of such misconduct shall be afforded the following protection in the course of the investigation:
- (i) To have an opportunity to be interviewed by the investigator; and
 - (ii) To propose the names of witnesses. However, the investigator may, at their discretion, decide on the individuals to be interviewed, and there is no obligation on the part of the investigator to interview all individuals suggested by the reporting person.

Investigation Report

49. Upon completion of an investigation, the investigator shall prepare a report on the investigation and, subject to the right of the subject to review the factual elements of the draft investigation report and comment on their accuracy (see paragraph 47(iii) above), submit the investigation report to the Head of HRM, who shall transmit the report to the staff authorised to initiate disciplinary action, if different.
50. The investigator shall submit the investigation report within three months of the date of their appointment, unless there are particular circumstances requiring an additional period of time and the Head of HRM has approved an extension of the period upon request of the investigator.
51. The investigation report, which shall be strictly confidential, shall fairly reflect the information that is relevant to the allegations of misconduct, whether inculpatory or exculpatory. The investigation report shall, at a minimum, contain the following:
- (i) a summary of the allegations of misconduct with the records of the interviews attached as annexes to the investigation report, subject to the possibility of the investigator not to disclose the identity of certain interviewees under sub-paragraph iv);
 - (ii) the regulations, rules or standards of conduct relevant to the alleged misconduct;
 - (iii) the methodology and procedure followed in conducting the investigation;
 - (iv) a list of the persons interviewed, except if the investigator deems it essential not to disclose the identity of an interviewee for their protection;
 - (v) a description of the evidence relied upon to support the findings in the report; and,
 - (vi) conclusions about whether the allegations of misconduct have been substantiated in full or in part, or whether the evidence either does not support a finding of misconduct or is insufficient to make such a finding;
 - (vii) in annex, the list of relevant evidence gathered during the investigation, whether supporting or disproving the allegations.

Action taken following the investigation report

52. Upon receipt of the investigation report, the authority entitled to initiate the disciplinary action may decide to initiate disciplinary action against the subject.
53. If the disciplinary authority decides on the initiation of disciplinary action, the investigation report shall be shared in full with the subject, who shall be allowed to provide comments on it and further rebuttal evidence, as well as arguments in their defence in the context of the disciplinary action.
54. If the disciplinary action was initiated on the basis of a report of alleged misconduct, the Head of HRM shall inform the reporting person of the overall outcome of the matter in general terms, but without any duty to share the investigation report or any other information relevant to the matter with the reporting person.

Prohibition against retaliation

55. Any retaliation or threat of retaliation against persons reporting alleged misconduct to the Organisation, or against individuals participating in the investigative procedure (for example, as interviewees), may be considered a violation of the Whistleblower Protection Policy (Annex XXVIII) and shall be addressed as such under that Annex.

Referral to national authorities

56. If it is considered appropriate to involve the national police and/or judicial authorities, the Secretary-General may refer the matter to the competent authorities in whole or in part at any time. In such cases, the Secretary-General may decide to share any evidence gathered in the course of an investigation, if it took place, and any other pertinent information with the authorities, as appropriate.

Reporting on investigations

57. The Head of Ethics, with the input from the Head of HRM, shall include information on matters reported and the investigations conducted during the relevant reporting period in the annual report of the Head of Ethics, which shall be prepared in line with Article 3(g) of Annex XXVII. The annual report shall only include information presented in a depersonalised manner to protect in particular the privacy, reputation and right to due process of the individuals concerned.

Entry into force

58. This Decision shall enter into force on 1 March 2025.

III. Responsibilities

3. As part of their official duties, assessing managers are required to conduct a performance assessment for each of their direct reports. Failing to do so in accordance with this Decision may be documented in their own end-year review and be taken into account for their own final performance rating.
4. For officials at grades A7 and EL-3, the performance assessment shall be conducted by the Secretary-General, after consultation, where applicable, with the Deputy Secretary-General responsible for the relevant output areas of the official. In the Economics Department (ECO), the Chief Economist shall be responsible for conducting the performance assessment of other officials of grades A7 and EL3 and propose such assessment to the Secretary-General, who shall take this into account for the initial performance rating.
5. The assessing managers, except for the Secretary-General and Directors, are responsible for proposing an initial performance rating proposal to the Director for the initial calibration exercise.
6. A performance rating proposal shall then be temporarily set, following the initial calibration exercise, by:
 - a. Directors for officials up to and including grade A6, in the job families GA, PAL, CF and EL-1 EL-2 grades; and
 - b. The Secretary-General for officials of grade A7 and EL3 and any of his/her direct reports.
7. The final performance rating shall be decided, following the final calibration exercise, by:
 - a. Directors for officials up to and including grade A6, in the job families GA, PAL, CF and EL-1 EL-2 grades; and
 - b. The Secretary-General for officials of grade A7 and EL3 and any of his/her direct reports.
8. In exceptional circumstances, the Head of Human Resource Management shall identify the decision-making authority and the corresponding actors to enable implementation of the Performance Management procedures.

IV Performance Management process

9. Subject to the provisions applicable to newly appointed officials described in §V. below, the performance year for officials is structured as follows:

¹ Regulation 9 bis enters into force on 1 July 2025. See document C(2023)125/REV5.

- a. Annual Performance Agreement – should normally be agreed by end of January of the performance year
- b. Mid-year review – should normally be completed by end of June of the performance year
- c. 180-Degree Feedback – should normally be completed by end of October of the performance year
- d. End-year review – should normally be completed by end of December of the performance year

V. Performance Management process for newly appointed officials

10. For officials appointed from 1 January to 30 June:

- a. The first Annual Performance Agreement shall be set within 30 days of taking up duty.
- b. They are not required to undertake the mid-year review as detailed in §VII of this Decision; however, at least one meeting with their assessing manager to discuss the progress of the first Annual Performance Agreement is required within six months of taking up duty.
- c. The end-year review as detailed in §IX. of this Decision shall be carried out with respect to the first Annual Performance Agreement. However, these officials shall not be given a performance rating unless, at the time of the end-year review, their appointments have already been confirmed following their probationary period.
- d. A new Annual Performance Agreement shall be set in January of the year following the year the official took up duty in cases where the probationary period of these officials is continuing, or their appointment has been confirmed.

11. For officials appointed from 1 July to 31 December:

- a. The first Annual Performance Agreement shall be set within 30 days of taking up duty.
- b. No end-year review shall take place in the first performance year, however at least one meeting with the official's assessing manager to discuss the progress of the first Annual Performance Agreement is required within six months of taking up duty.
- c. The first Annual Performance Agreement, adjusted where necessary under the conditions laid out in this Decision, will be valid until the end of the performance year following the year the official took up duty, or the expiry of the appointment, whichever occurs first.
- d. These officials shall not receive a performance rating with respect to the first Annual Performance Agreement unless, at the end-year review their appointments have already been confirmed following their probationary period.

12. When setting the first Annual Performance Agreement pursuant to paragraph 15, newly appointed officials and their assessing manager shall agree on the expected progress of the first Annual Performance Agreement by the end of the probationary period. In the event that no agreement is reached by the assessing manager and the direct report on such expected progress, the progress levels set by the assessing manager shall be considered as those applicable.

VI. Annual Performance Agreement

- 13. The Annual Performance Agreement aims to contribute to the successful implementation of the Organisation's Programme of Work and Budget in the area relevant to the work of the direct report.
- 14. At the beginning of a performance year, assessing managers shall organise an individual meeting with each of their direct reports. The objective for this meeting is to agree on the SMART objectives to include in the Annual Performance Agreement.
- 15. The Annual Performance Agreement includes a minimum of three and maximum of six SMART objectives and an acknowledgement of the core competencies corresponding to the level of the functions of the official. Excepting cases which fall under paragraph 11 c), SMART objectives should be achievable within the relevant performance year.

16. Direct reports shall acknowledge the Annual Performance Agreement in the relevant performance form.
17. During the performance year, the Annual Performance Agreement of the official may be adjusted in line with regular feedback meetings and the mid-year review, or in the event of a change affecting the working hours, functions, responsibilities or priorities of the direct report. These adjustments shall be discussed and agreed upon by the direct report and the assessing manager and recorded in the relevant performance form.
18. In the event that no agreement is reached by the assessing manager and the direct report regarding the Annual Performance Agreement or its adjustment during the performance year, the SMART objectives set by the assessing manager shall be considered as those applicable.

VII. Mid-year review

19. During the performance year, assessing managers shall organise an individual mid-year review meeting with their direct reports to discuss the progress of the content of the Annual Performance Agreement to enable and support them to achieve their objectives.
20. Direct reports and their assessing managers shall acknowledge that this meeting has taken place in the relevant performance form.
21. When an assessing manager considers that the official is at risk of not satisfactorily achieving the SMART objectives or of not reaching the expected level of core competencies set out in the Annual Performance Agreement, the assessing manager shall record it in the relevant performance form and this shall be notified to the direct report, who may provide comments.
22. In addition to the mid-year review, should assessing managers consider at any point during the performance year that their direct report's performance is unsatisfactory, to the extent that the SMART objectives are not progressing or that the official is failing to meet the expected level of core competencies as outlined in the Annual Performance Agreement, they shall issue a 'performance warning'. Such warning shall be notified to the direct report in writing and be accompanied by specific guidance outlining the expectations required and the necessary measures for improvement.

VIII. 180-Degree Feedback

23. If an assessing manager has two or more direct reports, direct reports shall be given a formal opportunity, during the performance year, to provide written feedback to their assessing manager via the relevant performance form.
24. Feedback shall be sought based on the behaviours associated with the OECD Core Competency Framework at the relevant level in the spirit of professional growth, development and continuous improvement.
25. Results of the feedback shall be made available to the assessing manager, their own manager and other relevant persons in the Directorate and Human Resource Service working on Performance Management.
26. Assessing managers should discuss the results of the feedback with their manager and the feedback may be used by the latter during the end-year review when discussing performance.

IX. End-year review

27. At the end of the performance year, assessing managers shall organise an individual end-year review meeting with each of their direct reports to discuss and record progress made on the Annual Performance Agreement.

28. Direct reports and their assessing managers shall acknowledge that this meeting has taken place in the relevant performance form.
29. In addition to this acknowledgement, a written record of the achievement of the Annual Performance Agreement for the whole performance year shall be entered by the direct report ('self-assessment') and by the assessing manager ('assessing manager write-up'). The direct report shall then have, during ten calendar days, the option to provide comments on the assessing manager's write-up.
30. Disagreement of the direct report with the assessing manager write-up has no effect on the proper conduct of the end-year review and the responsibility for the assessing manager to submit a performance rating proposal as per paragraph 35.

X. Performance Assessment

31. Following the end-year review meeting detailed in paragraph 27, assessing managers shall conduct a performance assessment to assess the achievement of the Annual Performance Agreement of their direct reports. SMART objectives and core competencies shall be assessed in the relevant performance form.
32. If, during the performance year, an official has worked in more than one Directorate, or has changed assessing manager in the same Directorate, the assessing manager to which the official reports at the time of the end-year review shall collect the written comments of the official's previous assessing manager(s) during the performance year, where available.

Absences of more than six months during a performance year

33. Officials who, during the performance year, have totalled more than six months of absence shall receive a final performance rating of '0 – Unable to assess Annual Performance Agreement' if their absence is justified by at least one of the following reasons:
 - a. Sick leave,
 - b. Non-active status for reasons of illness,
 - c. Non-active status for personal reasons or military service; or
 - d. Unpaid long-term training leave.
34. If an official's Annual Performance is rated as '0 – Unable to Assess Performance', no advancement or days of exceptional leave shall be granted to the official.

Initial performance rating proposal

35. Subject to paragraphs 10 c) and 11 d), the assessing manager shall propose, following the end-year review meeting, an initial performance rating in the relevant performance form. Such proposed rating shall be made in accordance with the ratings described in paragraph 44 of this Decision.

Calibration exercises

Initial calibration exercise

36. An initial calibration exercise shall be conducted to ensure the consistency and fairness of performance assessments and performance rating proposals across each Directorate. For officials up to and including grade A6, in the job families GA, PAL, CF and grades EL1 and EL2, the initial calibration exercise shall be carried out by the relevant Director, their Deputy or Deputies, the Heads of Division of their Directorate and a member of the Human Resource Management Service appointed by the Head of Human Resource Management. These officials shall not participate in the calibration exercise concerning their own performance. In preparation for the initial calibration exercise, performance assessments, including initial performance rating proposals, shall be communicated by the assessing managers to the relevant Director.

37. For officials of grade A7 and EL3, as well as direct reports to the Secretary-General, the initial calibration exercise shall be carried out by the Secretary-General, the Deputy Secretaries-General, the Chief of Staff and the Head of Human Resource Management. During this calibration exercise:
38. The Chief of Staff shall not participate in the calibration exercise concerning their own performance;
39. The Head of Human Resource Management shall not participate in the calibration exercise concerning the Executive Director's performance.
40. The initially calibrated performance assessments, including performance rating proposals, shall be submitted to the Corporate Review Group (CRG) for the final calibration exercise.

Final calibration exercise

41. Following the initial calibration exercise, a Corporate Review Group meeting (CRG) shall be convened to conduct a final calibration exercise.
42. The function of the CRG shall be as an advisory body to the Secretary-General and Directors on consistency and fairness of performance assessments and performance rating proposals across the Organisation.
43. The CRG shall be chaired by a Deputy Secretary-General and shall include the Chief of Staff, the Executive Director and three additional Directors at grade A7 or EL3, as determined by the chair.

Final Performance Rating

44. Following the final calibration exercise and considering the advice of the CRG, the Directors shall decide, subject to paragraphs 10 c) and 11 d), on the attribution of one of the following ratings:

'3 – Performance Exceeded': The SMART objectives and core competencies set in the Annual Performance Agreement, adjusted where necessary, are fully achieved and several have been exceeded. The SMART objectives have been exceeded and behaviours demonstrated by the official throughout the performance year are at a level more advanced than would be expected of the official in their function and at their grade and level of responsibility as outlined in the OECD Core Competency Framework. The official's contribution has significantly exceeded expectations on several occasions.

'2 – Performance Achieved': The SMART objectives and core competencies set in the Annual Performance Agreement, adjusted where necessary, have been fully achieved. The SMART objectives have been fully met and behaviours demonstrated by the official throughout the performance year are at a level that would be expected of the official in their function and at their grade and level of responsibility as outlined in the OECD Core Competency Framework.

'1 – Performance Not Achieved': The SMART objectives and core competencies set in the Annual Performance Agreement, adjusted where necessary, have not been achieved. The SMART objectives have not been fully or partially met and/or behaviours demonstrated by the official throughout the performance year were not at the level that would be expected of the official in their function and at their grade and level of responsibility as outlined in the OECD Core Competency Framework, or were in contradiction to the behaviours outlined in the Core Competency Framework. A Performance Improvement Plan shall be implemented for officials whose Annual Performance Agreement receives this final rating.

'0 – Unable to Assess Performance': The circumstances of the official throughout the period of assessment were such that it was impossible to fully assess the Annual Performance Agreement, adjusted where necessary. This rating may also apply to managers in the event they have not done the performance assessments for which they are responsible.

45. Except in exceptional circumstances, the performance of assessing managers or Directors cannot be rated '2 – Performance Achieved' or '3 – Performance Exceeded' if they have not done the performance assessments for which they are responsible.

46. Officials shall be notified of their final performance rating, as decided by the Secretary-General or the relevant Director. The final performance rating shall be recorded on the relevant performance form, which shall be stored in the personal file of the official.
47. The performance assessment for a given year is completed once the official is notified of their final performance rating.

XI. Advancement and exceptional paid leave

48. Unless they are at the top step in their grade, the advancement of officials having received a final performance rating of '3 – Performance Exceeded' or '2 – Performance Achieved' shall take the form of the granting of one step in the salary scale applicable to them.
49. If an official's annual performance is rated as '3 – Performance Exceeded', the official shall be granted, in addition to the step referred to in paragraph 48, three days of exceptional paid leave as set out in Regulation 20 j) of the Staff Regulations. This exceptional paid leave can be either taken in the current leave cycle or paid at the choice of the official.
50. If an official's annual performance is rated as '1 – Performance Not Achieved' no step or days of exceptional paid leave shall be granted to the official and, if it is not already the case, a Performance Improvement Plan shall be implemented pursuant to §XIII. below.
51. If an official's annual performance is rated as '0 – Unable to Assess Performance' no step or days of exceptional leave shall be granted to the official.

XII. Date of effect of advancement

52. A step increase, pursuant to paragraph 48, shall take effect on 1 May of the assessment year.
53. However, except in exceptional circumstances, if the direct report has not completed all the relevant steps assigned to them in the performance forms for the relevant performance year, their step advancement shall only start in the month following the completion of all such tasks.

XIII. Performance Improvement Plan

Initiation of the Performance Improvement Plan

54. Subject to paragraphs 67 and 69, a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) shall be initiated:
 - a. after the notification of a 'performance warning', in accordance with paragraph 22, if within a period of at least three months following such notification, the official's performance and/or behaviour has not improved despite the specific guidance provided for improvement. In this case, a PIP will begin not earlier than three months following the notification of the performance warning; or
 - b. when an official is notified of a performance rating of '1 – Performance Not Achieved', provided that the assessing manager had previously issued a performance warning in accordance with paragraph 22, and the official's performance and/or behaviour has not improved despite the specific guidance provided for improvement. In this case, a PIP will begin within 30 calendar days of the notification of the final performance rating.
55. A PIP shall be initiated for a duration of six months, after consultation between the assessing manager and:
56. The relevant Director (if different) and the Head of HRM for officials up to and including grade A6, in the job families GA, PAL, CF and EL-1, EL-2 grades; and
57. Where applicable, the Deputy Secretary-General responsible for the relevant output areas of officials of grade A7 and EL3.

58. The official shall be informed that failure to improve performance by the end of the PIP may result in the termination of their appointment for unsatisfactory performance, pursuant to Regulation 11 a) i)³ .
59. The relevant performance form, setting out the SMART objectives to be achieved and the core competencies to be improved during the PIP period, shall be signed:
- a. For officials up to and including grade A6, in the job families GA, PAL, CF and EL-1 EL-2 grades, by the relevant Director, the assessing manager (if different) and a representative of the Human Resource Management Service; and
 - b. For officials of grade A7 and EL3, by the Secretary-General and the Head of Human Resource Management Service.

Implementation of the Performance Improvement Plan

60. During the PIP, a meeting shall take place between the official and the assessing manager at least once a month, save exceptional circumstances. During these meetings the assessing manager shall take stock of the official's progress and make written comments which shall be entered into the relevant performance form. The official may add comments within eight working days.

Outcome of the Performance Improvement Plan

61. At the end of the PIP, the assessing manager shall assess the success of the PIP. The assessment shall be entered into the relevant performance form which shall be communicated to the official. The official may add comments to the relevant performance form within ten working days.
62. The assessment referred to in paragraph 61 may conclude that:
- a. The SMART objectives and core competencies defined in the PIP have been met. In such cases:
 - i. The assessing manager shall determine, in consultation with the official, the SMART objectives and core competencies to be achieved for the remainder of the performance year.
 - ii. An Annual Performance Agreement shall be set for the following performance year in accordance with §VI and the usual performance assessment procedures under this Annex shall resume.
 - b. The SMART objectives and core competencies defined in the PIP have not been met:
 - i. In such case, the Secretary-General may terminate the official's appointment for unsatisfactory performance, pursuant to Regulation 11 a) i)³ of the Staff Regulations; or
 - ii. In exceptional cases, the Head of Human Resource Management may decide to extend the PIP once for an additional period of three months where the objectives set in the PIP have been partly achieved, when the assessing manager, in agreement with the relevant director (if different), considers that an extension of the PIP could allow the official to perform at the level required.
63. A PIP may be limited to the period remaining to run before the end date of an official's fixed-term appointment. It shall not give any entitlement to the renewal of such appointment. The implementation of a PIP shall not preclude the Secretary-General from terminating the appointment on grounds provided for under Staff Regulation 11.

XIV. Documentation

64. The Annual Performance Agreement, 180-Degree Feedback, mid-year review, end-year review and Performance Improvement Plan (if applicable), shall be filed in the official's personnel file.

² As of 1 July 2025, the regulation referred to in this paragraph will be Regulation 11 b) iii) in lieu of Regulation 11 a) i). See document C(2023)125/REV5.

³ Applicable regulation will be 11 b) iii) as of 1 July 2025.

XV. Disputes

65. An official wishing to contest a decision relating to their performance assessment or their advancement may do so following the notification of their final performance rating or, if applicable, the final outcome of a PIP. They shall submit their claim to the Re-evaluation Commission in accordance with Staff Regulation 22 b) and the related Instructions.
66. Referral to the Re-evaluation Commission is a mandatory step prior to filing an application with the Administrative Tribunal referred to in Staff Regulation 22 c).
67. Officials who wish to contest a decision relating to their performance assessment are highly encouraged to engage with EXD/HRM with a view to considering mediation before submitting a claim to the Re-evaluation Commission.
68. If an official expresses in writing to the Head of Human Resource Management or their assessing manager their willingness to have recourse to mediation regarding their performance assessment within 8 working days following the notification of their final performance rating, the timeframe provided for in Staff Instruction 122/2.3 shall be suspended until mediation ends⁴. This suspension of the time-limit to contest a decision before the Re-evaluation Commission does not apply if the decision under mediation relates to the outcome of the PIP.
69. If a mediation starts before the initiation of a PIP pursuant to paragraph 54, such initiation shall be postponed until mediation ends. Such postponement applies irrespective of when mediation is requested by the official provided that the PIP has not yet been initiated.

- 1.2 The Organisation is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards. These are set out in Title II of the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to officials², complemented by decisions made by the Secretary-General or under his or her authority. The Code of Conduct for OECD officials contributes to disseminating those standards and to enhancing their understanding and compliance.
- 1.3 The role of the Head of Ethics is to foster an environment within the Organisation that is conducive to integrity, openness and effectiveness at all levels. In this connection, the Head of Ethics is to advise the Secretary-General and all staff on the ethical standards of the Organisation, and to help staff better understand, apply, and take ownership of, these ethical standards in the performance of their functions.

Article 2 – Appointment and reporting

- 2.1 The Head of Ethics shall be appointed by the Secretary-General, for a period of five years. This appointment may be renewed once, for a period of three years.
- 2.2 The Head of Ethics shall report directly to the Secretary-General.

Article 3 – Functions

The Head of Ethics shall carry out the following functions:

- a) provide advice and guidance to staff on any questions regarding ethical standards. The advisory role of the Head of Ethics does not, however, replace the need to obtain appropriate approvals, as applicable and when required under the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to officials;
- b) provide information on the Organisation's ethical standards and promote awareness of these standards across the Organisation, including through communication and training;
- c) advise the Head of Human Resource Management and the Secretary-General on the approvals given to staff with respect to:
 - i. external activities, giving particular emphasis to the need to avoid conflicts of interest or perception thereof;
 - ii. any gratuity or benefit received in connection with official duties; and
 - iii. honorary distinctions.
- d) perform the role and functions provided for in the Decision of the Secretary-General concerning the Investigation Procedure within the Organisation³;

¹ The title of the person holding the function may vary over time.

² Temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation, and interns are to abide by the same standards of conduct as officials. Therefore, for the purpose of this Decision, the reference to "staff" shall be understood to include officials and also temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation and interns.

³ See Annex XXV – Decision of the Secretary-General Concerning the Investigation Procedure within the Organisation.

- e) perform the role and functions provided for in the Decision of the Secretary-General on the Policy on Protection Against Retaliation for Reporting Misconduct (Whistleblower Protection Policy)⁴;
- f) monitor the effectiveness of the ethics framework and propose to the Head of Human Resource Management and to the Secretary-General amendments to this framework, where and as necessary, so as to ensure that this framework remains sound, fit for purpose – in light of the nature and activities of the Organisation – and in line with best practices; and
- g) issue an annual report to the Secretary-General, who will make it available to all staff and present it to the Council.

Article 4 – Independence and impartiality

In the performance of his or her functions, the Head of Ethics shall be independent from all stakeholders and provide impartial advice.

Article 5 – Confidentiality

5.1 The Head of Ethics shall treat all requests and all information confined to him or her as strictly confidential.

5.2 There might be cases, however, where the Head of Ethics may have to disclose information provided to him or her. These cases shall be limited to the following situations:

- a) the persons raising the concern have given their consent to disclose information;
- b) there is a risk of imminent danger or harm towards individuals or the Organisation’s image and reputation; or
- c) such information is requested in the context of an internal investigation⁵, an internal audit, proceedings before the OECD Administrative Tribunal or a request from a judicial authority of a Member country – in the case where the Secretary-General agreed to comply with such a request.

In the above situations, the Head of Ethics shall make every effort to protect the identity of the person raising the concern.

Article 6 – Protection for acting on the basis of an advice given by the Head of Ethics

6.1 The fact, for a staff, to act on an advice provided by the Head of Ethics on a prospective action and/or activity provides the protection specified in paragraph 6.2.

6.2 A staff will not suffer adverse actions or consequences from the Organisation if he or she acts on the basis of advice given by the Head of Ethics, provided that:

- a) the advice of the Head of Ethics was provided following complete and accurate disclosure by the staff of information related to the relevant material facts; and

Article 7 – Reporting misconduct and conflict resolution

7.1 Staff can report any type of misconduct through the mechanisms and channels, including the Head of Ethics, established by the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to Officials⁶. The Head of Ethics also has the role and functions attributed to them with regard to the *Decision of the Secretary-General on the Policy on Protection Against Retaliation for Reporting Misconduct (Whistleblower Protection Policy)*⁷. In the scope of his or her advisory function, the Head of Ethics may nonetheless:

- a) direct staff wishing to report misconduct to other channels provided for in the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to officials; or
- b) draw the attention of the Head of Human Resources Management, the Executive Director or the Secretary-General to a reported breach, provided that the staff has given his or her consent to that effect or that there is a risk of imminent danger or harm towards individuals or the Organisation's image and reputation.

7.2 Similarly, the existing mechanisms relating to the resolution of disputes with the Organisation (Staff Regulation 22 Applicable to Officials of the Organisation) and the mediation of interpersonal conflicts (Annex XVI to the Staff Regulations Applicable to Officials of the Organisation), are not affected in any way by the role and functions of the Head of Ethics.

Article 8 – Coordination

To ensure consistency of his or her advice, the Head of Ethics shall seek the views of the Head of Human Resource Management and the Director for Legal Affairs, as appropriate, in novel situations or when the interpretation or application of the OECD's regulations and rules, including this Decision, requires clarification.

Article 9 – Recusal and conflict of interest

In the performance of his or her role and functions the Head of Ethics shall avoid any conflict of interest or appearance thereof. If such a situation arises in relation to a particular case, the Head of Ethics shall recuse himself or herself by referring the matter to the Secretary-General who shall appoint an ad hoc replacement on the case concerned. If the Head of Ethics has doubts about a potential conflict of interest or appearance thereof, he or she shall refer the matter to the Secretary-General, who may appoint an ad hoc replacement.

Article 10 – Cooperation with the Head of Ethics

Staff are urged to cooperate with the Head of Ethics in the performance of his or her functions.

Article 11 – Employment restrictions

11.1 The Head of Ethics may not apply or be selected for any other functions in the Organisation, during his or her appointment.

⁷ See Annex XXVIII – Decision of the Secretary-General on the Policy on Protection Against Retaliation for Reporting Misconduct (Whistleblower Protection Policy).

11.2 After the cessation of his or her functions, the Head of Ethics shall not be employed in any capacity by the Organisation nor enter into any contractual relationship with the Organisation for a period of twenty-four months from the date of cessation of his or her functions.

11.3 The above conditions shall be specified in the Head of Ethics's appointment letter.

ANNEX XXVIII - DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON THE POLICY ON PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION FOR REPORTING MISCONDUCT (WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION POLICY)

It is incumbent on all staff members¹ to abide by the standards of conduct set out in the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to them, and decisions made by the Secretary-General or under his or her authority.

The Organisation is committed to preventing and deterring misconduct, as misconduct undermines the Organisation's ability to carry out its mission effectively and may harm its image and reputation.

This Policy describes the mechanisms for reporting misconduct and the related measures to protect against retaliation targeting staff who have reported misconduct or have cooperated with an investigation or audit, as further detailed below.

Reporting misconduct

1. Misconduct shall have the meaning assigned to it in Section 3.5 of Annex XXX to the Staff Regulations (Decision of the Secretary-General on OECD Code of Conduct). Misconduct should be reported in accordance with the principles set out in the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions Applicable to Officials of the Organisation, including this Annex, as recalled below:
 - (a) in the event staff become aware of fraud, corruption or misuse of the Organisation's resources, staff must bring it to the attention of the Secretary-General either directly or through the relevant Deputy Secretary-General, Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Executive Director, the Head of HRM or the Head of Ethics.
 - (b) in the event staff become aware of any other type of misconduct, staff are expected to bring it to the attention of the Secretary-General either directly or through the relevant Deputy Secretary-General, Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Executive Director, the Head of HRM or the Head of Ethics.
2. If staff consider that the reports mentioned in paragraphs 1 (a) and (b) above have not been properly addressed, staff must bring it to the attention of the External Auditor and may bring it to the attention of the Council through the Permanent Representative holding the position of Dean.
3. Misconduct may give rise to disciplinary action, in accordance with Staff Regulation 21 applicable to officials of the Organisation.

Protection against retaliation

¹ Temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation, and interns are to abide by the same standards of conduct as officials. Therefore, for the purpose of this Decision, the reference to "staff" shall be understood to include officials and also temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation and interns.

Protected activities

4. Staff shall not be subject to any form of retaliation as a result of engaging in one of the following protected activities:
 - (a) reporting any type of misconduct;
 - (b) cooperating with an internal investigation procedure (for example, as witnesses);
 - (c) cooperating with an audit carried out by the Organisation's Internal or External Audit;
 - (d) cooperating in a procedure before the Administrative Tribunal as set out in Staff Regulation 22 applicable to Officials of the Organisation (for example, as witnesses); or
 - (e) cooperating with the judicial authorities of a Member country, following the authorisation of the Secretary-General.

Definition of retaliation

5. Any direct or indirect adverse action taken against, or prejudice suffered by, a staff as a result of him or her engaging in a protected activity is to be considered retaliation.
6. Retaliation may take the form of intimidation, threat, reprisal, harassment, discrimination, or other action that adversely affects the employment conditions of a staff, e.g. decisions pertaining to advancement, promotion, or the appointment.
7. For the purposes of this Policy, the term "retaliation" shall be understood to include threats of retaliation, when this latter term is not explicitly used for ease of reading.

Misconduct

8. Any retaliation against staff will be deemed serious misconduct, and will lead to disciplinary action.
9. Staff are under a duty to not bring frivolous or malicious charges. Doing so will be deemed serious misconduct which will lead to disciplinary action.

Reporting retaliation: general provisions

10. Staff who have reasonable grounds to believe they are the object of retaliation should report the matter to the Head of Ethics no longer than six months after the most recent act of retaliation has occurred. They should submit all relevant information and documentation in support of their allegations.
11. When receiving allegations of retaliation from a staff (hereafter, the "reporting person"), the Head of Ethics will assess as a first step if anti-retaliation measures should be put in place prior to investigating complaints of retaliation. Following consultation with the reporting person, such measures may include engaging with the supervisor(s) of the reporting person to ensure monitoring of the reporting person's workplace conditions.
12. Staff who consider that individual decisions are retaliatory may submit to the Secretary-General prior written requests for withdrawal or modification of those decisions, in accordance with Staff Regulation 22 applicable to officials of the Organisation and Article 3 of the OECD Administrative Tribunal's Statute (Annex III to the Staff Regulations Applicable to Officials of the Organisation). Time limits for submitting those prior written requests are not suspended or waived as a result of reporting retaliation to the Head of Ethics². However, when the Head of Ethics determines that retaliation did occur, he or she may recommend that such time limits be suspended or waived by the Secretary-General, as part of the recommendation (see paragraph 30 below).

Investigating complaints of retaliation

13. The Head of Ethics shall make a preliminary review of the allegations and supporting information and documentation, with a view to determining whether there is a prima facie case of retaliation.
14. There is a prima facie case of retaliation when the Head of Ethics has determined that:
 - (a) the reporting person engaged in a protected activity, as set out in paragraph 4 above, and
 - (b) there is prima facie evidence that the protected activity may have caused the alleged retaliation.
15. At the stage of the preliminary review, the Head of Ethics shall not reveal the identity of the reporting person to any third party and shall maintain the confidentiality of all communications received in relation to the complaint.
16. There might be cases, however, where the Head of Ethics may have to disclose information provided to him or her. These cases shall be limited to the following situations:
 - (a) the reporting persons have given consent to disclose information;
 - (b) there is a risk of imminent danger or harm towards individuals or the Organisation's image and reputation; or
 - (c) such information is requested in the context of an investigative procedure (as such term is defined in Annex XXV), an internal audit, proceedings before the OECD Administrative Tribunal or a request from a judicial authority of a Member country – in the case where the Secretary-General agreed to comply with such a request.

In the above situations, the Head of Ethics shall make every effort to protect the identity of the reporting person.

17. The Head of Ethics shall seek to complete the preliminary review within 30 days of receiving all information requested from the reporting person or third parties.
18. The Head of Ethics shall inform the reporting person of the determination made following the preliminary review.
19. When the Head of Ethics determines there is a prima facie case of retaliation, he or she shall notify the Head of Human Resource Management who shall open an investigation in accordance with Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations [Investigation procedure within the Organisation]. The Head of Human Resource Management will open such investigation within 30 days following the notification from the Head of Ethics.
20. The determination by the Head of Ethics that there is a prima facie case of retaliation does not prejudice the conclusion of whether retaliation did occur or not. Such conclusion may only be drawn after an investigation carried out in accordance with Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations has taken place.
21. When there is no prima facie case of retaliation, the Head of Ethics shall decide to close the matter and notify the reporting person.
22. When deciding to close the matter, the Head of Ethics may consider, however, that the concerns by the reporting person raise interpersonal, performance or managerial issues. In this case, and following consultation with the reporting person, the Head of Ethics may refer the matter to the Head of Human Resource Management with some recommendations.

Interim protection measures

23. Following the opening of an investigation into a prima facie case of retaliation in accordance with Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations, and for purposes of protecting the reporting person or any other staff, interim measures may be decided by the Head of Human Resource Management, on the recommendation of the Head of Ethics. Those measures can be decided with respect either to the reporting person or to other staff.
24. Interim measures include, inter alia:
 - (a) suspension of the implementation of the allegedly retaliatory decision or action;

- (b) adjustment of the working conditions, such as the setup of teleworking or flexible working hours arrangements, change of office or workstation or reassignment to another unit; or
- (c) release from service with pay.

The measures of adjustment of the working conditions or release from service with pay are precautionary and should in no way be interpreted as disciplinary sanctions or as prejudging any decision with respect to the staff subjected to such measures.

Determination upon completion of the investigation

25. For the purposes of this Policy and notwithstanding the provisions of Annex XXV to the Staff Regulations, the investigator shall submit the report to the Head of Ethics. Such report shall be submitted within three months of the date of his or her appointment, unless there are particular circumstances requiring an additional period of time and the Head of Ethics, after consultation with the Head of Human Resource Management, has approved an extension of the period upon prior request of the investigator. The Head of Ethics shall provide a copy of the investigation report to the Head of Human Resource Management, for information.
26. Upon receipt of the investigation report, the Head of Ethics shall determine whether retaliation did occur.
27. The Head of Ethics shall determine whether the elements of the investigation report demonstrate that the alleged retaliatory action(s), taken or envisaged, would have been taken absent the staff's engaging in a protected activity. If, in the opinion of the Head of Ethics, demonstration of such elements is not sufficiently made, the Head of Ethics determines that retaliation did occur.
28. The Head of Ethics shall inform the reporting person of the determination made on the occurrence of retaliation.
29. When the determination is made that retaliation did not occur, the Head of Ethics shall decide to close the matter. In making this decision, the Head of Ethics may consider, however, that the concerns brought by the reporting person raise interpersonal, performance or managerial issues. In this case, the Head of Ethics may refer the matter to the Head of Human Resource Management, with some recommendations.
30. When the determination is made that retaliation did occur, the Head of Ethics shall refer the matter to the Head of Human Resource Management, with recommendations aiming at offering relief to the reporting person and preventing any further retaliation.
31. The Head of Human Resource Management, in consultation with the Executive Director, shall decide on any follow-up actions deemed appropriate, including the opening of a disciplinary action with regard to staff having engaged in retaliation, in accordance with Staff Regulation 21 of the Staff Regulations Applicable to Officials of the Organisation.
32. Any decisions made under this Policy can be contested in accordance with Staff Regulation 22 and Annex III to the Staff Regulations Applicable to Officials of the Organisation.

ANNEX XXIX – DECISION OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON THE EXTERNAL ACTIVITIES APPROVAL PROCEDURE

Article 1 – General

1. This Decision sets out the procedure for the approval of External Activities (as such term is defined in paragraph 4 below) within the Organisation (herein, the “Procedure”).⁵
2. The Organisation recognises that officials⁶ have a unique set of skills, knowledge and experience, developed over the course of their careers. As such, officials may wish to undertake External Activities for professional or personal development, or other reasons, subject to the terms and conditions of this Procedure.
3. Officials shall not engage in External Activities without the formal approval of the Organisation, except as provided herein.

Article 2 – Definition of External Activities

4. “External Activities” refer to activities conducted by officials outside the Organisation (i) for professional or personal development; and/or (ii) that officials may wish to undertake, in addition to, or outside of, their official duties for the Organisation.
5. An External Activity is distinguishable from the duties performed by officials for the Organisation in accordance with their job description, under the direction and supervision of their line management, and in accordance with the Organisation’s Programme of Work and Budget.
6. Organisational approval, as set out in this Decision, is not ordinarily required where officials are engaging in activities undertaken at the direction of their line management, as part of their official duties for the Organisation, in accordance with the Organisation’s Programme of Work and Budget.
7. Organisational approval, as set out in this Procedure, is also not ordinarily required where officials wish to engage, outside of working hours, in unremunerated, voluntary, community-based activities undertaken for a cultural, religious, charitable, social or other similar entity, provided such activities:
 - i) are compatible with their obligations as officials of the Organisation, as set out in the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to Officials of the Organisation (herein “the Staff Regulations”), and any other relevant policy;

⁶ Temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation, and interns are to abide by the same standards of conduct as officials. Therefore, while referring to “officials”, this Decision shall equally apply to all temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation and interns.

- ii) do not interfere with their duties for the Organisation; and,
- iii) do not pose a reputational risk to the Organisation or otherwise negatively impact the Organisation’s public standing or its relationship with the Member countries or other relevant stakeholders.

Examples of activities that also do not fall under the definition of an External Activity include, but are not limited to, “grass-roots” activities such as sports, personal hobbies, non-remunerated activities that are primarily artistic and/or creative in nature, such as painting, dancing, craft making or choir singing.

Article 3 – Approval Process

- 8. Officials shall request Organisational approval to engage in an External Activity by completing and submitting the External Activity Form (herein the “Form”) to the Organisation for review, assessment and, if appropriate, approval.

Role of Line Manager

- 9. The Form requesting approval to engage in an External Activity should be sent, in the first instance, to the line manager⁷ for review and assessment. Following such an assessment, the line manager should be satisfied that the proposed activity, should it be approved by the Organisation, would be compatible, and would not interfere, with the OECD duties of the official concerned. When assessing the proposed External Activity, the line manager must take into account the Assessment Criteria set out at paragraphs 17-18 below. If the line manager is satisfied that the request meets the criteria for approval as set out in this Decision, the line manager should endorse the request in the Form, which should then be submitted for further Organisational approval.

Role of the Relevant Approver

- 10. For the purposes of this Procedure, the “Relevant Approver” is as follows:
 - (i) For all officials, except executive and senior executive officials⁸, the relevant Director or, where the relevant functional unit of the Organisation is not headed by a Director, the relevant Head of Programme or Service.
 - (ii) For executive officials and senior executive officials⁹, the Secretary-General¹⁰.

⁷ For the purposes of this Procedure and the Guidance Note, the term “line manager” shall mean a person in the official’s line management who shall be, at a minimum, the Head of Unit or, where relevant, a more senior line manager. Where the Request is submitted by an official at grade A5/A6, or at grade EL1/EL2 who reports to a Director, the endorsement should be provided by the relevant Director before submission to the Secretary-General who shall be the Relevant Approver in such cases. Where the official is at grade A7 or EL3, or the official is at grade A6 or EL2 and does not report to a Director, the endorsement should be provided by the relevant Deputy Secretary-General before submission to the Secretary-General for approval.

⁹ See footnote 4 above.

¹⁰ For executive and senior executive officials assigned to the International Energy Agency (“IEA”), the Relevant Approver is the Executive Director of the IEA, who before deciding on the Request, must refer the Request to the Head of HRM, who in turn must seek the advice, as relevant, of the Head of Ethics (for matters in paragraph 18(a) to (g) below, and/ or the Director for Legal Affairs, for matters in paragraph 18 (h) below. The advice provided to the Executive Director of the IEA shall be shared by the Head of HRM with the Secretary-General, the Chief of Staff and Deputy Chief of Staff. The Executive Director of the IEA shall share the decision on the Request with the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General is the Relevant Approver for any external activity requested by the Executive Director of the IEA. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the proposed external activity involves election or appointment to public office, such requests must be, consistent with Regulation 4(c) of the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions Applicable to Officials of the Organisation, approved by the Secretary-General.

11. The Secretary-General may delegate in writing to another senior official the authority to approve requests for an External Activity.
12. Except for requests from Directors (or other officials at grade A7 or EL3) and other direct reports of the Secretary-General (which are simply signed by the requesting official), where the Secretary-General is the Relevant Approver, the request must be endorsed in the Form by both the relevant line manager and the relevant Director or, where the relevant functional unit of the Organisation is not headed by a Director, by the relevant Head of Programme or Service. All requests to engage in an External Activity for which the Secretary-General is the Relevant Approver, including those involving the External Activity described in paragraph 18(g), must be submitted for approval via the Head of Human Resource Management (“HRM”).

Role of the Head of Human Resource Management and the Head of Ethics

13. Head of Human Resource Management – The Head of HRM shall administer all requests where the Secretary-General is the Relevant Approver and, together with the Head of Ethics, advise the Secretary-General on such requests. The Head of HRM shall communicate the outcome of the Secretary-General’s decision on such requests to the requesting official and, as relevant, their Director or the Head of Programme or Service.
14. Other than as specified in paragraphs 12 and 16, all requests to engage in External Activities that involve one or more of the elements listed in paragraph 18 below, must receive the written “no-objection” of the Head of HRM prior to being approved by the Relevant Approver. When considering such requests, the Head of HRM shall seek the advice of the Head of Ethics and/or the Director for Legal Affairs, as appropriate.
15. Head of Ethics – The Head of Ethics provides advice and guidance to officials on questions regarding ethical standards, including External Activities, in accordance with Article 3 a) of Annex XXVII to the Staff Regulations¹¹. As detailed in paragraphs 13-14 above, the Head of Ethics shall also advise the Head of HRM and the Secretary-General on External Activity requests in accordance with Article 3 c) i) of Annex XXVII to the Staff Regulations.
16. Where the Head of HRM requests approval to engage in an External Activity, the Head of Ethics and the Director for Legal Affairs shall provide advice to the Secretary-General on such request. Where the Head of Ethics requests approval to engage in an External Activity, the Head of HRM and the Director for Legal Affairs shall provide advice to the Secretary-General on such request.

Assessment Criteria

17. In determining whether an External Activity may be approved, the Relevant Approver, as well as all line managers when endorsing the request on the Form, must always bear in mind the interests of the Organisation and the international character of the official’s duties for the Organisation. As part of their assessment, the Relevant Approver must seek and obtain all information that allows them to make a well-informed decision. When assessing the request, the Relevant Approver shall assess, inter alia, whether the proposed activity:
 - a) is compatible with the duties of the official concerned and their obligations as an official of the Organisation;

¹¹ Decision of the Secretary-General on the role and functions of the Ethics Officer.

- b) is compatible with the business needs of the Directorate, Programme or Service of the official concerned and does not negatively impact the delivery of the Programme of Work and Budget of the relevant Directorate, Programme or Service;
 - c) does not pose a reputational risk to the Organisation or otherwise negatively impact the Organisation's public standing or its relationship with the Member countries or other relevant stakeholders.
18. Requests to engage in External Activities that involve one or more of the elements listed in (a) – (f) and (h) below¹² require the Relevant Approver to follow the procedure described in paragraph 14 above. Requests to engage in an External Activity that involves holding of a public office must follow a procedure described in paragraph 12 above.
- a) Alternative Employment – where the External Activity involves alternative employment, i.e., employment with a third party outside the Organisation, or involves a business activity to be carried out in a personal capacity by the official in question.¹³
 - b) Significant Remuneration – where the annual remuneration or other form of revenue generated from the External Activity is at a level that is significant or disproportionate when compared to the official's annual remuneration.¹⁴¹⁵
 - c) Reputational Risk – where the proposed External Activity could be considered controversial or involves an entity or an industry which has previously been, or is currently, involved in controversy.
 - d) Conflict of Interest – where the proposed External Activity significantly overlaps with the duties that the official in question performs at the Organisation, whereby such overlap may give rise to an actual or potential conflict of interest or a perception thereof.
 - e) Executive Functions – where the proposed External Activity involves that the official concerned undertakes duties which may entail legal or other forms of liability.
 - f) Political Activity – where the proposed External Activity involves political activities that go beyond ordinary membership and/or “grass-roots” activities in a political party established and existing under applicable law.

¹² Please read the Guidance Note for a detailed explanation of each element. Officials holding a part-time appointment with the Organisation may, where appropriate, be exceptionally authorised by the Head of HRM to engage in another regular and remunerated activity.

- g) Holding of Public Office – where the proposed external activity involves election or appointment to public office¹⁶, such requests must be, consistent with Staff Regulation 4(c), approved by the Secretary-General.
 - h) Privileges and Immunities – where a request to engage in an External Activity may impact either the privileges and immunities of the official proposing to engage in the External Activity, and/or those of the Organisation.

Article 5 – Disclosure Obligation

- 19. Where officials have engaged in an External Activity without prior approval, in accordance with this Decision, they shall, without delay, inform their line manager of the situation and seek approval in accordance with this Decision. The line manager must, without delay, inform the Relevant Approver, the Head of HRM and the Head of Ethics about the situation.
- 20. In the event of a material change in the nature of an approved External Activity, the officials concerned must promptly disclose such a change and, where so requested, seek a new approval for such modified External Activity.
- 21. Officials who do not seek approval to engage in External Activities in accordance with this Procedure, fail to disclose a material change to the nature of an External Activity in which they have been approved to engage, fail to file an annual declaration of the External Activities in which they are engaging, or otherwise breach the terms of the Organisation’s approval of an External Activity, may be liable to disciplinary action in accordance with Staff Regulation 21.

Article 6 – Record Keeping

- 22. The Organisation shall maintain appropriate confidential records of External Activity approvals and External Activity declarations of officials, in accordance with Annex XII to the Staff Regulations¹⁷. Such records shall be maintained and managed by the Directorate, Programme or Service where the official who requested approval to engage in the External Activity exercises their official OECD duties.

1 Introduction

1. This Code is an Annex to the Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions applicable to officials of the Organisation (hereinafter, the “Staff Regulations”) and is established under the authority of the Secretary-General. It builds on the principles established by the Council in Title II of the Staff Regulations (reproduced in boxes in the sections below) and incorporates and expands upon the Instructions that were previously a part of Title II. The standards of conduct it sets out are of a binding nature.

To whom does the Code apply

2. The Code applies to all officials. It also applies to all unclassified staff, temporary staff members, staff on loan to the Organisation, and interns, to the extent that they are, by virtue of the OECD legal framework applicable to them, bound by the same ethical rules. For the purpose of this Code and for simplicity, all these persons are referred to as “staff”.

Leading by example

3. All staff are bound by the same rules and ethical values of the Organisation. Managers, supervisors and other leaders play a crucial role in the implementation of these standards by promoting them and leading by example. Managers bear a special responsibility to provide advice and guidance to their team members on the standards of conduct expected of them as staff and to foster a culture where staff are able to raise concerns and questions without fear of adverse treatment.

Our Values and Principles

4. Our Organisation’s core values, as set out in Title II of the Staff Regulations, are independence and respect for the international character of the Organisation, integrity and loyalty, tact and discretion, and respect for basic individual rights. These values overlap and complement each other to inform and inspire the delivery of our Organisation’s commitment to build better policies for better lives.

Where to get advice on the Code

5. The Head of Ethics provides advice and guidance on any questions relating to the ethical standards of staff in carrying out their duties to the Organisation. The Head of Ethics’ advisory role does not replace the obligations that staff have when it comes to obtaining the required approvals, nor does it replace the role that managers have in leading by example and guiding staff in the context of performing their Organisation-related duties, including, without limitation, helping to manage interpersonal conflicts. The Head of Human Resource Management (HRM) also provides advice and guidance on any questions relating to interpersonal conflict and harassment prevention and resolution, as per Annex XX to the Staff Regulations.

2 Independence and International Character

a) The duties of officials of the Organisation are international in character. Officials are subject to the authority of the Secretary-General, to whom they are responsible for the discharge of their duties.

b) Officials shall carry out their duties and regulate their conduct always bearing in mind the interests of the Organisation and the international character of their duties.

c) Officials shall neither seek nor accept from any Member country of the Organisation or any source external to the Organisation any instructions. Unless authorised to do so, they shall neither seek nor accept, any:

- i) gratuity or benefit in connection with their official duties or by reason of their status as an official of the Organisation;
- ii) honorary distinction; or
- iii) remuneration.

2.1 Working for an International Organisation

6. Independence and respect for the international character of the Organisation are values established in Staff Regulation 2. It means that staff's work should not be influenced by their past, current or prospective relationships, whether professional, personal or financial, including those involving their own country or government. Staff are not permitted to seek or accept instructions from any government, any of the subdivisions or agencies thereof, or any source external to the Organisation.

2.1.1 Interacting with Member Countries and Permanent Delegations

7. While conduct that furthers good working relations with Member countries and members of Permanent Delegations is in the interest of the Organisation and is performed by many staff as part of their duties, this must not result in any conflict with the independence of staff as international civil servants.

8. Staff have an obligation to refrain from making requests to officials of national authorities and, in particular, members of Permanent Delegations from their own government or country, to intercede on individual matters relating to employment at the Organisation. This is particularly important in the context of a selection process to fulfil functions within the Organisation, or of disputes staff may have with the Organisation or colleagues.
 9. Should staff be approached by an official of national authorities, including a member of a Permanent Delegation, to act in a way that is inconsistent with their duties, they shall escalate the matter to their Manager who may seek advice from the Ethics Office.

2.1.2 Dealing with third party entities

10. The Organisation engages with a range of third parties such as non-Member countries, and non-governmental stakeholders. To maintain the Organisation's independence and impartiality in all areas of its mission and work and to protect its reputation, engagement with third parties must be conducted in compliance with this Code and consistent with other applicable rules, policies and guidelines, including, for example, the Secretary-General's Guidelines on Managing Relations with Non-Governmental Stakeholders.

2.1.3 External activities

11. Staff who wish to undertake external activities for professional or personal development, or staff who wish to undertake activities in addition to, or outside of, their official duties for the Organisation, must follow the applicable procedure and guidance to obtain advance approval where required, as set forth in the Decision of the Secretary-General on the External Activities Approval Procedure (Annex XXIX to the Staff Regulations) and the related Guidance Note on the External Activities Approval Process.
12. Organisational approval is not ordinarily required where staff wish to engage, outside of the Organisation's working hours, in unremunerated, voluntary, community-based activities undertaken for a cultural, religious, charitable, social, leisure, or other similar purpose, provided such activities do not interfere with the staff's duties for the Organisation, are compatible with the staff's obligations, and do not pose a reputational risk to the Organisation or otherwise negatively impact the Organisation's reputation, public standing or its relationship with the Member countries or other relevant stakeholders.
13. Staff holding a part-time appointment with the Organisation may, given their part-time status, be authorised by the Head of HRM to engage in another regular and remunerated activity.
14. Further guidance is provided in the Decision of the Secretary-General on the External Activities Approval Procedure set out in Annex XXIX to the Staff Regulations and the related Guidance Note on the External Activities Approval Process, and may be sought also from the Head of HRM and the Head of Ethics.

2.1.4 Accepting awards, honours or other distinctions

15. Awards, honours or other distinctions, offered to staff in connection with their official duties, shall not be accepted unless the Secretary-General has given prior authorisation. The Secretary-General shall consider the advice of the Head of HRM and the Head of Ethics when deciding whether to authorise acceptance by a staff of any such awards, honours or other distinctions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, staff may accept an award, honour or other distinction where it is being presented to them without prior notice and where the refusal of such unexpected award, honour or other distinction would cause embarrassment to the Organisation, in which case it may be accepted on behalf of the Organisation and turned over at the earliest opportunity to the Head of HRM.
16. Where awards, honours or other distinctions are offered to a staff in connection with work accomplished before their appointment or for work or other accomplishments unconnected with official duties, such awards may be accepted provided the Head of HRM was notified in due time and did not raise any objection within fifteen days of being notified.

2.1.5 Accepting gifts, hospitality, remuneration and other benefits from external sources

17. Normal and customary hospitality may be accepted in connection with official duties. Protocol gifts¹ with a value not exceeding €100 that are given as a courtesy gesture may be accepted.
18. If a protocol gift is €100 or above in value, it must be reported in writing to the Head of HRM without delay. This also applies to any protocol gifts with value at or above €100 received while on a mission, which must also be reported in the mission report. If there is uncertainty as to its value being €100 or above, the staff concerned should similarly report the protocol gift to the Head of HRM. If the protocol gift is determined by the Organisation as not being a normal protocol gift, it shall become the property of, and should be promptly surrendered to, the Organisation. The staff, at the discretion of the Organisation, may be allowed to buy the protocol gift from the Organisation for its full value as determined by the Organisation. The Head of HRM shall decide as to the disposition of the award or protocol gift or of the proceeds derived from it.
19. Gifts other than protocol gifts should be politely refused. The only exception to this is where the refusal of an unexpected gift from a third party would cause embarrassment to the Organisation, in which case it may be accepted on behalf of the Organisation and turned over at the earliest opportunity to the Head of HRM, who will then decide as to the disposition of the award or gift or proceeds derived from it.
20. As for remuneration and other benefits from external sources, staff are authorised to receive:

¹ Protocol gifts are gifts that are offered to staff in connection with, or otherwise in the context of their Organisation-related duties. These may include tangible gifts, such as commemorative items, pens, handicraft, etc.

a) retirement pay or pensions; and

b) honoraria for public appearances or publications in connection with official duties, which shall then be either turned over to the Organisation to fund activities of the staff's directorate or donated to a recognised charity. Honoraria may include, for example, payments of token amounts offered to staff for speaking (or other) engagements.

21. Except for requests relating to the authorisations of external activities, which shall be processed in accordance with the Decision of the Secretary-General on the External Activities Approval Procedure set out in Annex XXIX to the Staff Regulations, any request for authorisation falling within the scope of Staff Regulation 2 c) beyond those set out in paragraphs 16 and 20 above shall be made in writing to the Head of HRM.²

3 Integrity and Loyalty

REGULATION 3

a) Officials shall:

i) carry out their duties in accordance with the highest standards of integrity and loyalty;

ii) conduct themselves with objectivity and impartiality and avoid any conflict of interest, or appearance of conflict of interest, in the performance of their duties;

iii) carefully manage the resources of the Organisation for which they are responsible;

iv) not use the Organisation's resources for their own personal benefit or for the benefit of third parties;

v) report any fraud, corruption or misuse of the Organisation's resources;

vi) not use their position within the Organisation, its name or logo or any information acquired in the course of their official duties to obtain undue benefits for themselves or third parties, or for any other inappropriate purpose.

b) Officials shall not be subject to any form of retaliation or prejudice as a result of disclosure in accordance with Regulation 3 a) v) and any related instructions.

3.1 Integrity and Loyalty to the Organisation

22. Staff must act at all times with integrity and have a duty of loyalty to the Organisation and perform their duties under the authority of the Secretary-General. Staff work to further the interests of the Organisation and should not be influenced in their work by any other interest.

² Remuneration from a Member Government may be authorised exceptionally pursuant to Staff Regulation 15 b).

3.2 Acting with objectivity and impartiality

23. Acting objectively and impartially means setting aside personal opinions, whether positive or negative, that staff may have of any country, government, organisation or person in a public context. Whatever the personal views of a staff might be, once the Organisation or the Secretariat has adopted a particular position on questions under discussion, staff should refrain from expressing views outside the Secretariat that would undermine such position.

3.3 Use of the Organisation's resources

24. Staff must carefully manage the resources of the Organisation for which they are responsible by always considering the need to optimise their use to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the Organisation and to support the development and well-being of its staff.

Each staff shall treat their workplace with care, not waste resources, and reduce the Organisation's environmental footprint whenever practicable.

The Organisation's equipment, supplies and systems are provided for the performance of official duties. Nevertheless, staff may, if the need arises, make occasional personal use of these resources. Staff are expected to use common sense and judgement in doing so, and to comply with any rules or guidelines which the Organisation may issue. Further guidance on the use of the Organisation's electronic resources, including occasional permissible use of these resources for personal reasons, is provided in the OECD Information Technology Policy: Appropriate Use of IT Resources.

Staff shall not make inappropriate use of the Organisation's resources, name, logo or information acquired in the course of their duties for personal benefit or for an unauthorised third party's benefit.

3.4 Conflicts of Interest

25. Staff have an obligation to avoid any conflict of interest or appearance thereof. A conflict of interest involves a conflict between the public duties and the private interests of a staff of the Organisation, in which the staff has private-capacity interests which could improperly influence the performance of his official duties and responsibilities.³

For the purposes of this definition, private interests include any advantage for staff, their close family members (as defined in Instruction 107/1) or someone with whom they have a close relationship.

26. Staff are to disqualify themselves from advising or acting in the course of their duties with respect to a matter in which they or someone with whom they have a close relationship (including a close family member as defined in Instruction 107/1) has a special personal interest. This includes, for example, procurement of goods or services from an enterprise in which they have a financial interest (other than a small investment in shares or securities of a widely held company); or the recruitment, performance evaluation, or promotion of family members. In exceptional circumstances, the staff's supervisor (director, head of service, or above) may waive this requirement where it is in the interest of the Organisation and where, in the case of the purchase of goods and services, the order has been subject to competitive tendering.

27. This also includes situations where a close family member or a person with whom the staff has a close relationship has a senior role in a private company which operates in a sector in which the Directorate in which the staff works is in the process of preparing or recommending policies that are relevant to such sector.
28. There may be other situations that do or are likely to create a Conflict of Interest and this is why, should a staff encounter any such situations, they should consult their Manager without delay. The Manager may seek advice from the Ethics Office.
29. If a staff faces a situation that appears to create a Conflict of Interest, or that may be likely to appear to create such a conflict or that raises the possibility of bias, they must inform their Manager, who in turn may seek advice from the Ethics Office so that any real or apparent conflict can be properly managed in a timely way. Each staff has a duty to manage Conflicts of Interests, whether by preventing their occurrence or taking appropriate measures to address them, or by mitigating any damage if the conflict has already occurred, through prompt and transparent action.

3.4.1 Upon joining the Organisation

30. Upon joining the Organisation, staff should not engage in any task within the Organisation that creates, or may appear to create, a Conflict of Interest between the Organisation and their former employer. This restriction shall apply for up to one year from the date they have left such former employer, unless derogation has been agreed by the Head HRM acting upon advice from the Ethics Office.

3.4.2 Prior to leaving the Organisation

31. A staff considering leaving the Organisation, who is either seeking or negotiating with, or has accepted an offer from, a prospective employer must not engage in any task within the Organisation that creates, or may appear to create, a Conflict of Interest between the Organisation and the prospective employer. In case of doubt, or if they are assigned such a task, they must inform their Manager and/or seek the advice of the Ethics Office so that the situation can be managed appropriately.

3.4.3 Post-employment

32. If a staff leaves the Organisation and their new position involves engaging with the Organisation in ways that could create an unfair advantage to their new employer vis-à-vis the Organisation itself or towards other parties that are also engaging with the Organisation, temporary limitations may be imposed on interactions with them in their new capacity. These limitations may continue for a period of up to one year from the date they left the Organisation, as may be determined by the Head of HRM acting upon advice from the Ethics Office.

3.5 Misconduct

33. Misconduct includes violations of the basic principles, rights and duties applicable to staff as set out in Title II to the Staff Regulations and in this Code of Conduct, which may be harmful to staff, or detrimental to the Organisation's reputation and achievement of its objectives.

3.5.1 Fraud and corruption

34. The Organisation does not tolerate fraud or corruption by its staff.
35. Staff must not engage in any form of corruption or fraudulent behaviour and must report any reasonable suspicions thereof.
36. In the event a staff becomes aware of fraud, corruption or misuse of the Organisation's resources, the staff must bring it to the attention of the Secretary-General either directly or through the relevant Deputy Secretary-General, Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Executive Director, the Head of HRM or the Head of Ethics.
37. As provided in Staff Regulation 3b), staff shall not be subject to any form of retaliation or prejudice as a result of disclosure in accordance with Staff Regulation 3a) v) and any related provisions of this Code.

3.5.2 Reporting Other Forms of Misconduct

38. If a staff becomes aware of any act of misconduct or suspected act of misconduct, beyond those specified in Section 3.5.1 above of this Code, they are expected to report these. Reports of misconduct may be made to the Secretary-General either directly or through the relevant Deputy Secretary-General, Director or Head of Service, the Director of Internal Audit, the Executive Director, the Head of HRM or the Head of Ethics. Staff should not bring frivolous or malicious allegations of misconduct. Knowingly making a false report of misconduct or suspected misconduct is in itself misconduct.
39. Similarly, any allegation, complaint, or testimony given in the course of an investigative process that is knowingly false or made in reckless disregard of the truth will be considered a violation of the Organisation's standards of conduct and may lead to disciplinary action.

3.5.3 Reporting Matters Unaddressed by the Organisation and Allegations Against Unclassified Staff

40. If a staff considers that an allegation of fraud, corruption or misuse of the Organisation's resources, or of any other type of misconduct, that he/she brought to the attention of the Organisation in accordance with the provisions of this Section, has not been properly addressed, the staff must bring it to the attention of the External Auditor and may bring it to the attention of the Council through the Permanent Representative holding the position of Dean. Instances where allegations of misconduct are brought to the attention of the External Auditor and/or the Dean may include allegations of misconduct against unclassified staff.

41. Where the Dean receives such allegations, the Dean shall convene a meeting of the Chairs of Standing Committees and Special Bodies to determine the appropriate next steps. If the Dean and Chairs of Standing Committees and Special Bodies consider that further action is required, the Dean shall convene a meeting of the Heads of Delegation to discuss the matter. Any decision on launching an investigation shall be taken by the Council by written procedure launched by the Director of the Council and Executive Committee Secretariat on the request of the Dean.
 42. In pursuing this process, the Dean, as well as the meeting of the Chairs of Standing Committees and Special Bodies and the Heads of Delegation may request to be advised confidentially and appropriately on the matter by the Director for Legal Affairs and/or the Head of Ethics. Such staff shall treat the matter confidentially and any such advice or information provided on the matter shall be considered a protected activity under Annex XXVIII to the Staff Regulations, [Decision of the Secretary-General on the Policy on Protection against retaliation for reporting misconduct (Whistleblower Protection Policy)].

3.6 Non-retaliation and duty to cooperate

43. Staff must cooperate fully with, and not hinder in any way, any investigation conducted into alleged misconduct. Further, staff must not retaliate or threaten any retaliatory action against another person as a result of that person having reported a reasonable suspicion of misconduct.
44. Any retaliation or threat of retaliation or prejudice against individuals reporting any type of misconduct or participating in the investigation of such reports (for example, as witnesses), will be deemed misconduct, and may lead to disciplinary action.
45. More information about the protection of persons reporting misconduct is provided in the Whistleblower Protection Policy set forth in Annex XXVIII of the Staff Regulations.

4 Tact and Discretion

REGULATION 4

Officials shall:

- a) carry out their official duties and conduct themselves with the tact and discretion that the international character of their duties and the interests of the Organisation require;
- b) refrain from any act which may harm the reputation of the Organisation or its officials;
- c) refrain from seeking or holding public office, unless authorised by the Secretary-General;
- d) refrain from publicly doing, stating or publishing anything incompatible with their duties or obligations or liable to involve the responsibility of the Organisation;
- e) make public statements concerning the Organisation or its activities only with permission from the Organisation;
- f) protect the confidentiality of sensitive, unpublished information that has come to their attention in the course of their official duties;
- g) continue to be bound by the obligation referred to in f) above after leaving the Organisation.

4.1 Tact, discretion and confidentiality

- 46. Staff must not disclose any confidential information they have acquired in connection with their work for the Organisation. Staff must ensure that any confidential documents or data in their possession are properly safeguarded, in accordance with applicable security policies and procedures. Further information on how to manage Organisational information appropriately is available in the OECD Information Technology Policy: Information Management Policy and the Information Classification and Handling Guideline. The duty of staff to protect confidential information extends to the protection of personal data in line with the Decision of the Secretary-General on the Protection of Individuals with Regard to the Processing of their Personal Data (Annex XII of the Staff Regulations).
- 47. Information obtained by staff in the course of their official duties may not be used to obtain undue benefits for themselves or any third party, or for other inappropriate or improper purposes.
- 48. Even after leaving the Organisation, former staff continue to be bound by the obligation to protect the confidentiality of information that has come to their attention in the course of their former duties, including any unpublished information.

4.1.1 Public statements and publications

49. Staff must refrain from making public statements, including publishing materials on any subject matter that are incompatible with their obligations as OECD staff.
50. In principle, public statements concerning the Organisation and its activities may, as per Staff Regulation 4e) only be made with the permission of the Organisation. However, consistent with the Organisation's policy of transparency and public accountability, staff may make public statements about activities of the Organisation in respect of which they have clearly allocated responsibility. In so doing, staff are expected to exercise good judgement and common sense and any such statements are subject to normal precautions such as non-partisanship and reserve concerning the positions taken by individual Member countries. Where appropriate, staff should seek guidance from the relevant Director or Head of Programme or Service beforehand.
51. Directors and Heads of Programme or Service are responsible for ensuring that public statements by staff are compatible with the Organisation's policies and interests. They may delegate this task to their Deputies and heads of division.

In some circumstances, including when a public statement is not made in an official capacity, a staff will have to make clear that the public statement does not necessarily represent the views of the Organisation. Staff are expected to consult with the relevant Director or Head of Programme or Service beforehand if there is a risk that a statement made in their personal capacity may nevertheless be construed as representing the official views of the Organisation, in particular in light of their seniority.

52. Staff should also take into account any guidelines published within the Organisation on public statements, including for example, the "Guidelines on Institutional Social Media Accounts" and "Guidelines on Personal Social Media Accounts at the OECD."

4.1.2 Seeking or holding public office

53. A staff who is planning to hold, run or be nominated as a candidate for public office must obtain the prior authorisation of the Secretary-General. The request for approval should be submitted to the Head of HRM. Such approval may be granted for holding public office at a local level in support of a local community. If permission to seek public office is not granted and the staff still wishes to run for such public office, s/he must resign from the Organisation. If only authorisation to seek public office is granted, but not authorisation to accept such public office while being a staff at the Organisation, prior to assuming the public office duties, the staff must resign from the Organisation.
54. Staff who have been given permission to seek election or nomination to public office may be required by the Head of HRM to temporarily step down from their function within the Organisation by taking unpaid leave for the duration of the election (or nomination) process including any active campaign.

4.1.3 Other Political or Politically Sensitive Activities

55. Staff who engage in public activities of a political nature, other than seeking or holding office, are not required to obtain prior approval of the Secretary-General. They shall nevertheless comply with other provisions of the Staff Regulations, in particular, Staff Regulations 2a), 3a) ii) and vi), 4 a) and b), and shall exercise common sense and good judgement in all such activities. In particular, a staff shall refrain from playing an active or prominent role in a non-governmental organisation which may seek to influence public policy debates within the Organisation. Similarly, a staff shall refrain from playing a prominent role in partisan politics in a Member country which may impair the staff's working relationship with representatives of the country concerned.
56. Staff invited to participate in advisory commissions whose members are appointed by a government or one of its subdivisions or agencies shall not accept the invitation unless authorised to do so, as provided for in the Decision of the Secretary-General on the External Activities Approval Procedure (Annex XXIX of the Staff Regulations). Staff asked to participate in a parliamentary hearing or commission in their official capacity must also seek prior approval to do so, either from the Secretary-General (for executive or senior executive staff) or from the Head of HRM (for other staff).

5 Basic Individual Rights and Rights of Association

REGULATION 5

- a) Officials shall not be subject to any discrimination on the grounds of racial or ethnic origin, nationality, opinions or beliefs, gender, sexual orientation, health or disabilities ⁽¹⁾⁽²⁾.
- b) Officials are entitled to be treated with courtesy, dignity and respect ³ (3).
- c) Officials are entitled to respect for their privacy.
- d) Professionally, officials have the right to express dissenting opinions in an appropriate fashion within the Organisation.
- e) Officials are entitled to exercise the right to organise, and are in particular free to form trade unions and staff bodies within the Organisation and to join and become officials of such bodies.
- f) All officials shall respect these rights in the course of their official duties and in their behaviour with other officials.

5.1 Courtesy, respect, human dignity and non-discrimination

57. Everyone is entitled to be treated with courtesy and respect for their human dignity, irrespective of any perceived or actual characteristic. Staff work for an Organisation that brings together people from a diverse range of cultural backgrounds, which each staff must recognise and respect in interpersonal interactions. As provided in Staff Regulation 5a), no staff shall be subject to discrimination on the grounds of racial or ethnic origin, nationality, opinions or beliefs, gender, sexual orientation, health or disabilities.

5.1.1 Inappropriate interpersonal interactions

58. All OECD staff shall treat one another, whether supervisors, peers or subordinates, in a professional manner, with courtesy, dignity and respect, and without harassment, or physical, psychological or verbal abuse. Any form of harassment, abuse of authority or discrimination constitutes misconduct and may result in the imposition of disciplinary measures, up to and including termination of employment, in accordance with Staff Regulation 21. Staff shall comply with the requirements of the Conflict and Harassment Prevention and Resolution Policy set forth in Annex XX of the Staff Regulations.

² For the purposes of the present Staff Regulations, Rules and Instructions, partnerships organising the conditions of a marital relationship registered with a national public authority shall be considered as marriage provided that all the conditions set out in Rule 16/0 (bis) are fulfilled.

59. The Organisation does not tolerate interpersonal interactions that breach these standards of behaviour. It is the duty of all staff, but particularly managers and senior leadership, to ensure that the work environment at the Organisation is free from such inappropriate behaviour.
60. Inappropriate interpersonal interactions include, but are not necessarily limited to, discrimination, bullying, personal harassment, sexual harassment and abuse of authority. Descriptions and examples of such inappropriate behaviour are set forth in Annex XX of the Staff Regulations.

5.1.2 Respectful communication

61. The Organisation aims to foster a professional and supportive environment where staff can communicate openly and clearly with each other. All interactions between colleagues, whether in-person, in writing or online, must be conducted respectfully and with mutual courtesy. Managers bear a special responsibility to lead by example in fostering and promoting respectful communication. They also have a particularly important role in promoting a culture of open dialogue where staff can feel confident to express their views.
62. Constructive criticism can be important for professional development. Managers should provide clear guidance to those whom they manage about what is required of them in performing their official duties and give regular feedback on their performance. Managers should be regularly available to listen and respond to any work-related questions, comments, objections or complaints with an open mind. Feedback and evaluation of performance by Managers, even if difficult to receive, when delivered respectfully and professionally, albeit firmly, cannot in themselves be considered to amount to disrespectful communication.
63. A staff whose professional opinion is contrary to a policy or decision of their immediate superiors or of another part of the Organisation may express that dissent in a reasoned and discreet manner within the Secretariat, including to responsible senior staff. If, having expressed their disagreement in accordance with this provision, staff still have serious reservations, they may ask to be given written instructions. Staff are bound, even where they disagree with a particular policy, to implement lawful Organisational policies or decisions once adopted.
64. Staff are obliged to share information with their colleagues that is necessary for the performance of their duties. Staff who wish to make use of the work of their colleagues must seek advice from them to make sure that their work is used objectively, and that the contributions of others are properly acknowledged.

5.1.3 Managing interpersonal conflicts

65. The Organisation recognises that conflicts between people in the workplace can occur. Wherever possible, such conflict should be dealt with informally between the people involved including, where appropriate, with the involvement of the relevant line manager and/or informal channels of the resolution procedures provided for in Part II of Annex XX of the Staff Regulations. The objective of informal resolution is to settle problems as soon as possible in a fair, constructive and respectful manner, through open communication and co-operation, before they escalate. Managers have a particular responsibility to address issues that are raised with them proactively, and in a sensitive and impartial manner.
66. In view of the independence and international character of staff's duties, staff shall settle any individual disputes they may have with the Organisation exclusively through the internal channels provided. Where informal resolution of an interpersonal conflict is not possible, staff may use the formal channels provided for in Staff Regulation 22 (Disputes), or where relevant, in Part II of Annex XX of the Staff Regulations.

5.1.4 Healthy and safe working environment

67. The Organisation endeavours to ensure a healthy and safe working environment. Staff are expected to share responsibility for their own safety and security. Managers must actively consider the well-being of those whom they manage, ensuring they can work securely, safely and effectively.

5.1.5 Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse (SEA)

68. The OECD has zero tolerance towards sexual exploitation and sexual abuse (SEA) committed by OECD staff vis-à-vis external parties, as described in the Decision of the Secretary-General on Prevention and Response to Sexual Exploitation and Sexual Abuse (SEA) ("Annex XX bis to the Staff Regulations").
69. All OECD staff, and especially managers at all levels, have a responsibility to create and maintain an environment which prevents SEA. They shall at all times fully comply with Annex XX bis to the Staff Regulations."

5.1.6 Conduct in private life and respect of privacy

70. In addition to maintaining the highest standards of integrity in their professional conduct, each staff must avoid private behaviour that might compromise the reputation of the Organisation or its relationship with Member countries and / or other stakeholders. The Organisation respects staff's right to privacy (see Staff Regulation 5 c)), nonetheless, there may be situations in which the conduct of staff in the private sphere impacts the Organisation.
71. All staff have personal as well as professional obligations and are entitled to respect for their privacy. This includes recognition that staff may be offline outside of normal working hours, including when at home or, where consistent with Annex XXIV of the Staff Regulations, remote working arrangements are in place.

72. Respect for privacy does not preclude the Organisation from acting with regard to staff whose conduct outside the Organisation or the scope of the staff's functions impairs their ability to perform those functions satisfactorily or which is incompatible with the status of an international civil servant. This includes actions which could damage the Organisation's reputation or be perceived as an abuse of the privileges and immunities of the Organisation or its staff.
73. The electronic accounts made available to staff are intended for the performance of official duties and not for storage of confidential personal information. The Organisation may access the content of such accounts with the consent of the account holder or with the authorisation of or in accordance with guidelines established by the Organisation.

5.1.7 Personal Data Protection

74. Staff having access to personal data relating to an identified or identifiable individual may utilise it only for duly authorised official purposes and must handle it with care and in accordance with the Decision of the Secretary-General on the Protection of Individuals with Regard to the Processing of their Personal Data (Annex XII of the Staff Regulations).

6 Protection in the Performance of Duties

a) Officials shall be entitled to the Organisation's protection in the performance of their duties. They shall continue to enjoy such protection after they have left the Organisation.

In particular, they shall not excuse officials from the performance of their private obligations or from the strict observance of law.

6.1 Privileges and immunities and Requests for assistance

75. Any request for protection under Staff Regulation 5bis) a) by a staff threatened or attacked because of actions or status as a staff of the Organisation shall be submitted to the Secretary-General through the Head of HRM. Protection may, for example, take the form of a contribution to the expenses occasioned by the legal defence of the staff's interests or other help in this context.
76. The right to decide whether immunities shall be claimed or waived is with the Organisation. A staff wishing to invoke immunity shall address a request to the Secretary-General through the Head of HRM. If it was not possible to request a prior decision, a staff claiming immunity shall immediately inform the Head of HRM. Any other difficulty arising in connection with privileges and immunities should immediately be reported to the Head of HRM.
77. Actions that could be perceived as an abuse of the privileges and immunities conferred on the Organisation and its staff must be avoided. The immunity of staff of the Organisation from civil suit or criminal prosecution is limited to things done by them in their official capacity; staff do not enjoy diplomatic immunity. The immunity of staff from civil and criminal jurisdiction is conferred for the sole benefit of the Organisation and not to staff in their personal capacity.
78. Staff must not abuse their special tax status or seek or accept means-tested benefits to which, taking into account their income from the Organisation, they are not entitled.

6.2 Complying with national laws

79. Staff must abide by the laws of the jurisdiction in which they live, work, and visit, whether for personal or professional reasons. This obligation includes the discharge of civil obligations, including the payment of alimony and child support as may be required.

7 Obligations and consequences

7.1 Duty to comply

80. The Organisation has established a body of Staff Regulations, policies, and standards - including this Code of Conduct - to govern and guide staff's behaviour. Staff are responsible for their own actions and are expected to know and follow the rules and standards that apply to them.
81. If a staff does not understand or is otherwise unsure about any rule or regulation relevant to staff's behaviour, s/he must seek further guidance by referring to information made available by the Organisation through intranet or otherwise, or by contacting his or her Manager (who may consult with Human Resource Management or the Ethics Office), or by seeking guidance directly from the Head of HRM or the Ethics Office.

7.1.1 Consequences of non-compliance

82. Failure to comply with the requirements the Staff Regulations policies and standards - including this Code of Conduct - to govern and guide staff's behaviour can have serious employment consequences, including the possibility of disciplinary proceedings and the application of disciplinary measures, including dismissal.

8 Final Provisions

83. Persons selected as staff must, prior to joining the Organisation, confirm their awareness of this Code, and disclose any external activity they would like to perform during their employment by the Organisation. Thereafter, staff must file in a timely manner an annual declaration confirming they are following this Code and identifying any actual, apparent or potential conflicts of interest in the performance of their duties, including any external activities in which they are engaging and for which approval is required. The information provided by staff in the context of this disclosure and declaration procedure should be sufficiently detailed to enable the Head of HRM to verify compliance with the Code. Where non-compliance with the Code is identified, where appropriate, corrective actions should be taken by the staff under a timetable agreed with HRM, to rectify such non-compliance.
